

MONEY FOR ROADS

Omnibus Appropriation Bill Carries $100,000.

REQUESTS ARE CUT DOWN

Committee Indorses Plan—State Board of Control to Audit Accounts—State Educational Institutions.

OLYMPIA, March 5.—(Staff correspondence.)—The joint appropriation committee tonight instructed a subcommittee to draft an omnibus bill carrying appropriations of $100,000 for the construction of state wagon-roads; intended the plan of giving the State Board of Control authority to audit the accounts of state educational institutions and recommended improvements to the Legislature, and also approved the printing appropriation for the biennial period.

A subcommittee, which included Senators Randa, Cornwell, Baker, Representatives Venness, Maloney, Ferguson and Stevenson, was instructed by the general committee to settle the road problem. This committee spent two hours listening to the appeals of friends of different road measures and then recommending the following appropriations:

Buckley-North Yakima road, original request $25,000, granted $12,500; road from Newport, up the Fond d'Ouille north, thence by a devious route to Orient in Ferry County, original request $10,000, granted $5,000; Chelan-Skiaght County road, reduced from $17,000 to $4,000, part of this road being covered by a bill for a road through Chukachan Mountain, from Whatcom to Skagit County, for which $10,000 was asked and $5,000 granted; from the mouth of the Sampoll, in Stevens County, via Republic, in Ferry, to Loomis in Okanogan County, reduced from $10,000 to $2,000; Navapine, in Lewis County, to the road leading into North Yakima, reduced from $5,000 to $2,500; repair of Sequim-Pass road, reduced from $10,000 to $5,000; Lytle, in Klickitat County, to Washington, in Skamania County, reduced from $5,000 to $1,000; Montezuma, to run through Jefferson and connect with Port Angeles road in Chillum County, reduced from $5,000 to $1,000; the "Okanogan" road, $2,000.

The subcommittee rejected an application for $40,000 to reconstruct a bridge over the Columbia River at Northport, and $4500 to build a bridge over the Okanogan River.

Senator Sharp objected to the compromise on the ground that either the tire road should be constructed or no portion commenced. Venness, Maloney, Randa and other members of the committee urged that as not more than $100,000 can be spent for state roads the compromise effected is the fairest division of the money that could be made. Objection to the wide range of the different bills in directing the expenditure of the funds appropriated resulted in a decision to draft an omnibus bill and submit the measure to both houses as a joint committee bill. Provision in the bill for the appointment of some state official, probably an engineer, to have general charge of the road work, the committee having local superintendents in the different counties having local superintendents, and understanding that the counties should be asked to aid the road work was also reached.

Money for State Printing.

The committee tonight adopted a recommendation of the Joint Committee on the printing appropriation. Acting on the assumption that the Hamilton bill, repealing the contract-printing act, will be passed, the committee will make the appropriation for public printing in favor of each department, in order that the department chiefs may secure their own work as they please. The contracts now in force will be effective until August 1, and $12,000 was added for public printing up to that date, $20,000 to pay the cost of printing ordered by the present Legislature, and $500 to pay five months' salaries to the printing expert. A deficiency appropriation of $400 was made to pay the printing expert's back salary.

The following allowances are made different state departments for printing from August 1, 1902, to April 1, 1903: Governor, $300; Secretary of State, $1,000; Auditor, $300; Land Commissioner, $200; Superintendent of Public Instruction, $500; Treasurer, $500; Attorney-General, $500; Board of Control, $100; Supreme Court, $200; Bureau of Labor, $100; Board of Health, $100; Board of Equalization, $400; State Veterinarian, $100.

A deficiency appropriation bill of $25,000 was approved. Considerable objection was raised to increasing the bill giving the Board of Control authority to audit the accounts of the educational institutions and recommending the Legislature appropriations for their needs. Dickson and Merrill strenuously objected; Dickson on the ground that the regents of the schools, serving without salary, would accept the bill as an unwarranted interference with their duties, and Merrill on the ground that the movement might lead to the introduction of politics in the management of the state schools.

Maloney insisted that he would not approve the bill until he knew who the members of the Board of Control were to be. Lewis, McGee, Hamilton and others held the postmark of the bill merely served to do away with the presence of advocates of the different schools before legislative committees and combinations between the school interests looking toward securing large appropriations. The bill was amended so as to take away the board's authority to subpoena witnesses and recommended for passage.

IN THE SENATE.

Resolution Passed Asking Churches to Cease Gambling.

OLYMPIA, Wash., March 5.—(Special.)—The Senate met at 10 o'clock this morning, and about the first business transacted was the reading of the following resolution by Reser:

Whereas, The eighth Legislature of the State of Washington has been petitioned by various individuals and organizations to pass House bill No. 147, known as the anti-gambling bill, therefore be it resolved by the Senate, that all persons, officers or churches or other organizations cease the worst kind of gambling, namely, raffling.

It was adopted.

Senate substitute bill No. 156, creating a state library commission, prescribing its duties, providing for the appointment of a state librarian, etc., was passed. The bill creates a state library commission, to consist of the Governor, Judges of the Supreme Court and the Attorney-General. This practically gives the appointment of the librarian and the complete control of the state library to the Supreme Court. The regular attempt of the Washington Agricultural College Experimental Station and School of Science to change its name succeeded this morning, as far as the Senate was concerned. When the bill was reached Crow, its author, said that the proposed changes named were distasteful to certain Senators from agricultural regions and therefore seeks its recommendation. Both objected to this, and said that he could see no need for

DEFEAT FOR BOOM BILL

Vote in House Stood 22 to 18—Debate Was Sharp—Speaker Asks Some Embarrassing Questions.

BOISE, Idaho, March 5.—(Special.)—The people of Lewiston met with a dark reverse in the House of Representatives today, when the boom bill, which they have been making such heroic efforts to pass, was defeated by a vote of 22 to 18. This result was reached after several hard battles.

During the morning session a motion to suspend the rules in order that the bill might be passed was defeated by a vote of 22 to 18. Some changes were secured during the recess at noon, and in the afternoon Jenkins, who had been opposed to the bill, moved to suspend, and the motion carried, 22 to 18. Then, after hot debate, the bill was killed. The opposition was fierce, and the friends of the measure were entirely unable to stem the tide.

The reason for defeating the bill was not clearly brought out. There was immoderate indulgence in, and some general statements concerning monopoly. The Speaker

CROSSED THE PLAINS WITH AN OX TEAM IN 1852.

BROOKS, Or., March 5.—(Special.) Patrick Egan, at the home of his son, William H. Egan, on French Prairie, Marion County, Oregon, March 4, 1903, at the advanced age of 90 years, 11 months and 19 days. Mr. Egan was born in County Longford, Ireland. He emigrated with his parents to the United States at the age of 6 years, settling in Boston, Mass. After a stay of six years he again removed to the City of New York, N. Y., where he was married to Catherine Canby. In 1847 they removed to Dodge County, Wis., where he engaged in farming until 1852, when he crossed the plains by ox team, and located on a donation land claim on Mary's River, one mile from the present site of Palomares, Benton County. In 1855 he moved to French Prairie, Marion County, where he lived until the time of his death. He was the father of seven children, four of whom survive him—J. and William H. Egan and Mrs. Ellen M. Massey, of French Prairie, and John T. Egan, of Albany, Or. He was a lifelong member of the Roman Catholic Church and Father Mathew's Temperance Society. Senate bill No. 212, by State, granting irrigation companies right of way over state lands.

At 4 P. M. the Senate went into executive session and reconsidered its action in refusing to confirm Governor McBride's capital commission appointees. The appointments were all confirmed, but Colonel Blithen was not reconsidered.

JUMPS THROUGH CAR WINDOW.

Man Is Found Next Morning Nearly Dead From Exposure.

SEATTLE, March 5.—Frank Black, an amalgamated of Nelson, B. C., jumped through a window of the Northern Pacific limited train near Kent, late last night. He was found beside the track this morning, much out of breath, and with a slight frost on his face. When he jumped through the glass, as the train was going at a high rate of speed, his wife gave the alarm and the train was stopped, but Black was not found. This morning he was taken to the hospital in Kent, where he will be confined some time. It is thought he was temporarily insane at the time of his act.

Grant's Pass Notes.

GRANT'S PASS, Or., March 5.—(Special.)—A positive evidence of the arrival of Spring is proved in the appearance of buttercups and "spring beauties" together with other wild flowers on the surrounding hills. These have come to bud and bloom during the bright and balmy days of the past two weeks. Farmers are busy with their spring plowing and seeding, and have much to do as the early arrival of the rains last fall prevented anything being done at that time. Fruit trees are looking fine, and prospects are bright for an abundant season for the fruit grower.

At their meeting yesterday the directors of the Grant's Pass schools selected plans for the building of the new schoolhouse for Grant's Pass. The building is to be a two-story, brick veneer, six-room structure. It will be provided with steam heat and all modern schoolroom accessories. The crowded condition of the present two schoolhouses of the city make the building of a third a necessity.

Barber License Law Is Valid.

OLYMPIA, March 5.—(Special.)—The Supreme Court upholds the constitutionality of the barber law passed by last Legislature in an opinion handed down today. The case originated in Seattle over the arrest of a barber for practicing without having first secured a certificate under the law. It was contended that the bill was repugnant to the section of the constitution requiring that no bill shall embrace more than one subject, and also to the clause conferring on the Federal Constitution, providing against class legislation. The decision is in affirmation of the lower court.

generally signed. At the session of the County Court a month ago it was decided to defer consideration of the matter for a month to give the people an opportunity to petition to have the question referred to the voters for decision. At that time it was announced that the petition must have 500 signatures to invoke the referendum in the county. As only 124 signatures were secured, it was up to the court to settle the question. After carefully inspecting the structure and finding it in good repair, the court today made the bridge county property.

The most pleasing feature is that the bridge will now be free. For the past two years passengers have been required to pay toll for the maintenance of the bridge. When the structure was built in 1890 the city was bonded for $100,000. Since that time the burden of keeping up the bridge became so great that a toll became necessary. Finally the clamors for a free bridge induced the county to receive it free of all indebtedness and in good repair.

NEW DIRECTORS ELECTED.

Red Clover Creamery Company Holds Meeting.

TILLAMOOK, Or., March 5.—(Special.)—At the annual meeting of the Red Clover Creamery Company, M. Chance, Henry Leach and M. Abiphalp were elected directors, and C. E. Thayer, treasurer.

The output of this factory for last year was: Amount of milk received, 63,118 pounds; test, 4.1; butter fat, 34.13 pounds; cheese manufactured, 8,062.5 pounds; average price of butter fat, $4.15 cents; average price per 100 pounds for milk, 9.4 cents. Total amount paid, $261.87.

There is considerable dissatisfaction among the dairymen of the county on account of an attempt to control the creameries and for the purpose of forming a combine. Some of the dairymen in the Fairview District have the matter under way to erect a new creamery at the forks of the road, in the Grand Grange Hall, and when this is erected it will divide the patronage up so badly that it will hardly pay to run some of the factories in that vicinity.

W. S. Morrow	1	$2.84
Frank Longshery	1	$4.50

The price of butter has been from 15¢ upward since last August, and for the last three months and at the present time it is 15¢ cents.

WILL MEET IN PORTLAND.

Republican Congressional Committee at Hotel Imperial, March 12.

EUGENE, Or., March 5.—(Special.)—Dr. T. W. Harris, chairman of the Republican Congressional Committee of the First Congressional District of Oregon, today issued a call for a meeting of the committee to arrange for the nomination of a candidate for Congress to succeed the late Thomas D. Haggard.

The committee meeting will be held in Portland, at the Imperial Hotel, on next Thursday, March 12. A good attendance is expected, although several of the constituent counties will not be represented by proxies.

An effort will be made to have the Congressional convention meet in Eugene and it is believed that the committee is favorable to this as a place of convention.

INCREASES CATTLE RANCH.

Ankeny-Copeland Company Now Has 10,000 Acres.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., March 5.—(Special.)—By the acquisition of 4000 acres of state school land, in addition to its present holdings of over 15,000 acres, the Ankeny-Copeland Company now has the largest compact cattle ranch in the State of Washington. Grant Copeland, junior member of the company, returned from Hiltilville today after having consummated the lease of this large tract of land. He is now getting a crew together to begin the work of enclosing the entire 20,000 acres with a three-wire electric fence. The herd of 400 head of Hereford cattle will be the near future be increased to 1000. The Ankeny-Copeland ranch lies along Cow Creek, in Adams County.

Capital City Activities.

SALEM, March 4.—(Special.)—Funeral services over the remains of the late Eugene Breymann were conducted yesterday afternoon from the Breymann home by Rev. P. S. Knight. After the services at the residence the remains were taken in charge by the members of Salem Lodge of Masons and given burial in Odd Fellows' cemetery. A large crowd of friends of the deceased attended the funeral.

A number of taxpayers found last year that they must come early in order to be sure of an opportunity to pay their taxes and get the discount.

Eastern people who have recently arrived in Oregon, and who had the idea that it rains steadily for six months in the year in Oregon, were surprised yesterday to see the street sprinklers in operation. The present weather is giving the newcomers a very favorable impression of this part of Oregon.

The Salem postoffice officials have received instructions to move into the new postoffice on the 1st of April, whether the building is completed or not. The completion of the building is not over yet, but the work is so far along that the public can be accommodated in the new building by April 1, even though some work should remain unfinished.

Oregon City Notes.

OREGON CITY, March 5.—(Special.)—County Physician J. W. Powell went to Minthorn last night to respond to a call from Richard Scott, who reported to County Judge Ryan that there was a case of smallpox there. Dr. Powell found that Mrs. O. J. Roberts had the disease in a mild form. Strict quarantine regulations have been enforced and there is little danger of the spread of the disease.

Notwithstanding the defeat of Representative Webster's bill repealing the wide-rail wagon rebate law, Clackamas County has been paid ever since the passage of the law until about a month ago Deputy Clerk Greenman discovered that the law does not make it compulsory to rebate the road tax amounting to $4 per acre over the law simply authorizes the County Court to rebate the amount of tax. Since this discovery was made the rebate has not been allowed to be made over the law and filed with the Board of County Commissioners for action. The board meets tomorrow.

Baker City Notes.

BAKER CITY, Or., March 5.—(Special.)—The stockholders of the Citizens' Bank of this city have been granted permission to change the bank to a National bank, with an authorized capital of $100,000. It is an increase of $20,000 over the present capital. Cashier French has received official notice from the Treasury Department at Washington that the change will be effective within 60 days. The theater-going public has the opportunity given them to vote on the choice of a play to be given by Miss Roberts on the occasion of her appearance here last evening. The choice was overwhelmingly in favor of "Sapho," and that was the

A new lodge of Odd Fellows has been organized in this city, to be known as Elkhorn Lodge. The new lodge was instituted by Fast Grand Master C. L. Palmer, assisted by about 150 members of the order from Baker City Lodge and other sections of the state. The new lodge starts with a large membership.

Stevenson News Notes.

STEVENSON, Wash., March 5.—(Special.)—A petition is being circulated throughout Skamania County for a new $15,000 Courthouse, to be located at Stevenson, Clark County. There is very little, if any, opposition in the county to a new county building. The financial condition of the county is excellent, it having $50,000 in the treasury and a bonded debt of only $10,000.

The farmers and lumbermen along this side of the Columbia have entered into a co-operative scheme to construct a telephone line from Washougal in Clark County, along the Columbia River to Carson, on Wind River, in Skamania County. Work will be begun at once.

Articles of incorporation have been filed with the County Auditor here by the John Roushon Consolidated Mining Company, organized to mine the precious metals in the Washington No. 1, Washington No. 2, Climax No. 1, Climax No. 2, North Star and the Sam mines, in the St. Helens mining district.

CUTICURA OINTMENT

Purest of Emollients and Greatest of Skin Cures.

The Most Wonderful Curative of All Time

For Torturing, Disfiguring Humours.

Cuticura Ointment is beyond question the most successful curative for torturing, disfiguring humours of the skin and scalp, including loss of hair, ever compounded, in proof of which a single anointing with it, preceded by a hot bath with Cuticura Soap, and followed in the severer cases by a dose of Cuticura Resolvent Pills, is often sufficient to afford immediate relief in the most distressing forms of itching, burning and scaly humours, permit rest and sleep, and points to a speedy cure when all other remedies fail. It is especially so in the treatment of infants and children, cleansing, soothing and healing the most distressing of infantile humours, and preserving, purifying and beautifying the skin, scalp and hair.

Cuticura Ointment possesses, at the same time, the charm of satisfying the simple wants of the toilet, in caring for the skin, scalp, hair and hands from infancy to age, far more effectively, agreeably and economically than the most expensive of toilet emollients. Its "instant relief" for skin-tortured babies," or "Sanative, antiseptic cleansing," or "One-night treatment of the hands," or "Single treatment of the hair," or "Use after athletics," cycling, golf, tennis, riding, sparring, or any sport, each in connection with the use of Cuticura Soap, is sufficient evidence of this.

Millions now rely on Cuticura Soap, assisted by Cuticura Ointment, for preserving, purifying and beautifying the skin, for cleansing the scalp of crusts, scales and dandruff, and the stopping of falling hair, for softening, whitening and soothing red, rough and sore hands, for baby rashes, itchings and chafings, as well as for all purposes of the toilet, bath and nursery.
