

TURKS OFF GUARD

Rebel Surprise Proves Disastrous.

ONE HUNDRED ARE KILLED

City Plunged Into Darkness by Explosion of Bomb.

MARTIAL LAW NOW PREVAILS

Austria Professes to Believe That Dispatching of German Warship to Salonica Means International Intervention.

The nature of the outbreak at Salonica continues serious. The Sultan has ordered severe punishment dealt out to the officers, and many arrests are being made.

LONDON, May 5.—Except as to the number killed, which is now said to exceed 100, the latest Telegrams and mail advices from Salonica fully confirm the previous reports of the serious nature of the outbreak there. Advantage seems to have been taken of the fact that the Turkish had relaxed their precautions, and the garrison was seriously depleted, amounting to only 400 soldiers. The first mine that was exploded cut the principal gas main and plunged the city in darkness. Then the Ottoman Bank and other buildings were attacked with bombs, as already has been described. Soldiers were hurried up to the scenes of disorder. They fired wild volleys, but many of their attackers were killed or wounded by the explosion of their own bombs.

Attempts at throwing bombs are now being dealt with summarily. At noon last Sunday a man disguised as a Turkish priest tried to throw a bomb into the telegraph office at Salonica. He was apprehended and executed on the spot. The authorities continue to make arrests, and many Bulgarians disguised as Turkish officers are being seized. Among those arrested are professors in the Bulgarian School, who are alleged to have been the head of the revolutionary movement.

Edith Pasha, who arrived at Salonica last Saturday to carry out the decree of martial law, has issued a proclamation, stating that the Sultan has ordered him to deal severely with all persons guilty of outrages.

At Uskub, European Turkey, the police have seized stores of dynamite in the houses of the Bulgarian residents. The news that Germany has sent a warship to Salonica has led the Austrian newspapers to discuss the probability of European intervention. In both Berlin and Vienna, however, semi-official statements have been issued explaining that the object of sending the ships of war is solely the protection of Austrian subjects, and that the vessels will be withdrawn as soon as the danger is over.

FINN WARNING TO BULGARIA.

LONDON, May 5.—The Vienna correspondent of the Daily Telegraph says the Turkish Ambassador at Vienna, acting on the Porte's instructions, has requested the Austro-Hungarian Minister of Foreign Affairs, Count Goluchowski, to address a final warning to Bulgaria, and that the Count, while passing regard to the Turkish precautions were so inadequate, the outrages having been foretold, has promised to intervene at Sofia.

Italian Vessels Bring Confidence. ROME, May 5.—According to news received here from Salonica, the arrival there of an Italian squadron of six vessels has contributed to the re-establishment of confidence among the foreign residents. Further disturbances are not expected.

PRIEST NOT MURDERER.

Ohio Officials Acknowledge Father Walser Cannot Be Held.

LORAIN, O., May 4.—If Father Walser were to have his preliminary hearing right here in my office now, and I had to use the evidence I now have in my possession against the man, in my judgment I would let him go," was the remark made by Mayor King today when asked what he thought of the charge of murder against Father Walser growing out of the slaying of Miss Reichenbach. Chief of Police Bruen and Prosecutor Stroup hold a like view.

Prosecuting Attorney Stroup stated today that in his opinion the evidence against Walser was not sufficient to warrant holding Walser to appear before the Grand Jury. However, he said, the officers are working upon the case along a line which they are keeping secret at this time, and developments may result before the inquest tomorrow. Mr. Stroup had some criticism to offer to the relatives of the murdered girl for their criticism of the police.

"It is well known," said he, "that the laws hold the county liable for any harm that may come to a prisoner at the hands of a mob, hence our action in placing Walser under arrest was justifiable, even if his guilt cannot be proved."

The inquest over the remains of Miss Reichenbach will be held in the jury room at the City Courthouse at 10 A. M. Tuesday, and it is probable the hearing to be given Father Walser will follow the inquest. Father Walser will be a witness at the inquest, but he positively refused to see newspaper men in his cell at the County Jail today, but it was stated he was in good spirits, having passed a comfortable night. He also expressed himself that all would be right tomorrow. Father Herst, of Vermilion, who assisted in the mass at Miss Reichenbach's funeral, made the statement today that five attorneys have volunteered their services to defend Walser, and an unlimited sum of money would be forthcoming to help him in the event that his case ever goes to trial.

Gets Insurance Left by Pennell. BUFFALO, May 4.—By an order handed down by Justice Kruse in the Supreme Court today, Attorney Wallace Thayer will get $10,000 insurance left by Arthur R. Pennell. A decision of the court some time ago gave Thayer $15,000 of insurance

ROOT LAUDS GUARDSMEN

Secretary of War Speaks Highly of State Militia.

COLUMBUS, O., May 4.—The Interstate National Guard Association of the United States opened here today with 25 states and territories represented. Secretary Root and Assistant Secretary Sanger, with a staff of regular Army officers, are present.

Among the speakers at the afternoon session were Secretary Root, Assistant Secretary Sanger and Judge Advocate General Davis. U. S. A. Secretary Root was greeted by enthusiastic applause. Speaking of the new militia law, he said:

"Some had supposed that immediately after the passage of the new law, code of decisions would be issued, defining certain parts and passages in the bill. Nothing could have been more unfortunate than such a belief. The code is very broad; it will have to be applied to many conditions arising in different communities, and with all the leniency possible to meet such conditions."

"There are only two ways of raising an army, by conscription or by voluntary service. The National Guard is the great school for the volunteers. It is not intended that the National Government shall pay the expense of maintaining the National Guard, but it is intended that it shall add to the efficiency, strength and dignity of the guard."

"A question now being considered is the minimum of the company, and it is a serious one, and it should be fixed so as not to kill the organization of a company in the rural districts where the young men are not so numerous. It required five days' training is also to be considered, what kind of training, and many other things are to be determined. "Lines should be laid down so that the regulars and the National Guardsmen will be drawn closer. It too often happens that jealousy exists between the officers of the two branches, but it will be avoided by honest and sincere work. After the united maneuvers at Fort Riley last year, the officers of both branches are thinking a great deal more of each other. The elements of order are needed by the other. There will never be any trouble in raising soldiers; the trouble will be in the limit of supply, transportation and equipment; all need arrangement, and organization. With the National Government forming the quartermaster and the financial part of the work and the National Guard looking after the spirit, we can have an army that the whole world would count on with confidence."

A public meeting was held in the Board of Trade auditorium today, at which General Charles Dick, president of the association, presided. Secretary of War Root spoke briefly. A public reception to Secretary Root followed, and at midnight he left for Washington.

RIVER ON A RAMPAGE.

Rio Grande Is the Highest Since the Flood of 1897.

EL PASO, Tex., May 4.—The Rio Grande, which is usually absolutely dry the greater part of the year, is now the highest since the season of 1897. The current is rapidly and dangerously encroaching on the Mexican cities. The aqueducts are brimful of water, which is unprecedented for this season of the year. Floods usually come in June, when the snows in Mexico mountains have melted.

Serious Cattle Losses From Storms. SHARON SPRINGS, Kan., May 4.—Snow in the valleys yet tells of the severity of the past week's storm in Western Kansas. Farmers are coming in with reports of serious cattle losses. Owing to the drifting of stock against the barbed wire fences, several thousand head will only approximate the losses in Western Kansas and Eastern Colorado.

SENATORS TO VISIT ALASKA

Committee on Territories Will Start North Next Month.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 4.—Senator Beveridge announced tonight that the subcommittee of the Senate committee on territories would meet here on the 1st of June and would start from here on the 1st of June to investigate and report on the best method of electing a Delegate to Congress from the territory. Senator Beveridge announced that he would not go with the committee. The other members are Senators Dillingham, of Vermont; Burnham, of New Hampshire; Nelson, of Minnesota, and Patterson, of Colorado.

No New Move in Postal Funds.

WASHINGTON, May 4.—There were no important developments today in the investigation of frauds at the Postoffice Department. Postmaster-General Payne is awaiting responses to his letters to ex-Postmaster-General Smith, Postmaster Merritt, of this city, and others, asking information regarding the recent statements of W. H. Bullock, ex-cashier of the Washington Postoffice, concerning the administration of the Postoffice Department and of the local Postoffice several years ago. Mr. Bristow expects to complete the investigation by June 1. Mr. Payne tonight declined to say whether Mr. Bullock would be asked to appear or be granted a hearing. He said that would largely depend upon the nature of the replies he received.

THE DEATH ROLL.

Prominent Iowa Lawyer. DUBUQUE, Ia., May 4.—Judge W. P. Poor, a pioneer lawyer of this city, died today, aged 85.

Well-Known Baptist Clergyman.

HANOVER, Mass., May 4.—The Rev. David B. Ford, M. A., D., well-known Baptist clergyman and writer, is dead at his home here, aged 82.

Death List Increased.

DETROIT, May 4.—The number of dead resulting from the accident last night, when the Grand Trunk passenger train crashed through a large Polish excursion party has been increased to eight. The last victim is Frank Jablonski, of Toledo, who died at Grace Hospital tonight. Three of the other injured are still unconscious and are not expected to live.

Montana Land to Be Set Aside.

HELENA, Mont., May 4.—The register of the Helena Land Office has received orders from Land Commissioner Richards at Washington, to set aside 50,000 acres in Powell County, adjoining the Lewis and Clark forest reserve. While the intention of the Government is not definitely known, it is thought that this land is to be added to the Lewis and Clark reserve.

Will Not Accept Carnegie Offer.

MONTREAL, May 4.—The City Council today rescinded a resolution adopted in April 1902, accepting an offer of $150,000 from Andrew Carnegie for a library building. The Council could not decide upon a satisfactory site, and the dual language question presented a grave difficulty.

Princess Louise a Mother.

LINDAU, Bavaria, May 4.—Princess Louise of Saxony has given birth to a daughter. The newly-born of Opla clings, laid down, would reach twice across the continent.

RECEIVED BY KAISER

Diplomats at Rome Are Given an Audience.

AMERICAN SPECIALLY HONORED

Chamber of Deputies Expresses Gratitude of Italy to Emperor for His Visit—Reviews Troops With Sons.

ROME, May 4.—Today Emperor William received in private audience the members of the diplomatic corps in the order of seniority. Ambassador Meyer was fourth in the list. The conversation between him and His Majesty lasted for some time, and was quite confidential, but it can be said that the Emperor asked about President Roosevelt, and charged the Ambassador to send him his respects. His Majesty asked regarding Mr. Roosevelt's health, and said he had heard of his arrival at St. Louis. The Emperor recalled having met Mr. Meyer at the Kiel regatta last year, when the schooner yacht all sailed in the regatta. He would be arranged so that the schooner will sail in different classes. In order to give his American schooner an opportunity of showing what she can do.

ELECTED PRESIDENT OF McMINNVILLE COLLEGE.

Arthur M. Brumback.

Owing to the recent heavy rains, the military review in Emperor William's honor today did not take place on the regular parade ground, but was held at Centella, on a large picture of the city. The troops numbered about 25,000 men. Emperor William recalled the fact that on the same field he had reviewed 50,000 men with the late King Humbert.

Notwithstanding the distance of Centella from Rome, it was estimated that 30,000 persons gathered to witness the magnificent spectacle. The two sovereigns, the two German Princes, Crown Prince Frederick William and Prince Eitel, and four Italian Princes and their suites, and 200 officers in brilliant uniform, their accoutrements sparkling in the sun, formed a picture brilliant in the extreme. Queen Helena witnessed the review from a state carriage. She and the other members of the royal and imperial party were seated in a compartment of the train. The Emperor showed great interest in the bearing of the troops, and highly commended the regiments.

At today's sitting of the Chamber of Deputies the president, Signor Bianchi, said he considered it his duty to inform the chamber that he had had the honor to be presented by King Victor Emmanuel to Emperor William. The emperor had given him the respectful homage of the chamber. He also expressed the gratitude of the nation upon this occasion of the third visit of Emperor William to Italy, making it a complete circle. He said, was a sincere manifestation of the lively sentiments of friendship uniting the Italian and German nations. Continuing, the president said Emperor William had given him the agreeable mission of thanking the chamber, and that he had conveyed to the Emperor the chamber's respectful greeting and well wishes for the German nation. All the deputies stood while listening to the president's remarks.

Object of the Kaiser's Trip.

NEW YORK, May 4.—The visit of the Kaiser to Rome, while strengthening the bonds which unite the triple alliance, making it a complete circle, is supposed to have this time, according to the Tribune's representative in London, a far-reaching object, namely, that of winning the Vatican from the influence of France, and being the best moment when the republic is so severe with the Roman Church. It is believed that Emperor William has a great plan, namely, that of using the power of Catholicism to create a great colonial empire, and especially in South Africa, through the work of missionaries. Thus the Emperor took quite extraordinary measures to render his visit to the Vatican pleasant and flattering to the amour propre of the Papacy, going so far as to create even a little uneasiness in Italian Liberal circles.

ALL WELL WITH ARGENTINA

President's Message to Congress Is Highly Optimistic.

BUENOS AIRES, May 4.—The Presidential message, which was read at the opening of the Argentine Congress today, was entirely optimistic. It congratulates Congress on the fact that "no dangers at home or abroad threaten Argentina, whose credit is re-established in the European markets and whose trade is notably reviving in every direction."

The message refers to the note sent to the Government of the United States in consequence of the attitude of some of the European powers toward Venezuela, saying:

"Europe now realizes that the object thereof was not to ask for protection for the republic, but merely to set forth the danger to which American nations were exposed by the doctrine underlying the debt-collecting expedition against Venezuela."

The message says the estimated deficit of about $3,000,000 in the budget for 1903 has been covered by economy and good administration.

Vasquez Government Has Fallen.

WASHINGTON, May 4.—An undated telegram from Minister Powell at Port au Prince reports that the Vasquez government has fallen, and that a new provisional government has been created and has the entire territory under its control, with General Goy as President.

Revolution Not Put Down.

PANAMA, Colombia, May 4.—The official news from Managua, Nicaragua, to the effect that the revolution has been put down, is contradicted. The Nicaraguan revolutionary junta here has received a report from General Chamorro saying that the Nicaraguan Government steamer Once de Julio has been sunk by the rebel vessel Victoria. The entire crew of the Government boat was lost, notwithstanding the efforts made to save them. The rebel victory at Acopala and the capture of Omoa by the rebels has been confirmed. The members of the junta are hopeful of success.

DENOUNCES NATIVE LAND

Mrs. Woolsey Thinks America Treats Women Badly.

NEW YORK, May 4.—As if to call official attention to her abandonment of America as a native land, Mrs. Woolsey, a London correspondent, Mrs. Kate Trimble Woolsey, of New York, has sent a letter to President Roosevelt, in which she denounces America's attitude toward women.

In her letter Mrs. Woolsey calls his attention to the fact that the President has never mentioned women or attributed anything good to them in any of his speeches, on his tours throughout the country, and she asks him to point out to her anything that womanhood has gained by forsaking a monarchical government for the American Republic. She also asks why the discipline of the strenuous life has never been taken up the cudgel for woman and given to the Nation.

The King was met by Admiral Courat and other local officials, with whom he exchanged a few words. He embarked on a launch and was conveyed to the Victoria and Albert the royal yacht. The King will spend the night on board the royal yacht, which will not sail for England until tomorrow morning.

King Warmly Thanks Loubet.

PARIS, May 4.—President Loubet has received from King Edward at Cherbourg the following telegram:

"Dear General, I feel I desire to once more warmly thank you for the friendly welcome your Government and the French people have accorded me in France, and during my sojourn in Paris, the recollection of which will never be erased from my memory."

Although King Edward has left the city, the Parisians still are making merry over his visit.

THE DEPARTURE FROM PARIS.

Ceremonies Were on an Elaborate and Spectacular Scale.

PARIS, May 4.—King Edward left the Invalides Railroad Station, on his way to Cherbourg, before noon today, amid the booming of 100 cannon and the acclamations of an enormous crowd of people. The ceremonies at his departure were on the same elaborate and spectacular scale as on his arrival here. President Loubet, in a state coach, called at the British Embassy and drove with the King through the avenues, on both sides of which troops and large crowds were massed.

The King wore the uniform of a British Admiral. In a carriage following that of the King and the President were Premier Combes and Foreign Minister Delcasse, the latter wearing for the first time the Grand Cross of the Legion of Honor, bestowed upon him yesterday by King Edward. There was a continuous roar of "Vive le Roi" along the route, through the Avenue de Marigny, over the Pont Alexandre to the Esplanade des Invalides. The station was sumptuously decorated with crimson and gold hangings, and the British and French colors. The British band played the "God Save the King" at the moment of the British Sovereign's departure.

The final adieu was extremely cordial. The King and President Loubet, holding a long and intimate farewell conversation. Then the King saluted the officers, bowed and smiled to the crowd, entered the train and departed for Cherbourg, where a French squadron is waiting to render farewell honors.

MRS. KEMP SEEKS DIVORCE

Prominent Couple in Newport Summer Colony Disagree.

NEWPORT, R. I., May 4.—Among the petitions for divorce which will be heard at the session of the Supreme Court which opens here Monday next is that of Mrs. Belle Nellie Kemp, widow of Mrs. Reginald C. Vanderbilt against her husband, Arthur T. Kemp, of New York. The Kemps have been prominent in the Newport colony for several years. Their marriage in St. Patrick's Cathedral by Archbishop Corrigan six years ago, was one of the fashionable events of the season. The mother asks for the custody of her 4-year-old daughter.

SUSPECTED OF ARSON.

Railroad Man Alleged to Have Started Dunsmuir Fire.

DUNSMUIR, Cal., May 4.—(Special.)—T. G. Dabney, a railroad man, formerly of Portland, later of Roseburg, and recently of Dunsmuir, was arrested in San Francisco today on a charge of felony. He is suspected of having started Dunsmuir's big fire and stolen a large sum of money and jewelry during the fire. He worked as a switchman while here, and his former fellow-workmen say he behaved queerly and was considered a little off.

MANY HAIL CHIEF.

(Continued from First Page.)

When the President's train arrived breakfast was ready. It was partaken of standing and then the President shook hands with his guests. The train pulled out amidst a chorus of cowboy yells.

Roosevelt Felicitates Dewey.

WASHINGTON, May 4.—That President Roosevelt is keeping fully alive with the current events during the rush and excitement of his tour in the West is shown by the fact that he has decided to recognize the anniversary of the great naval victory in Manila Bay, May 1, 1898, by sending the following telegram to the hero of that occasion, Admiral George Dewey, U. S. N., Washington: On the anniversary of your great service to the Nation, I wish you all possible happiness and a long life.

"THEODORE ROOSEVELT."

The delivery of this message was delayed because Admiral Dewey was at sea on the Mayflower inspecting the North Atlantic fleet, and did not receive the message until his arrival in this city.

At Trinidad.

TRINIDAD, Colo., May 4.—Fully 1000 people greeted President Roosevelt and his party here tonight at 11:45. Although much fatigued with his exceedingly strenuous day, the President made a short speech from the rear platform of his private car. Governor Ormsby of New Mexico will escort the Presidential party into and through New Mexico.

A Doll on the Ash Cart.

NEW YORK SUN.

One of the city's employees, who has the humble job of driving an ash cart, was the center of attraction the other day as he was collecting rubbish in Fifth avenue. On the front of his cart he had hung a rag doll, evidently as a relic from the nursery of some little daughter of the rich, and of the almost unbroken line of the doll, and everybody who saw it simply had to laugh, too.

"It's taking it home to the kids," explained the driver to a young woman who turned to get another glimpse of the dancing doll. "This is a great neighborhood for them playthings, ain't it?"

To Cure a Cold in One Day

Take Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets. This signature is on every box, 25c.

KING QUITS FRANCE

Edward Concludes His Triumphant Tour.

DEPARTURE WAS SPECTACULAR

Ceremonies at Paris on an Elaborate Scale—President Loubet and French Nation Thanked for Reception.

CHERBOURG, May 4.—The royal train bearing King Edward arrived here at 5 o'clock, leaving Paris at 10:15. The guns were fired from the fort in honor of the King. At all the places through which the train passed on its way from Paris crowds assembled and greeted his Majesty with cheers. A second salute was fired when his Majesty entered the arsenal, and when he descended from the train, the bands played "God Save the King."

The King was met by Admiral Courat and other local officials, with whom he exchanged a few words. He embarked on a launch and was conveyed to the Victoria and Albert the royal yacht. The King will spend the night on board the royal yacht, which will not sail for England until tomorrow morning.

King Warmly Thanks Loubet.

PARIS, May 4.—President Loubet has received from King Edward at Cherbourg the following telegram:

"Dear General, I feel I desire to once more warmly thank you for the friendly welcome your Government and the French people have accorded me in France, and during my sojourn in Paris, the recollection of which will never be erased from my memory."

Although King Edward has left the city, the Parisians still are making merry over his visit.

THE DEPARTURE FROM PARIS.

Ceremonies Were on an Elaborate and Spectacular Scale.

PARIS, May 4.—King Edward left the Invalides Railroad Station, on his way to Cherbourg, before noon today, amid the booming of 100 cannon and the acclamations of an enormous crowd of people. The ceremonies at his departure were on the same elaborate and spectacular scale as on his arrival here. President Loubet, in a state coach, called at the British Embassy and drove with the King through the avenues, on both sides of which troops and large crowds were massed.

The King wore the uniform of a British Admiral. In a carriage following that of the King and the President were Premier Combes and Foreign Minister Delcasse, the latter wearing for the first time the Grand Cross of the Legion of Honor, bestowed upon him yesterday by King Edward. There was a continuous roar of "Vive le Roi" along the route, through the Avenue de Marigny, over the Pont Alexandre to the Esplanade des Invalides. The station was sumptuously decorated with crimson and gold hangings, and the British and French colors. The British band played the "God Save the King" at the moment of the British Sovereign's departure.

The final adieu was extremely cordial. The King and President Loubet, holding a long and intimate farewell conversation. Then the King saluted the officers, bowed and smiled to the crowd, entered the train and departed for Cherbourg, where a French squadron is waiting to render farewell honors.

To Visit St. Petersburg.

LONDON, May 5.—The Copenhagen correspondent of the Daily Mail says that King Edward will visit St. Petersburg in July, stopping three days in Berlin on his return. The correspondent says his Majesty also will visit Copenhagen.

IRISH LAND BILL CALLED UP.

Premier Balfour Makes a Strong Speech for the Measure.

LONDON, May 4.—The Irish Secretary, Mr. Wyndham, today formally moved the second reading of the Irish land bill in the House of Commons. John Redmond, the Irish leader, supporting the motion. The bill, which is the essential part of the Irish land problem, had such a chance as Mr. Wyndham now had. The landlords and tenants were in complete agreement, and almost all the essential points of the bill had been returned to Westminster with a mandate from the people upon this bill and fortified by a vote of confidence. If Mr. Wyndham's bill is passed, the essential points of the bill will be returned to Westminster with a mandate from the people upon this bill and fortified by a vote of confidence. If Mr. Wyndham's bill is passed, the essential points of the bill will be returned to Westminster with a mandate from the people upon this bill and fortified by a vote of confidence.

Mr. Wyndham, today formally moved the second reading of the Irish land bill in the House of Commons. John Redmond, the Irish leader, supporting the motion. The bill, which is the essential part of the Irish land problem, had such a chance as Mr. Wyndham now had. The landlords and tenants were in complete agreement, and almost all the essential points of the bill had been returned to Westminster with a mandate from the people upon this bill and fortified by a vote of confidence. If Mr. Wyndham's bill is passed, the essential points of the bill will be returned to Westminster with a mandate from the people upon this bill and fortified by a vote of confidence.

Mr. Wyndham, today formally moved the second reading of the Irish land bill in the House of Commons. John Redmond, the Irish leader, supporting the motion. The bill, which is the essential part of the Irish land problem, had such a chance as Mr. Wyndham now had. The landlords and tenants were in complete agreement, and almost all the essential points of the bill had been returned to Westminster with a mandate from the people upon this bill and fortified by a vote of confidence. If Mr. Wyndham's bill is passed, the essential points of the bill will be returned to Westminster with a mandate from the people upon this bill and fortified by a vote of confidence.

Mr. Wyndham, today formally moved the second reading of the Irish land bill in the House of Commons. John Redmond, the Irish leader, supporting the motion. The bill, which is the essential part of the Irish land problem, had such a chance as Mr. Wyndham now had. The landlords and tenants were in complete agreement, and almost all the essential points of the bill had been returned to Westminster with a mandate from the people upon this bill and fortified by a vote of confidence. If Mr. Wyndham's bill is passed, the essential points of the bill will be returned to Westminster with a mandate from the people upon this bill and fortified by a vote of confidence.

Mr. Wyndham, today formally moved the second reading of the Irish land bill in the House of Commons. John Redmond, the Irish leader, supporting the motion. The bill, which is the essential part of the Irish land problem, had such a chance as Mr. Wyndham now had. The landlords and tenants were in complete agreement, and almost all the essential points of the bill had been returned to Westminster with a mandate from the people upon this bill and fortified by a vote of confidence. If Mr. Wyndham's bill is passed, the essential points of the bill will be returned to Westminster with a mandate from the people upon this bill and fortified by a vote of confidence.

Mr. Wyndham, today formally moved the second reading of the Irish land bill in the House of Commons. John Redmond, the Irish leader, supporting the motion. The bill, which is the essential part of the Irish land problem, had such a chance as Mr. Wyndham now had. The landlords and tenants were in complete agreement, and almost all the essential points of the bill had been returned to Westminster with a mandate from the people upon this bill and fortified by a vote of confidence. If Mr. Wyndham's bill is passed, the essential points of the bill will be returned to Westminster with a mandate from the people upon this bill and fortified by a vote of confidence.

Mr. Wyndham, today formally moved the second reading of the Irish land bill in the House of Commons. John Redmond, the Irish leader, supporting the motion. The bill, which is the essential part of the Irish land problem, had such a chance as Mr. Wyndham now had. The landlords and tenants were in complete agreement, and almost all the essential points of the bill had been returned to Westminster with a mandate from the people upon this bill and fortified by a vote of confidence. If Mr. Wyndham's bill is passed, the essential points of the bill will be returned to Westminster with a mandate from the people upon this bill and fortified by a vote of confidence.

Mr. Wyndham, today formally moved the second reading of the Irish land bill in the House of Commons. John Redmond, the Irish leader, supporting the motion. The bill, which is the essential part of the Irish land problem, had such a chance as Mr. Wyndham now had. The landlords and tenants were in complete agreement, and almost all the essential points of the bill had been returned to Westminster with a mandate from the people upon this bill and fortified by a vote of confidence. If Mr. Wyndham's bill is passed, the essential points of the bill will be returned to Westminster with a mandate from the people upon this bill and fortified by a vote of confidence.

Mr. Wyndham, today formally moved the second reading of the Irish land bill in the House of Commons. John Redmond, the Irish leader, supporting the motion. The bill, which is the essential part of the Irish land problem, had such a chance as Mr. Wyndham now had. The landlords and tenants were in complete agreement, and almost all the essential points of the bill had been returned to Westminster with a mandate from the people upon this bill and fortified by a vote of confidence. If Mr. Wyndham's bill is passed, the essential points of the bill will be returned to Westminster with a mandate from the people upon this bill and fortified by a vote of confidence.

Mr. Wyndham, today formally moved the second reading of the Irish land bill in the House of Commons. John Redmond, the Irish leader, supporting the motion. The bill, which is the essential part of the Irish land problem, had such a chance as Mr. Wyndham now had. The landlords and tenants were in complete agreement, and almost all the essential points of the bill had been returned to Westminster with a mandate from the people upon this bill and fortified by a vote of confidence. If Mr. Wyndham's bill is passed, the essential points of the bill will be returned to Westminster with a mandate from the people upon this bill and fortified by a vote of confidence.

Mr. Wyndham, today formally moved the second reading of the Irish land bill in the House of Commons. John Redmond, the Irish leader, supporting the motion. The bill, which is the essential part of the Irish land problem, had such a chance as Mr. Wyndham now had. The landlords and tenants were in complete agreement, and almost all the essential points of the bill had been returned to Westminster with a mandate from the people upon this bill and fortified by a vote of confidence. If Mr. Wyndham's bill is passed, the essential points of the bill will be returned to Westminster with a mandate from the people upon this bill and fortified by a vote of confidence.

Mr. Wyndham, today formally moved the second reading of the Irish land bill in the House of Commons. John Redmond, the Irish leader, supporting the motion. The bill, which is the essential part of the Irish land problem, had such a chance as Mr. Wyndham now had. The landlords and tenants were in complete agreement, and almost all the essential points of the bill had been returned to Westminster with a mandate from the people upon this bill and fortified by a vote of confidence. If Mr. Wyndham's bill is passed, the essential points of the bill will be returned to Westminster with a mandate from the people upon this bill and fortified by a vote of confidence.

Mr. Wyndham, today formally moved the second reading of the Irish land bill in the House of Commons. John Redmond, the Irish leader, supporting the motion. The bill, which is the essential part of the Irish land problem, had such a chance as Mr. Wyndham now had. The landlords and tenants were in complete agreement, and almost all the essential points of the bill had been returned to Westminster with a mandate from the people upon this bill and fortified by a vote of confidence. If Mr. Wyndham's bill is passed, the essential points of the bill will be returned to Westminster with a mandate from the people upon this bill and fortified by a vote of confidence.

Mr. Wyndham, today formally moved the second reading of the Irish land bill in the House of Commons. John Redmond, the Irish leader, supporting the motion. The bill, which is the essential part of the Irish land problem, had such a chance as Mr. Wyndham now had. The landlords and tenants were in complete agreement, and almost all the essential points of the bill had been returned to Westminster with a mandate from the people upon this bill and fortified by a vote of confidence. If Mr. Wyndham's bill is passed, the essential points of the bill will be returned to Westminster with a mandate from the people upon this bill and fortified by a vote of confidence.

TAKE IN MAY.

Purifies the Blood as Nothing Else