

THROW OUT THE LIFE LINE

Rev. E. T. Ufford, the author of the famous hymn, "Throw Out the Life Line," is in the city, on route upon an evangelistic tour of the world...

HILLSBORO FRANCHISE, $25,000

Valuation Placed Upon the Grant-Contract Let for Improvement of First Street.

The Executive Board yesterday afternoon suspended the officers from the police force, and decided that $25,000 would be satisfactory remuneration to the city for granting the West Side & Suburban Company a street railway franchise.

The matter of suspending the two policemen came up in a recommendation from the police committee, the members of which said that they had investigated the case thoroughly.

Johnson was present, and told his story as follows: He was on a beat in the North End, and hearing a noise from a questionable resort, he hurried to the scene, and on entering, found two men in the midst of an altercation.

Chief Hunt followed up the story by saying that, while Johnson had no complaints against him at the station, it seemed that he was not exercising good judgment in hitting a man, who was, besides, much smaller.

The committee, represented by Mr. Eneba, said that it had investigated, and had come to the conclusion that Johnson was guilty of using unnecessary force.

It was moved and seconded that the report of the committee be adopted, and the motion was carried, whereupon, who was still in the room, got up to say a few words, but he was cut short by the Mayor.

To Pay City $25,000. Proposals were received from street contractors for the improvement of a dozen streets. As only they had submitted for First street, from the Carbolineum Wood Preserving Company, it was decided that this should be awarded at once, the price being $18,444.

Protest from Seventh Street. Some of the property-owners on Seventh street protested against the way in which the doors leading to the water gates had been set in the new pavement. It has been the custom to set these gates on a wood foundation, but as these gates, an effort will be made to have the Water Board order the contractor to make them of cement or brick hereafter.

More Room for City Park. The Park Board held a special meeting yesterday morning. The conference convened at the Norwegian-Danish Methodist Church, corner Thirtieth and Davis streets. Tuesday evening. Sessions are being held every day from 9 to 11:45 A. M. and 3 to 4 P. M.

How to Prevent Pneumonia. It is a well-established fact that pneumonia can be prevented. This disease always results from a cold or from an attack of the grip, among the most common of which have been Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for these diseases, you will find that it has done more to prevent pneumonia, which has ever been known to be a certain preventive of that disease. The fact is, however, that a tendency of a cold or attack of the grip towards pneumonia, it is famous for its cures. Try it. For sale by all druggists.

SCHOOL IN EARLY DAYS

Historical Entertainment is Given at Milwaukee. Portraits of Hector Campbell and O. W. Nixon, First Teachers, are Unveiled at the Schoolhouse.

During an instructive historical entertainment given yesterday afternoon in the Milwaukee Public Schoolhouse the enlarged pictures of Hector Campbell and O. W. Nixon, first and second teachers, respectively, in that district, who taught in 1848 and 1851, were unveiled.

It was a programme of historical interest from start to finish, and full of information about the town of Milwaukee. Mrs. Luelling spoke briefly, and said that Milwaukee lost its importance as an intellectual and social importance in pioneer days, and one day bid fair to become the commercial center of Oregon, instead of Portland.

Parties Trying to Secure Control of Renting Houses Till After Fair. Parties have been around this week on the East Side working some sort of a scheme to get control of all the renting houses until after the fair opens.

IN TOMORROW'S OREGONIAN

Dr. Adolph Lorenz' Impressions of America. Dr. Gustav Baar has translated the Sunday Oregonian the great surgeon's address before Vienna students. It is witty, good-natured and interesting.

Sermon by Dr. Lyman Abbott, D. D. "How Best to Live" is the subject chosen by the editor of the Outlook, and former pastor of Plymouth Church, Brooklyn. No polemical utterance, but a setting forth of the simple secret of Christian character and practice as revealed in the words and life of Jesus.

Yellowstone Park in April. A correspondent who made the same tour that President Roosevelt is now making, and at the same time of the year, describes the Winter scenes; illustrated.

Sacajewes, Lewis and Clark's Heroine. Dr. James K. Hosmer tells in a popular way the romantic story of the "bird woman," who loved and served the first white men who crossed the continent.

California's "Harry Tracey." Career of James McKinney, gambler, dead-shot, murderer and outlaw, now surrounded on every side by officers.

Can You Live On 25 Cents a Day? Sixteen college girls demonstrated that it could be done.

In the Metropolis of Manitoba. Eugene D. White writes of Winnipeg, which has grown to be the commercial center of Western Canada.

Physical Culture in Right-Hand Swings. Professor Anthony Barker contributes his third article on boxing, showing how muscles are used in groups, not singly.

Prize Plans for a $2000 Dwelling. At this season, when so many are getting ready to build, the illustrations cannot fail to be of interest.

Gaelic Revival in Ireland. Language, games and customs, and old industries taking on new life.

Timely Articles for Women's Reading. A short talk on the cultivation of sweet peas, and how to circumvent moths in their attack on furs and woolsens.

For Children. A new series of pictures to paint. Adventures in Bungle Land. N. H. C. Jones is examined critically by the ostrich family.

Is Germany Capturing the Ocean? Frank G. Carpenter writes of her enormous shipping and shipbuilding yards.

Ade's Fables in Lang. Of the Town Lover, or how the Lady Killer blew up in the Stretch. All the news and the customary departments.

encountered during the long journey. His home, from where he started, is in Holyoke, Mass., where for seven years he acted as pastor of the Beulah Baptist Church.

Mr. Ufford's sister, Frances E. Ufford, has for many years been doing evangelical work, having built three seminaries in the South. One of them, which is called "The White Hall," which was destroyed by fire and rebuilt.

The author states that, as souvenirs of his trip, he intends to take back to his native land, one from Japan, one from India and one from China, to raise in the Christian life as monuments to his memory.

He is planning to build a boat church, the funds for the purpose to be raised by his own work. The site will be some prominent hill overlooking the sea, which proves so inspiring to the seafaring pastor.

On Sunday evening he will speak at the First Baptist Church, taking for his topic "The Line That Saves." On Sunday afternoon of the 26th he will speak to men at Y. M. C. A. on "Out of the Breakers."

From here he will go to San Francisco, on route to Honolulu and the Orient.

FOR THE FIRST TIME

Many Passenger Agents Coming Who Have Not Seen Oregon Before. Among the members of the General Passenger Agents' Association, who will hold their regular quarterly meeting in this city next week, will be many who never before visited this section of the country.

A number of these gentlemen have for years been doing business with the big railroads of the far West, and have been distributing pamphlets and literature of all kinds descriptive of Oregon and her resources to the population of the Central States. Their coming here in person at this time will undoubtedly be productive of much good, as they will have abundant opportunity to familiarize themselves with the boundless chances that await the homeseeker in the Pacific Northwest.

George T. Nicholson, general traffic manager of the Santa Fe system, will attend the meeting, and will at the same time make his first visit to Oregon. A. H. Hansen, general passenger agent of the Illinois Central, a road which has carried thousands of farmers out of the corn belt as they journeyed to the farther West, will also see for the first time the resources that his subordinates have been dilating upon for so long years.

One of his assistants, J. F. Merry, will accompany him, while another, S. G. Hatch, is coming for the second time. E. C. Ufford, general passenger agent and ticket agent of the Minneapolis & St. Louis road, will be another newcomer to our soil, and G. F. Lee, of the Rock Island, and many others.

Fifty lines are represented in the association, and A. D. Charlton, of the Northern Pacific, who will in some degree act as host of the railroad chiefs during their stay in Portland, expects a full attendance. The meeting will last for four or five days, and will be held at the Hotel Portland.

WORKING A SCHEME

Parties Trying to Secure Control of Renting Houses Till After Fair. Parties have been around this week on the East Side working some sort of a scheme to get control of all the renting houses until after the fair opens.

Richard Scott is an up-to-date gardener. He does have to buy cauliflower raised in California this time of the year, but has in his garden at his farm at Milwaukee a fine variety of cauliflower which he calls the "Broccoli." He has been growing of fine heads which have grown through and matured this winter and which are now ready for table use.
