

the way of Hendrick's broller that hugged the right base line. The ball bumped and bounded into Wilson's domain. The right-field guardian was trav-"rocky road to Dublin, ling o'er the he fell head foremost, and the ball hit aim square on the conning tower, then aim square on the comming tower, then bounded backward fully ten feet. Wilson gathered himself together nicely and made a beautiful throw to second, but Hendricks had feet to spare in making the journey. Klopf's bat came in contact with the sphere and it went so far out that Hendricks scored, Nordyke, who had pelted one of Lundbum's platesplitters for two bags in the opening inning, went out from third to first. Elsey opened the fourth inning with a drive to deep center and was advanced to third on Reed's sacrifice. He scored while Lundbum was debating about throwing Kane out at first. Nordyke made another double-sacker in the sixth inning and Elsey singled, but no scores were made.

Spokane Cinches Game in the Eighth

In the eighth inning Spokane salted the game. Nordyke got a life to first on Donobue's error. He journeyed to sec-ond on Elsey's single and was so de-termined to steal third that no attempt was made to catch him. Reed saw that Elsey had placed one nicely between Painter and Davis and hs pelted one in the same direction. It was far enough out to allow Elsey to come home. Pain-ter fielded the ball, and while he was carcasing it under his chin, Reed gal-loped to third. He had the run for his pains, for the next three men up went out in order. But the game was won, and the pirates from Spokane were sat-
