SCHOONER ANITA PREPARING FOR A PHILIPPINE CRUISE.

The 75-ton schooner Anita which will soon sail for the Philippines to enter the hansom-cab trade is on the ways at Astoria shipyard, as the head trade holds promise for her venture. This class of vessel a general combination, and liquor will be carried in addition to hay from other vessels.

In the wake of the Columbia River, where the boat is to be launched, is a group of vessels which are expected to be in service on the river in the near future. These vessels will be constructed by the shipyards of the Pacific Northwest and are expected to be a credit to the industry.
