This is denied by the anti-Wolcott leaders, who say the adjournment was for the purpose of ef-fecting a Republican agreement. Radical measures have been adopted by the Republican Senate, which held an executive session today in the Lieutenant-Governor's office, to abridge the authority of the rival body and accomplish the re-moval of its officers. To this end, reso-lutions were adopted notifying the State Preasurer and Auditor that W. H. Adams, president pro tem.: Charles M. Sprague, secretary: J. Dooley, sergeant-at-arms, and assistants were removed from office and were not entitled to any pay for services as officers and employes of the Senate, from and after the 19th day of 1902. The debate was chiefly noticeable for a peech by M. Jaures, Secialist, who, after eplying briefly to M. LYNCH FOUND GUILTY WHY NOT

IRISH MEMBER OF PARLIAMENT MAY HAVE TO DIE.

First Conviction for Treason in Lots of People Are Doing It Now Many Years Is That of Man Who Fought for Boers.

LONDON, Jan. 23.—Colonel Arthur Lonch, member of Parliament for Gai-way, was today found guilty of high treaon, and was sentenced to death.

When the trial was resumed today, counsel for the defense began summing up. There was no attempt to deny that Colonel Lynch supported the Boers, but counsel contended that his naturalization to treasonable was in no way prompted by treasonable intent, and was solely for the advantage he would thus secure for journalistic pur poses. Subsequently the defendant sc-tively supported the Boer cause in the belief that he was a legally naturalized burgher.

Replying for the prosecution, the Solic-itor-General, Sir Edward Carson, maintained that Colonel Lynca toined the Boer Army as a discontented Irishman, "there by committing a most cowardly and most serious act of treason." His naturalization, continued the Solicitor-General, was only a flimsy protext. Counsel then proceeded to detail the prisoner's alleged acts of adherence to his country's enemies.

The Lord Chief Justice summed up very clubs of ours are organized, is the same

He said that if in war time a British subject joined the King's ene-mies, whatever his purpose, he was guilty of an unlawful act. Naturalization dur-ing war time afforded no excuse whatever for subsequent acts. There was abundant evidence, he said, of overt acts in aiding the King's enemies.

The jury, after having been out half an hour, returned a verdict of guilty. When asked if he had anything to say as to why he should not be sentenced to death, Coloned Lynch replied:

"Thank you. I will say nothing."
The sentence of death was passed each of the four counts in the indict-

The prisoner then bowed to the court and was removed in custody.

In delivering sentence, Justice Wills said the crime of high treason, of which said the crime of night treasure, the prisoner had been found guilty, was the prisoner had been found guilty, was the prisoner had been found to be althe prisoner had been found guilty, was happilly so rare that it seemed to be almost an anachronism. No civilized community had yet failed to punish severely defection from loyalty, whether in the way of open warfare or secret intrigue. In the darkest hours of his country's for-tune, when engaged in a deadly struggle. Lynch joined the ranks of its focs and shed the blood of his fellow subjects, fighting for their country, and sought to dethrone Great Britain from her place among the nations of the world. The only palliation which could be offered was that It had been the fashion for some years to treat lightly matters of this kind, and men had been encouraged to play with se-dition and toy with treason. The nation had treated with contemptuous indiffer-ence speeches and acts of sedition; but it was one thing to talk sedition and quite different thing to bear arms in the ranks of the country's foes.

Lynch throughout bore himself with unfaltering composure. He walked out stead-ily between the jailers and past the bench where his wife and other relatives were seated. Mrs. Lynch has been given permission to see her husband.

Although formally sentenced to be hanged, Lynch's sentence will no doubt be commuted. Lynch's conviction creates a parlia-mentary vacancy in Galway, and it is understood that Captain Shawe-Taylor, organizer of the recent land conference, who is now in America, will be a candidate with the approval of the various political parties, After the prisoner had been removed

Lynch and his counsel had a conference regarding the course to be adopted in the future, and later it was announced that no action would be taken at present. Counsel can proceed with applying for a After Cardinal Satolli introduced Mon- able that the prisoner will accept the fill the pulpit.

Don't Make Lynch a Martyr, LONDON, Jan. 24.-The newspapers this orning take it for granted that the sentence passed upon Colonel Lynch will be commuted. They urge that a punish-ment should be inflicted exemplary enough to act as a deterrent upon others, but not sufficiently severe to make Lynch a "England's treatment in the past of people and individuals whom she failed to conquer would sufficiently indicate what would be the fate of Colonel Lynch. REMARKABLE SUCCESS Of a New Catarrh Care.

A large and constantly increasing majority of the American people are catarrh sufferers. This is not entirely the result of our changeable climate, but because odern investigation has clearly proven that many diseases known by other names are really catarrh. Formerly the name catarrh was applied most exclusively to the common nasal catarrh, but the throat, stomach, liver, bladder, kidneys and intestines are subject to entarrhal diseases as well as the nasal passages,

The usual remedies-inhalers, sprays douches or powders—have been practically fallures as far as anything more than temporary relief was concerned, because they simply dry up the mucous secretions without having the remotest effect upon the blood and liver, which are the real

In fact, wherever there is mucous menibrane there is a feeding-ground for caources of catarrhal diseases. It has been known for some years that the radical cure of catarrh could never come from local applications, but from an nternal remedy acting on the blood and expelling the catarrhal poison from the A new internal preparation, which has been on the market only a short time, has met with remarkable success as a genuine, radical cure for catarrh. It may be found in any drug store, sold under the name of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, large, pleasant-tasting lozenges, comf principally of antiseptic ingredients odroot, red gum and similar catarrh

Dr. Alnalee, in speaking of the new catarrh cure, says: 'I have tried the new catarrh remedy, Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, upon 30 or 40 patients, with remarkably satisfactory results. They clear the head and throat more effectually and lastingly than any douche or inhaler that I have ever seen, and although they are what he called a patent medicine and sold by druggists, I do not hesitate to recom-mend them, as I know them to be free from cocaine and opiates, and that even little child may use them with entire snfety. Any sufferer from nosal catarrh, throat or bronchial trouble, catarrh of the stom-ach, liver or bladder, will find Stuart's Catarrh Tablets remarkably effective pleasant and convenient, and your drug-gist will tell you they are absolutely free from any injurious drug.

You Can Depend Upon Obtaining Results, Results That Last.

"Will it cure?" is always the first question asked by a sufferer who has made up his mind to take a course of treatment for any kidney ailment. "Will I stay cured?" follows as a matter of course If the reader is in doubt about what method to follow, read this statement carefully: Frank Stires, bricklayer, of 4559 Thirtythird avenue, Denver, Colo., says: "It is over three years since I recommended Doan's Kidney Pills through our Denver papers. At that time they stopped pain in my back and through the sides, which, although never severe enough to lay me up, was sufficient to cause more annoyance than any one should endure Doan's Kidney Pills can so easily be procured. If I had not received positive benefft when that remedy first came to my notice, I would be the last man in Denver to publicly indorse the medicine, and if the results obtained from the treatment with Donn's Kidney Pills had not been permanent, nothing could induce me to reindorse this medicine.
