PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 25 .- At the Penn Art Club tonight 4000 people saw Terry McGovern, the ex-featherweight cham-pion, defeat Billy Maynard, of this city, in what was to have been a six-round contest. Maynard was knocked out in the fourth round; after receiving severe pun-

McGovern adopted his usual rushing taclics, scoring knockdowns in the first and third rounds, Maynard being on his knees when the gong sounded at the end of the third round. The local man made his best showing in the second round, holding his own in several exchanges. McGovern never let up in his rushes, however, and wore his man down with terrific body blows. A right-hand blow on the law early in fourth round sent Maynard to the floor and he was counted out.

Corbett and McGovern's Fight.

SAN FRANCISCO. Feb. 26.-Young Cor-bett, who is to meet Eddle Hanlon in a 0-round bout in this city tomorrow night, has deposited with Morris Levy, of the Hayes Valley Athletic Club, the sum of $500 as a guarantee that he will be ready to meet Terry McGovern befor eLevy's club next month. Corbett is convinced that San Francisco is the only city in the country where the men can meet without violating the law, and states that mless McGovern comes to terms at once will take it as a confession of Mc-

Govern's fear to meet him and will drop oklyn lad from further consideration. The Hayes Valley Club offers 60 per cent of the gross receipts for the fighters. Young Corbett is so anxious to meet Mc. day forwarded to President J. T. Moran always in the pink of condition. O'Keefe is another of this sort. He likes the hum-drum of training and hasn't a lazy germ in his body. In fact, he works so hard as a rule that he is apt to grow stale, and be overtrained when the night of the fight comes off. Sig. Hart, how-ever, watches his ward and does not alow him to work himself to death.

The bout between Britt and O'Keefe has awakened a lively interest in Chlcago, O'Keefe's home. George Siler, the noted Chicago referee, likes the O'Keefe end of the contest, and has said so in his column in the Tribune.

It is amusing to note the wind-jabbing turn which the Corbett-Jeffries imbrogli has taken within the last few days. Some member of the sporting gentry took his yen-hoke, doped his pipe and dreamed that he could hang up a purse of $25,000 for a fight between the heavies in Newada. Through some system unknown to Marconi, the ex-champion learned of the bid and accepted it, in spite of the fact that it was to be a fight to the finish. As soon as Corbett had accepted the "dream purse" he laughed aloud, "Ha! ha!" and in a hoarse stage whisper said aloud: "Now no known cannot that crouching week "Now no longer canst that crouching boiler-maker talk through that New Eng-land dinner which he carries under his

In Corbett Hanlon will meet a boy who will stand to and exchange wallops an swings with him to the call of time. Cor bett, like Hanlon, is at sea with a shifty and speedy fighter. It is for this reason that Hanlon seemed so slow when he mixed it with the clever Attel. The fight should be a hammer and tongs affair just as soon as the boys get a line on each other. In doping the outcome, the champio looks the better, and unless the lucky punch 'does the trick, there is little danger of Corbett losing his title. In ring experience the Denver lad has decidedly In ring the best of the going, and ought to be warm favorite.

Joe Cotton, the colored fighter who has battled all over the East and West, came to Portland several days ago for the purpose of getting on a match with Jost, a well-known local fighter. Cotton has beaten some of the best in the second fighting division. One of his best battles was with Tommy Ryan in Philadelphia, which went 20 rounds to a draw. Cotton ernor may cause the Attorney-General to' vacate the charter and privileges of the association. A c...cago statesman has introduced a imilar measure or a limited go. Cotton can be found at O'Keefe's training quarters, Tom Tracey has a new picture of Jack Dempsey which is attracting a great deal of attention. The picture is one taken when that great fighter was en-joying the best of health. In the pic-ture Dempsey looks more like a hank BRISTOL, R. I., Feb. 25.-The new cur yacht is growing rapidly. The upper por-tion of the stem his been fastened on the ply. It is of steel and is attached to the bronze stem underneath, giving to the boat her designed outline at the forward end. In many respects this gives the appearance of a spoon bow, but not to a radical degree, owing to the length of the overhang. The mainmast, which is now completed in the south shop, shows a length which will preclude the possibility of the gaff being too far out bared, as was the case at one time with the mast of the Constitution. # NO UP-TOWN EXHIBIT.

But Information Bureau Proposes Merger to Chamber of Commerce.

The Trustees of the Oregon Information Bureau have addressed the following let ter to the Chamber of Commerce in reply to the proposal to maintain an up-town exhibit of the state's resources. In view of the fact that the Information Bureau will have a complete exhibit at the Union depot, it was decided not to accept the offer of the Chamber of Commerce. The counter-proposal has been made of merg-ing the two exhibits under the manage-ment of the Information Bureau. The letter follows:

We expect to install at once a display of the products of our state. This, howover, is only to draw attention to its diversified re-sources, and will be secondary so far as the objects of the bureau are concerned. We have, through the courtesy of the Ter-minal Company, secured (free of rent) suitable office and display accommodations at the Union Depot. While we are willing to concede some advantages to be derived from an up-town office, we are of the opinion that the greatest good can be accomplished through the location we have selected, and all subscriptions to the fund were made with the understanding that this location has been secured. We therefore cannot change the plan at present. # Good Food Makes It.

No one so well knows the delicious feel ing that comes from being well fed as the one who has suffered and then found food that really would digest and nourish. Feed the body aright and see the change. "Well, I had reached that stage of not weil, I had reached that singe of not caring much to live and still not quite sick enough to die when I finally was in-duced to try Grape-Nuts. The food worked like a charm. There was no distress after esting and I felt as if I had a little hold on life. That was the beginning of the end of my sickness. The nervousness gradually left me and I became entirely cured of that dreadful disease, nervo prostration. I soon regained my usual weight and more, and have more color in my cheeks than I have had in years, and I give Grape-Nuts the credit. I could
