Our Muslin underwear Sale, now in full swing, affords the one grand opportunity of the season in the right things at the right time.

The price advantages to be derived from our Special Sale of Ribbons fully warrant the satisfaction evinced by all purchasers.

Our grand Clearance Sale of Lace Curtains, which started Monday on the fourth floor outranks anything of a like nature that ever happened in Portland.

Our Special Reduction Sale of FRENCH PATTERN HATS in the Millinery Section—reductions which reduce prices nearly one-third on the newest, prettiest Millinery shown west of Chicago—is a saving proposition of unusual interest to all ladies.

All special bargain offerings mentioned in our full-page Sunday Oregonian advertisement hold good until present lots are exhausted, and this means in some instances

you ever saw advertised or shown

We know your confidence in our statements and in our merchandise. There is not money enough between the old Atlantic and broad Pacific to bribe us to betray that confidence, which we hold sacred as a medal of honor acquired by honest service to you—the people—here! all the long years you have honored us by steadily growing patronage. When we advertise a "bargain" you know it to be such in the fullest sense of the word, and we never disappoint you—we never fail. You need never fear being sorry for taking an hour from your household duties that you may respond to an ad. of ours—you'll find the goods here as advertised—the bargain just as big as represented by type. So when we say to you that TODAY WE OFFER ONE OF THE GREATEST BARGAINS IN SKIRTS EVER SHOWN IN PORTLAND you may believe us—implicitly.

Today Only We Will Sell $6.50 and $7.50 Skirts for $3.95

A skirt opportunity that will not come again. Nearly 100 in the lot—an assortment of BLACK DRESS SKIRTS, varying in price from $5.00 to $7.50, look as though they were worth more—just the kind needed for that "dress" occasion. Materials are Cheviots, Venetians and Alpaca. Styles are plain, flared, flounce and self-trimmed. All at one price and that..... $3.95

Above are Skirts of only a season ago—styles staple and fashionable—some stores might say "all new goods," we say they're last season's make, but the biggest bargains you ever saw. See them today in one of our Fifth-street windows.

Shoes That Fit
and Wear

There is nothing cheaper than a "cheap" shoe; and "bargain" shoes have become more popular in Portland since people have seen so much of them.

We have no "cheap" shoes—they are not good enough for our customers; but we have at all times the greatest values in shoes that are worthy, seasonable and up to date. These are the sorts it pays to buy:

MEN'S HIGH-GRADE SHOES—the best shoes we have ever seen or that can be made to sell at the price; style, material and fit guaranteed; from the foremost makers:
