PAVING WAY FOR NEW LAND BILL

British Government Revokes Crimes Act in 13 Districts and Releases Imprisoned Member of Parliament-Discord Has Decreased.

DUELIN, Feb. 2.-The Official Gazette announces today that the official proclamation issued last year placing 12 districts in Ireland under the crimes act and maintaining summary jurisdiction by the Magistrates is revoked.

LONDON, Feb. 2.—The relaxation of the crimes act in Ireland, which is re-garded in Irish circles as paving the way for the government's new land bill, still leaves sections of the act in force, provid-ing for the employment of special juries and a change of venue. In Siigo, Tippe-rary and Clare Counties no relaxation has been made and the Magistrate will still have the power of summary jurisdiction. The government also ordered yesterday the release of the Nationalist member of Parliament, Reddy, from Tullamore Jail. Mr. Reddy's sentence under the crimes act would not expire until next March. It is understood that the Irish members, William Redmond and John Ritchie, will also shortly be released. It is explained in the government press that boycotting and intimidation have greatly diminished and that the tone of pelitical controversy in Ireland has much

KING EDWARD HAS COLD. Therefore Delays His Visit to Ducal House at Chatsworth.

LONDON, Feb. 1-King Edward and Queen Alexandra were to go on a visit to the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire at Chatsworin this afternoon, but their departure was postponed at the last mo-ment, the reason being that the King was suffering from a feverish gold.

The royal train has been ordered to be in readiness tomorrow in the hope that the King will be able to carry out his intention of visiting the Duke and Duchess. There is probably no other house in the United Kingdom where royalty can be received with so little trouble or prepara-tion, inasmuch as a complete set of mag-nificent state apartments is kept for this very purpose. Much of the furniture at Chatsworth is of exceptional interest, and came to the former Dukes of Devonshire as gifts or perquisites of office. Thus, the state bed is that in which George II died, and the chairs and footstools served at coronation of George III, while the te music-room contains magnificent chairs used at the coronation of William

The Prince and Princess of Wales and the Prince and Princess Charles of Denmark left Windsor for Sandringham dur-ing the afternoon.

The King's Indisposition is not mentioned in the court circular issued this evening. Inquiry at Windsor Castle late tonight elicited the fact that his Maj-esty's condition had greatly improved, and that he needed only rest to effect a complete recovery.

It has been decided to further postpone the King's visit to Chatsworth, which now is expected to take place Wednesday. The Daily News published the following telegram from Baron Knollys, the King's private secretary.

"Windsor, Feb. 1, 10:40 P. M.—The King has a feverish cold. He is doing well, and I hope will be better tomorrow." BY SURPRISE AND TREACHERY.

Sultan Bought One Rebel Tribe and Routed the Rest.

talls of the Sultan's victory Thursday over the forces of the Pretender show that the battle was stubbornly contested and that the former's success was largely due to the co-operation at a critical moment of the Beni Ouriens tribe, whose defection from the rebels the Sultan had previously purchased.

The Sultan's artillery, which was commanded by the Minister of War, El Menebhi, consisted of eight Maxims and four Krupps. The Sultan's troops opened the attack early in the morning and shortly afterward the pretender's camp was assailed in the rear by the Bent Oureins. In spite of the surprise and disadvantages of position, the rebels stubbornly main-tained their ground and desperate fight-ing continued for three hours.

The slaughter was very great. The remnants of the rebel army then broke, abandoned the camp and fled in the di-rection of Taza. The imperial troops are pursuing and if Bu Ramara is not among the slain his capture is confidently ex-

El Menebhi is pushing on toward Taza with the object of entirely crushing the rebellion and punishing the disloyal tribes. He reports that he found the rebels much more numerous than expected but that he captured all their war munitions. There is great rejoicing at Fez as a result of the Sultan's victory.

FIGHT BETTER ON WINE. French Chamber Holds That Opinion of the Soldiers. PARIS, Feb. 2.-The Chamber of Deputies today continued the discussion of the army budget. The sitting was chiefly noticeable for the check sustained by the Minister of War, General Andre, and the mmittee over an amendment providing for an increase in the credits of $240,000 for the purpose of supplying the troops with wine. This increase, in spite of the opposition of General Andre and the committee, was adopted by 322 to 213. The main argument of the proposer of the amendment was that the campaign in China proved that soldiers supplied with wine showed more endurance than those who drank only water.

amendment to increase the credits by $1,000,000 in order to improve the soldiers' rations also was adopted by 187 votes to 160. After the passage of several provisions of the army budget, further discussion was postponed and the House

Losing Carrying Trade. LIVERPOOL, Feb. 2.—The Shipowners' Association here today adopted a report strongly condemning the antiquated shipping laws, which are said to be gradually forcing the carrying trade of the world into the hands of foreigners. The report ands imperial control of the mercar tile marine and the lighthouse service, instead of colonial regulation, and also holds that foreign vessels within the juris-diction of the British courts should be held answerable for claims in which British subjects are interested

CENTER OF METHODISM.

London Aquarium Opened as Hend-

LONDON, Feb. 2—A mass meeting of Wesleyans was held tonight to celebrate the acquisition of the Royal Aquarium, which is to be the future headquarters of the Wesleyan denomination. Eight thousand persons were gathered within the great hall, which was for so long one of the foremost amusement centers in the United Kingdom, R. W. Perks, M. P., chairman of the Nonconformists' Council, presided over the assembly and in his inaugural speech said he hoped soon to see the several sections of the Methodists federated in one united church. A number of addresses were delivered by prom-inent Methodist preachers.

Mr. Perks, in the course of his address, drew a contrast between the position of Methodism a century ago and the pres-ent, when the Methodists had in England alone 4,000,000 sittings, 2,000,000 children in their Sunday schools and 6,000,000 church adherents. It was fit and proper, he said, that they should have a central hall for their movement, where the political and religious administration of the country might be concentrated.

The audience applauded the announcement that the Aquarium's liquor license would be abandoned and not transferred to other buildings.

PRINCE AND PRINCESS COMING. King Edward Tells Miles His Heir

WIII Visit America. LONDON, Feb. 2.—Lieutenant-General Miles, who returned here from Windsor today, said to a representative of the seociated Press:

"The King received me most cordially recalled pleasant memories of our visit recalled pleasant memories of our visit here at the time of the jubilee, and spoke as friendly as ever of America. He showed keen interest in the Orient, on which subject I was able to give him information. Altogether it was a most pleasant visit. The King said he hoped the Prince and Princess of Wales would be able to visit America. Nothing, however, is definitely settled." ever, is definitely settled."

General Miles declined to discuss either the Venezuela or the Philippine question. By what the General terms a "mistake on the part of somebody here," Mrs. Miles was not invited to Windsor.

egotiators are agreed on all save the uestion of preferential treatment, the Ambassador is informed that Venezuela has decided to submit that question to The Hague arbitration tribunal. The acceptance of this proposition, Venezuela contends, carries with it a raising of the blockade, the general understanding being that the blockade would end when the ne gotiators at Washington had reached an agreement.

Against Modern Ethics. It is understood that in refusing this last proposition submitted by the British Amassador on behalf of the allies Mr. Bowen takes the ground that he cannot accept in principle the contention that blockades and bombardment of forts and the consequent killing of helpless men, women and children entitle any power or alliance of powers to preferential treatment at the hands of a civilized nation. It is claimed that should the peace powers and the blockading powers agree to such a principle, they would incorporate in the law of nations a doctrine in conflict with the tenets of all modern ethics. Moreover Venezuels, it is stated, regards the preferable because it would enable the continu ance of the triple alliance of Great Britain, Germany and Italy for a period of six years or more, and in accepting it Venezuela would be encouraging and abetting the maintenance of hostile alliances against herself. The British Ambassador is informed in the note that Americans North and South want peace, and not alto the action of the British government in initiating this last proposition, by which Great Britain can hold fast to Germany and Italy in their alliance against Venezuela until the last cent of the claim is paid. The prediction is made in her response that surprise and regret of the keenest sort will be felt throughout America when it is known that Great Britain has even proposed continuing her present alliance with Germany and Italy one mo ment longer than is necessary, particularly in view of her previous representations to the effect that she was anvious to end the Venezuelan dispute and call off the alliance at the earliest possible time.

May Go to The Hague. In suggesting that the question of preferential payment be referred to The Hague, it is understood that Mr. Bowen does so in view of the fact that the question to the only one that remains in dispute. All the allies are advised that Venezuela is desirous that all negotiators shall stand by what had been already agreed on. The British Ambassador declined tonight to make public the text of the note addressed to him, as it is in reality a note to the allied powers, but it became known that it was along the lines heretofore set forth, and concluded with an appeal for justice to The Hague tribunal upon the contention of the allies for preferential payment and an assertion that such action_carried with it the raising of the

Some significance may attach to the fact that, before dispatching the note to the British Embassy, Mr. Bowen was in holiday trade, but were delayed in shipment, have been pilling in on us by the carload, and, in order to make room for our regular shipments, we have concluded to unload them at a big sacrifice rather than to hire extra storage room. This will be an opportunity to secure a strictly high-grade piano at a much less price than is usually charged by others for the cheap kind. Many took advantage of our January sale, and many others will be glad of the opportunity thus afforded for February. While our January proposition was the best we have yet made, and all any one could ask, we have concluded to offer extra inducements this month in the way of monthly payments, and in this way reduce our stock quickly and turn an otherwise dull mouth into one of the busiest of the year. Here you will find an excellent assortment of the old reliables, such as the Knabe, Steck, Everett, Ludwig, Hardman, Fischer, Smith & Barnes, Kingsbury and other equally wellknown makes, and all sold at great bargains on our easy-payment plan. The payments during February will be $6, $8 and $10 per month, and old instruments will be taken in exchange for part pay. We would like to secure about a dozen good square planos for a special purpose, so here is an opportunity to get rid of that old instrument at a good price, and secure a nice new, upright at a low price. It would be impossible to quote prices intelligently on all, but suffice it to say you will find nice pianos ranging in price from $175 up, and such values could not possibly be obtained elsewhere for less than $100 more money. Come in and look them over. We will treat you courteously, and if you don't find something to suit you, we will be just as much obliged .to you for the call. If you prefer an organ, we have lots of them, from $40 up, also on easy payments.

MUST GIVE PREFERENCE.

Allies Say That Is an Essential of Any Settlement. BERLIN, Feb. L-The Foreign Office officials say that the interchange of views between Mr. Bowen and the representa-tives of the allies at Washington continues on the question of what form of preference the blockading powers shall have. President Castro will not be allowed to reach a settlement without giving some form of preference. The attitude of the United States continues as from the be-ginning to be dignified and friendly toward all the parties concerned in the dispute. DESIRES EQUAL TREATMENT. Castro Comments on Claims and

British Filibustering. NEW YORK, Feb. 2.-The Herald's Car. acas correspondent quotes President Cas-tro as saying, in the course of an intersires equal treatment for every creditor nation, at the same time keeping in mind and respecting its previous diplomatic agreements and obligations." 'As far as I can see the French claim !

"We have concluded that if there is no honor among nations nor virtue in international agreements we must defend ourselves, and to insure tranquility we must take possession of Trinidad and other adjacent places from which, with the consent of unfriendly powers, filibustering expeditions have started and have made Ven exuela welter in blood.

'The Ban Righ, which sailed from England, and the expedition under the com-mand of General Carib Vidal, which sailed from Trinidad, landing arms two weeks ago at Higuerote, would cost England as much as the Alabama claims if we had equal rights with the strong."

NATURE OF FRENCH CLAIMS.

Allies Have Recognized Priority of Some-Others Being Negotiated. PARIS, Feb. 1.-The officials here continue hopeful of an adjustment of the difficulties in the Venezuelan negotiations. They say the delays are largely due to misunderstandings among the powers con-cerning the different classes of claims. It was explained that the French claims, on which Venezuela conceded 13 per cent of her customs receipts, were those arbi trated by the President of Switzerland, amounting to $800,000. Several installments have been paid, but five remain unpaid. The French officials say Great Britain and Germany have heretofore given cate gorical recognition of this same settlement, so it will not be questioned now. The second class of the French claims covers the period prior to 1899, not covered by the previous Swiss arbitration before the arbitrators, who are meeting of 13 per cent, which applies only to the There is still a third class of claims, for the period after 1899. These also are not ecured by the customs. The French officials say the allies hav repentedly recognized French priority on the 13 per cent of the customs until the remaining installments of the Swiss award are paid. On the last two classes it is stated that France does not expect pri-ority or a separate fund of 13 per cent, but desires a settlement on equal terms Three Nationalities Protest.
