

LEVY IS NOT GUILTY

The Special Committee Exonerates Him.

REPORT RECEIVES APPLAUSE

Speaker Hare Now Wants Charge of Collusion Probed to Bottom—Levy Has Harsh Words for Seattle Newspaper.

OLYMPIA, Wash., Feb. 26.—(Staff correspondence.)—Representative Levy, the King County member of the Legislature accused of soliciting a bribe, was exonerated today by the special committee appointed to examine into the matter. As outlined in today's Oregonian, the testimony was too conflicting and ambiguous to warrant the committee in returning anything but a favorable report. The only qualification in the report was a mild intimation that Levy, like the parrot in the story, had talked too much.

The report was greeted with applause when read in the House, and was unanimously adopted. It makes a direct charge that the contractors intended to force Levy off the printing investigating committee, and, if possible, shield themselves from the searching inquiry. If that was their intention, the printers are now in a worse position than they were before, for Speaker Hare, addressing himself particularly to the members of the printing investigation committee after the adoption of the report, said:

"I trust now that the committee appointed to investigate the charges of collusion in connection with the state printing awards will make no farce of it, but will go to the bottom of the matter in returning anything but a favorable report. The only qualification in the report was a mild intimation that Levy, like the parrot in the story, had talked too much.

The report was greeted with applause when read in the House, and was unanimously adopted. It makes a direct charge that the contractors intended to force Levy off the printing investigating committee, and, if possible, shield themselves from the searching inquiry. If that was their intention, the printers are now in a worse position than they were before, for Speaker Hare, addressing himself particularly to the members of the printing investigation committee after the adoption of the report, said:

"I desire to thank the committee for its fairness and for the thorough manner in which it has investigated these charges. In particular I desire to thank one member of that committee for his attitude. The gentleman of the minority (Mr. Quinn, of Spokane) and I have had a number of sharp arguments on the floor of this House, and in party matters I have frequently criticized him severely. I appreciate the fair manner in which he treated me during the investigation of these charges. I desire to say that I have spoken to the two other members of your special printing investigation committee, and asked them to do so, and will endeavor to make a thorough investigation of the matter.

The charges that were preferred against me were absolutely without foundation. I have been attacked by the men whose conduct I was investigating and by two newspapers, one of which was involved in the charges of collusion and the other a newspaper published in the City of Seattle, which has continually misrepresented me. This newspaper began attacking me when I was a candidate for membership in this House of Representatives; it has misconstrued my statements and misrepresented my attitude ever since."

Levy then made a very bitter personal attack on the editor of a Seattle paper which has been quite violent in abusing him since the session opened. The morning session of the House adjourned immediately after Levy's speech, and he was congratulated by most of the members of the House as they passed out of the room.

When Levy, in the course of his speech, stated that he had offered to withdraw from the chairmanship of the investigation committee, cries of "No" came from different parts of the House.

The report of the committee which investigated the charges reads as follows: "We, your special committee appointed to investigate the charges made by the contractors for state printing against Mr. Louis Levy as chairman of the House investigating committee on state printing, beg leave to report in accordance with the instructions given in the appointment of this committee, the committee met on Wednesday, February 25, 1903, for the examination of witnesses and the taking of testimony relating to said charges.

There appeared before, and were examined by your committee, all of the making and signing said charges, and also P. T. Houghton, state printing expert, and numerous other persons having knowledge of the fact involved. Witnesses on behalf of Mr. Levy were also produced before the committee, and their testimony taken to refute the charges made.

The hearing before the committee was conducted openly, and the fullest opportunity given to all persons to appear and give testimony bearing upon the charges. The testimony given by certain of the witnesses produced and examined was so directly in conflict, one with another, that their testimony cannot be harmonized.

It is the opinion of the committee, from the testimony produced, that certain statements were made by Mr. Levy to certain of the contractors for state printing, which caused a misunderstanding and misconception to be placed by such contractors upon the acts and statements made to them by Mr. Levy in the course of the investigations of his committee, and which may have led the printing contractors to do as they did. It appears that your committee that certain statements were made by Mr. Levy to certain of the contractors which were upon his part, at least, indirect and injudiciously made, but it is the opinion of your committee that any such statements or any demands made by Mr. Levy of said contractors were not made with the intent or purpose upon his part of demanding or obtaining from them the payment of any money corruptly or as a consideration for any dishonest or improper action by the committee of which he was chairman.

We further find from the testimony that parties signing the charges made probably did not intend or expect that their action in making such charges would be as closely investigated as has been done by this committee, but that their main object and purpose was to withdraw Levy from the investigation of the charges by his committee and probably shield the state printing contractors from a careful and thorough investigation of the work being done under said contracts.

We further report and find that as to the first and second items of the charges filed, there was absolutely no testimony presented in support of the same, and as to the remaining items of said charges the testimony of all the witnesses produced was in the opinion of your committee, insufficient to sustain the charges as true within any degree of probability.

HOUSE AND SENATE WILL ROUND UP THE WITNESSES WHO HAVE BEEN REFUSING TO APPEAR AND TESTIFY.

Senator Angle, of the Senate committee, has been appointed to head the joint committee, and some important developments are expected when they get to work again. It is the belief that the failure to support the charges made against Levy has injured the cause of the printers, and the change in sentiment will result in a much more rigid investigation than was thought necessary when the committee was appointed.

No Longer Reform School Trustee—Senate's Absurd Mistake.

SALEM, Or., Feb. 26.—(Special.)—Superintendent of Public Instruction J. H. Ackerman is no longer a member of the board of trustees of the Oregon State Reform School. Under the provisions of House bill 202, he has been superseded by the State Treasurer. The change is satisfactory to all concerned principally. The bill as introduced by Representative Davey proposed also to change the name of the Reform School to "State Industrial School," and the bill carried an emergency clause declaring that the present name is very unsatisfactory and that it is necessary that the new law go into effect immediately.

Representative Martin Maloney opposed the bill for the reason, as he stated, that God Almighty had intended Ferry and Stevens to form a district by themselves. He was also opposed to railroading such important bills through before the members had an opportunity to read them.

Cameron spoke three times, and insisted that any attempt to attach Stevens County to the combination would result in the defeat of the bill, primarily because of the speed at which a politician wanted to be Judge. He objected to "a lot of attorneys playing ball" with the proposition, and also spoke three times before his motion for first and second readings being considered the third was passed. Johnston of Snohomish made a savage attack on the bill, primarily because of the speed at which it was being rushed along, but also as developed during his speech on account of some legislation in which he was interested below this city, some $20 in gold and gold dust has been uncovered by C. C. Taylor and a companion, of this city. Johnnie Alden, better known as "Dutch Johnnie," is a German and is an inmate of the insane asylum at Salem. He was sent there a few months ago. Johnnie had lived on his claim since the early days and it has been the general belief that he had a great quantity of gold buried about his cabin, as he was a man of miserly habits. Since being sent to the asylum various parties have been "coyote mined" the German's entire place in an effort to find the hidden treasure, but that discovered by Taylor and his companion, Lally, at Hammond, Monemmer was a soldier stationed at Fort Stevens, and he is now under arrest at Vancouver Barracks charged with desertion. A request will be made to the commanding officer at Vancouver to turn the man over to the state authorities, so that he may be prosecuted.

Senator Fulton has appointed Charles W. Halderman as his private secretary. Mr. Halderman is a nephew of Senator Fulton and a recent graduate of Stanford University. He has been employed here as bookkeeper for the cannery of Booth & Co.

None of the number are city officials or men prominent in local politics.

"WEAKNESS" This disorder of the functions by means indicates general nervous decline, but is a direct result of inflammation, enlargement, or excessive sensitiveness of the prostate gland, brought on by early dissipation or resulting from some improperly treated contracted disorder. These conditions can not possibly be removed by internal medicines alone, and any tonic system of treatment that stimulates activity in the functions can but result in aggravation of the real ailment. This is a scientific truth that we have ascertained by careful study and observation in hundreds of cases, and is a knowledge which our own original system of treatment is based. We employ few tonics, our main treatment is a local one, and our success in curing even those cases that others have failed to temporarily relieve with their tonics is conclusive evidence that our method affords the only positive means of a complete and radical cure.

Attempt to Railroad to Final Passage Substitute Judiciary Bill Starts Vigorous Opposition.

OLYMPIA, Wash., Feb. 26.—(Special.)—The floodgates of eloquence were opened in the House immediately after prayers this morning, the occasion being the proposal to railroad a substitute judiciary bill through to final passage immediately after first reading. The bill provides for an additional Judge in the Big Bend and Okanogan country, and by the redistricting Adams and Lincoln are in one group and Ferry, Chelan, Douglas and Okanogan in another. Field, in support of the bill, said that the territory as it now stood was the largest judicial district in the United States, and contained over 20,000 population.

Representative Martin Maloney opposed the bill for the reason, as he stated, that God Almighty had intended Ferry and Stevens to form a district by themselves. He was also opposed to railroading such important bills through before the members had an opportunity to read them.

Special and Accurate Treatment of Every Case.

We wish to make one point distinct and emphatic: The remedies employed in treating our patients are prescribed and compounded to meet the exact requirements of each individual case. Every patient of ours can rest assured that the treatment he receives is not of the "ready made" kind. It is a treatment that goes to a drug store and buy a patent nostrum. We make a specialty of every case. We note all conditions in the beginning, note all developments as the cure progresses, and so after our remedies are prescribed to meet the exact requirements of each individual case. We make a specialty of every case. We note all conditions in the beginning, note all developments as the cure progresses, and so after our remedies are prescribed to meet the exact requirements of each individual case. Every patient of ours can rest assured that the treatment he receives is not of the "ready made" kind. It is a treatment that goes to a drug store and buy a patent nostrum.
