FOREIGNERS PAT MORE.-A logging man was quoted yesterday as saying that he was sorry to see the price of logs and lumber go so high as it is at present. He elsewhere. A millman when asked about this said that rough lumber was $2 per 1900 less here than in any other city on the Coast, and that the difference of a dollar or two per 1000 on the price of lumber cut little figure in the cost of a building. He also said that mills sold whose cargoes of lumber to go abroad for $2 per thousand more than citizens paid for small lots of lumber for building A man was met with a strip of board in his hand, rushing for a planing mill. When asked if the increase in the price of lumber made much difference in the cost of erecting buildings, he said: "Good No. 1 flooring is $10 per 1000 feet higher than it was three years ago." appears that the large mills which sell cargoes of lumber to go abroad really get about $2 per thousand more for it than the smaller mills which supply the retail trade can command. This may seem strange, but it is a fact. The large milling companies have an arrangement to keep up the price of lumber for shipment. The small mills cannot furnish cargoes to ves-sels, and so have to sell for what they

CURIOUS TO KNOW THEIR WEIGHT .- The thousands of people of all ages and constreet all day and till late at night are happy over the return of a weighing scale which has stood in front of a store on the street for a long time, and enabled the passers to ascertain their correct weight, free of cost. Some became so in-terested in their weight that they walked some distance out of their way daily to weigh before eating, and again after eat-ing, and thus kept tab on the amount of food they consumed. They gauged the amount they paid for food accordingly. One day a splay-footed behemoth jumper on the scale and broke it, and since that time many have gone to one of the automatic nickel-in-the-slot machines, which weighs a customer and then bellows out the weight in a voice such as the Delphic oracle spoke with. This has not been satisfactory, for there is a natural tendency to doubt the veracity of the oracles, and their voice is not pleasing. People would sooner see their weight in figures, for there is a widely prevalent idea that figures cannot ile. Since the scale which was broken has been returned, there is a steady procession of people passing over it, all pleased to see their weights pointed out in fair, plain figures, and no oracle mixed up in the matter.

CHIEF DEPUTY IS GLAD.-It was the salary of S. Grutze, chief deputy in the office of the City Auditor, which was increased by the Council Wednesday, and not the salary of the chief deputy in the City Enrineer's office, as was erroneously stated in the report of the Council meeting. Mr. Grutze has filled the position he occupies faithfully and efficiently for about 15 years. His work has been very considerably increased under the new charter. Several members of the Council opposed increase of salaries of city officials, but it was noticed by citizens present that these members had no objection to increasing the number of cierks and dep-uties. The reasons for this apparent in-consistency are obvious. As Mr. Grutze keeps the city's accounts, and there is only one journal, and only one man can would have been no use in doubling or trebling the number of deputies in the Auditor's office. The general opinion was that as Mr. Grutze's work had been increased, his salary ought to be raised.

REMOVING DEAD TREE.-Men have been at work for the past day or two placing chains around the limbs of a large elm near the entrance to the residence of Mrs. ing them to trees on each side to support it. This tree is one of the largest the row on Sixth street, and was injured by a large limb having been broken off years ago. An iron band was clamped around it to hold it together, but the wood has swelled out so as nearly to cover this. It has been removed and chains attached further up. The trees are only a little over 50 years old, and those which have lost no limbs are sound yet, except one or two on the north side of the block, which have decayed and have been re-

PHOTOGRAPHS ON APPLE SKIN.-Oregon excellent quality and large size of the apples produced here. It will soon be possi-ble to add to the beauty of the apples, as a method of producing photographs on the skins of apples has been discovered. The process is not difficult, but requires care and skillful manipulation. An an ratus for doing this kind of work will be secured for Oregon as soon as practica-ble. Just imagine the effect which would be produced in any foreign country by the exhibition of one of those boxes of Hood River three-tier Yellow Newton apples, with a portrait of one of the most beautiful of the Hood River girls in each

A FRIENDLY CONTROVERSY .- A fight between two brother Knights of Pythias cost each of them $10 yesterday. Spider Johnson and M. A. Olsen, who were arrested by Chief of Police Hunt, were be fore Municipal Judge Hogue and found guilty of violating the city ordinance by fighting. Both testified that they had been engaged in a friendly controversy, and that when the Chief saw them, one had stumbled and fallen, while the othr had fallen over him. The proprietor of the Brunswick saloon, at which place the fighting was said to have taken place, was called, and said that the men had been arguing when they left his salon but that he had not seen them fighting.

WINTER FIFTY YEARS AGO,-Colonel C. A. Reed was seen yesterday bathing in the sunablee in front of his office on Fifth street. He spoke of the delightful Winter and said he had been comparing inst month with January, 1852-50 years ago. At that time there was a foot and a half to two feet of snow all over Marion. a hair to two sect of show all over Marion County, where he was living, and he had been cutting down cak trees, so that his cattle might eat the moss on them. It was not very nutritious food, but the cat-tle devoured it. And as the Winter did not last very long, they managed to live EXAMINING FIREMEN.-Dr. Blersdorf, the Health Commissioner, yesterday com-menced the work of making the physical examination of the members of the Fire Department, which they are required to go through under civil service. Some 15 or 20 successfully passed the examination yesterday, and the work will be continued until all have been examined, regulars and extra men. It will probably take two r three days to complete the job.

SIDEWALK ROSE TO MEET HIM.-The work of laying cement sidewalks in the district where wooden walks are tabooed is going ahead at a moderate rate, despite the low temperature. By covering the freshly laid walks with tar paper and placing a thick layer of sawdust on top, all danger from frost is prevented. All will be glad when the weather becomes favorable, so that this work can proceed nore rapidly, as there are many very dilapidated wooden sidewalks in the dis trict. These are rapidly growing worse, the property-owners endeavor to avoid making any repairs to them, on the excuse that they are to be replaced by cement walks at once. It will, however, take a year, or probably two years, to get rid of all the old wooden sidewalks in the district where cement walks are now required. A funny incident happened in connection with one of the decayed in connection with one of the decayed sidewalks and a connecting crossing a few days ago, just before the frost set in. A property-owner who has often been known to complain about defective walks and crossings, while passing in front of prop-erty owned by himself, was hearly thrown down by a broken plank, and when he stepped on the crosswalk, one end went down and the other flew up. This time thought it would have a tendency to deter building operations here, and to drive business to British Columbia and the did go down, but got up and walked off without saying a word to anybody. Objections to Western Trip. NEW YORK, Feb. 5.-Columbia University plans the making by its football team of a trip to the West in order that, its team may play some of the more important Western elevens. Richard Smith, the Columbia captain, is a Westerner, coming from Oregon, and has therefore manifested an especially keen, interest in the project.

For the last few years some of the Western teams have annually written Co-lumbia asking for games to be played on the home gridiron. Up to the present it has been impossible to accept these offers because of faculty objections. This difficulty has now, it is said, been over-come, and there is practically no doubt that Columbia will this season make the ourney West to test its mettle with the Western elevens. Captain Smith some time ago wrote to Leland Stanford, Jr., University and to the University of Cali-University and to the University of Cali-fornia, seeking to perfect arrangements with their football managements for games between their teams and Columbia during the season of 1863. Favorable answers have, it is said, recently been received from both of them.

It is understood that the contests will come off during the Christmas holidays. in order that they may not conflict with the regular academic work of the football-

Outsiders a Chance. FRANCISCO, Feb. 5.-Favorites took the first three races at Oakland to day, and after that outsiders were success ful. The weather was fine, but the track was still muddy. Demonlo, a youngster that made his first appearance in the 2-year-old event, went to the post a 2-to-5 favorite and romped home in front of his field. The performance of the heavilybacked Frank Pearce in the fourth rac was very bad, and the judges are making an investigation. "Kid" Oglesby Throws Up Sponge After Ten Rounds.

BUTTE, Mont., Feb. 5.—"Kid" Oglesby, of Montana, lost to Mexican Aurelio Herrera, of Bakersfield, Cal., tonight, his sec onds throwing up the sponge at the end of the tenth round of what was to have been a 20-round go.

Oglesby was badly punished and was barely able to stand on his feet. It was an uneven match from start to finish. Oglesby lacked his former fast footwork and was a punching bag for the Mexicar Herrera simply played with the Helena lad, and when he had Oglesby over the ropes would assist him to the center of the ring and punch him.

Ogiesby wore himself out trying to break down the apparently impregnable defense of the Mexican the first two rounds. His blows were woefully weak and he made no impression whatever upon Harrars.

"A Night on Broadway." Richard RoeOllie Mack Watts "Doing" Edward Powers Fitz Strongman Den E. Mellen Willie Chaser. George K. Higginbotham Telescope Man......J. A. Crawford "Jimmle the Mug".....George Conway G. W. Phillips.... Chauffeur,J. W. Patterson Metta Mann Lillian Durham Mary Reich......Maud Harvey Mamie Slowtalk Jane Richards

Roaring fun was enjoyed at the Marquam Theater last night at the presenta-tion of the musical farce "A Night on Broadway," under the management of Ollie Mack, the book being by Messrs. Skinner and Campbell, and the music by Theodore Northrup. Charles A. Murray and Oille Mack were the stars, and received good support. The attendance was well-painted view of Broadway and Fortysecond street, New York City, and the action starts with a rousing chorus and a song "When We Strike Broadway," by Lilian Durham and chorus. Miss Durham has a good presence and pleasing coprano voice, and she excels in trilling. There is not much plot to speak of, the main idea being to illustrate an attempt by Murray and Mack to sell a brickyard. Then there are the woes of a professional strong man, who easily breaks a lamp-post in two, because his wife, played by Lillian Durham, persists in running away from him. The gallery expected mirth of the Murray and Mack order, and they got it. When these two comedians first appeared on the stage they got an ovation. The best scene is at the end of the first act, when the whole company throw confetti at each other until they are entangled in its long, windtolls. Confetti is also thrown among audience. Once Murray takes refuge in an eight-day clock, and on being asked when he emerges what he was doing, he replies, "Doing time." Mack tells about his insurance, saying: "In my insurance when I die I go to a good piace, and if I don't get there, I get all my money back." The electric light effects are good, but n one place the light is a trifle too strong one's eyes. There is quite an amus ing time when a mechanical doll is intro ed, G. K. Higginbotham cleverly impersonating the doll. Kitty Beck, Edward Powers and the company made a hit in the song "Pinky Panky Poo," when the electric light is extinguished, and a firefly dance is introduced. Charles Howard, as a Hebrew capitalist, sings a number of humorous source. Put reconstructions umber of humorous songs. But one of the most laughable incidents is a boxing match between Murray and Mack. It is safe to say that even Fitzsimm decline to share in its periles

"A Night on Broadway" will be the attraction tonight and tomorrow night, with matinee tomorrow afternoon.

Very few plays, if any, presented this season at Baker's Theater, have met with such demonstrations of approval as "Men and Women," the attraction this week. The entire house has been sold out every right, and people who could not get seats were content to stand in the lobby. "Men and Women" gives everybody in the cast a genuine chance to do his or her best work. It is an intense emotional play, with plenty of heart beats through it, it does not present an altogether tearful aspect, as the comedy is well sustained, especially in the love-making between Colonel Zachary T. Kipp, a former mem-ber of Congress, and Mrs. Kate Delafield, dashing widow. The scene in which he proposes marriage to her is exceedingly well portrayed, and causes many a laugh. Baker Theater patrons have only two more nights in which to see this artistic

Sale for Florence Roberts. This morning at 10 o'clock the advance sale of seats will be placed on sale for Florence Roberts, who begins an engagement of one week at the Marquam Grand Theater next Monday night, February 9. Her repertoire this year appears to be the strongest ever presented here by a vis-iting star. The characters assumed by the brilliant actress next week are many and varied, and are certainly a powerful convincing test of Miss Roberts' extraordinary versatility. On Monday and Tuesday evenings "Zaza," the great David Belasco drama, will be presented, and on Wednes-day and Thursday "The Unwelcome Mrs. Hatch," by Mrs. Burton Harrison, will be presented for the first time in this city. It is said to be Miss Roberts' bit this sea-son. The great Loudermann drama, son. The great Loudermann drama, "Magda," will hold the boards on Friday vening. Lavish praise has been bestowed upon Miss Roberts for her splendid char-acterization of the title role. Anthony Hope's romantic comedy, "The Adventure of the Lady Ursula," will be the Satur-day matinee bill, and "Sapho" will be revived on Saturday evening. "The Starbucks" Next Week. The Starbuck family and all their friends from the Cumberland Mountains will be seen at the Baker Theater next week, starting with the usual Sunday matinee, in Opic Read's beautiful pastoral omedy. "The Starbucks." The Baker Stock Company will be seen to excellent advantage in this famous Read story. During Opic Read's recent visit to Portland, Manager Baker made arrangements to produce "The Starbucks" at his popular playhouse. Mr. Read is very careful to whom he intrusts his play, as it is his favorite. He attended the Baker The ater one evening and witnessed a per-formance of the company. Before the end of the play he informed Mr. Baker that he was perfectly willing to intrust it to the Baker company, particularly as Mr. Dills was with him during its original production at the Dearborn Theater, Chi-cago. Mr. Dills will assist Carlyle Moore in its production and an exceptionally fine performance will be looked for.

Harry Ward's Minstrela. Harry Ward's big minstrel company numbering 40 artists, opens a three nights' engagement at Cordray's, commencing with a matinee Sunday at 2:15 P. M. This season the management has endeavored to make this organization the strongest comination ever placed on the road. Ame the features are: Fisk and Rogers, the world-famous musical comedians, who carry without doubt the finest collection of novel musical instruments in existence: Morello, the phenomenal juggler: Walter Monroe, the aerial artist: Ivers, Neff and Van Fossen, the most intricate of flat-foot dancing. The first part, with its myriad of colored incandescent lamps and beautiful costumes, representing "A Night in Venice," is alone a surprise. The parade pre-sents two bands and a megaphone quar

Cordray's Matinee Tomorrow. "Weary Willie Walker," the funmaker and the pretty girls with plenty of up-todate music, now playing to big audiences at this theater, will give the usual ladies and children's matinee tomorrow. The en-gagement closes tomorrow night.

Bill to Protect Linemen. In order that linemen may be better pro-tected while engaged in their dangerous calling, a bill will soon be introduced into calling, a bill will soon be introduced into the Legislature providing that all wires must be properly insulated before line-men are required to work among them. The bill is being fathered by the Elec-tricians' Union, whose members are nat-urally interested in such a movement. Other provisions of the bill state that it be made unlawful for electric light wires to be strung within four feet of telecrossarms are to be at least 15 inches apart. The new bill is being drawn up by Messrs, Couch, Welch, Burns, Healis and Clinton, and further provides that every pin on the cross-arm be marked to indicate the power in the wires attached. The bill is practically the same as that in force in San Francisco, where it has been the means of saving many lives. Those at work on the bill expect to have it completed in a day or two.

FOUGHT FOR HER BABY.

Mother, Separated From Her Hu band, Takes Child by Force.

Fearing that a mother has taken he baby, and angered because, in getting possession of the baby, the frantic had cruelly beaten an aged woman who had it in charge, Sarah F. Jones yesterday swore to a complaint of assault and battery against Mary Snider. Family rouble, which has been brewing for son time, led up to yesterday's incident. Mary Snider is the wife of Q. P. Snider, who worms on one of the Willamette River boats. Owing to some trouble that has existed between them, the couple is not living together. At first the mother was allowed to have charge of the baby, but the trouble developed to such an extent that it was taken in charge by the father and Mrs. Jones, who keeps a private home for homeless babies, was paid to keep the little one.

Little or nothing was known of the nother for some time. The father noid for the baby's keeping, and virited it when his boat was in the city. The mother, according to the statement made by Mrs. Jones, was despondent over the turn things had taken, and had often threatened to take her own life and that of the child. Yesterday, while she was alone in the house, the mother appeared and asked to see the baby.

A strange woman was with her, and they and no sooner entered the house than Mrs Snider struck the old lady, then grabbed her and held her arms. The other woman was called to assist in the trouble, and held Mrs. Jones while the mother went upstairs, took her child and left. Peoole who know Mrs. Snider say that her mind seems to be affected, and that they fear she and her baby are both in the octtom of the river.

It was a few moments before 12 o'clock that the mother disappeared with the child, but as the people did not know where she had been living they do not know where to get a trace of her. As she and her husband are not divorced, no charge could be entered against her for taking the child. On the charge of as-sault and battery, however, she can be brought back by the officers, and the beby's safety assured. No trace of mother or baby had been found at a late hour

Arthur M. Putnam, who served for over il years on the Portland police force, died suddenly at his home, 230 Sheridan street, yesterday morning at 8:30 from heart trouble. The deceased was a native of Tribe Hill, N. Y., and was 57 years of age. He came to Portland in 1889, and in 1885 was married to Miss Helen Kunst, who with two sons survive him. He was veteran of the Civil War, having beer member of Company G, Twentieth New York Cavalry, for two years.

Interment will probably take place Sunday at Lone Fir Cemetery, though specific arrangements have not yet been
