Rummage Sale--Alteration Sale

We continue to make you acquainted with remarkable values this week; values that thronged the store to its capacity all day yesterday. We're lopping off every cent of profit on all remnants, odds and ends, broken lines, soiled merchandise, etc. On the second floor the alterations we told you about in Sunday's Oregonian are under way. Stocks must be reduced to give room for the force of carpenters now at work. Bargains extraordinary at every turn and just as we predicted the response was so great that all February Sales records have been left far in the rear. Come in the morning if possible. Shopping can be done with more comfort. A few of the great offerings are given here.

1903 Importations of Fine Embroideries

Are now on display—The largest, finest and best stock ever shown in Portland—They come to us direct from the famous makers of Switzerland and include Nainsooks, Cambrics, Edges, Insertions and Sets. The time for buying is now while the variety of styles is largest and best.

New Spring Goods Arriving In

THE CLOAK DEPARTMENT—New Walking and Dress Skirts came yesterday—New Waists—New White and Fancy Wash Fabrics—New Dress Fabrics—New Veilings and Hat Drapes—All are the very latest styles.
