

MAKES WAR

Turkey Will Mobilize Her Forces.

STRONG HATE TO BULGARIA

Sultan Holds It Responsible for Outrage.

ARRESTS STILL BEING MADE

Military and Police Guards About Constantinople Have Been Considerably Strengthened—Martial Law at Salonica.

BULGARIA INVOKES RUSSIA'S GOOD OFFICES.

LONDON, May 7.—The Sofia correspondent of the Times says the government has invoked Russia's good offices with the view of inducing the Porte to modify its note.

CONSTANTINOPLE, May 6.—The irritation in Turkish official circles against Bulgaria is constantly growing more acute.

Turks Fear a Massacre.

VIENNA, May 6.—Advice received here from Salonica says that notwithstanding the fact that hundreds of Bulgarians have been arrested, street fights are constantly taking place.

Bulgarians Worsted in Battle.

SALONICA, May 6.—An engagement is reported to have occurred at the village of Vasilitsa, between Turkish troops and Bulgarian band, in which 60 Bulgarians, including their leader, Deltzeff, were killed.

Vienna Fears War is Certain.

LONDON, May 7.—In a dispatch from Vienna, the correspondent of the Times says: "Turkey's disposition to show her teeth to Bulgaria, becomes more and more apparent."

Martial Law at Salonica.

SALONICA, May 6.—A number of dynamite bombs were captured here and martial law was proclaimed in Salonica yesterday.

King Says All is Tranquil.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—The Turkish Legation today authorized the following statement: "The Governor-General of the Province of Salonica telegraphs to the legation at Washington that public order and tranquility prevail in that province."

KING'S VISIT MEANS PEACE.

PARIS, May 6.—The Liberte publishes interviews with a number of public men on the probable results of the visit to France of King Edward.

TUG AS FIREBOAT.

(Continued from First Page.) which can be handled as well in a freshet in the river as when there is none, while it would be a slow and difficult task to get a propeller around between the two bridges when there was a boat about it.

LOAN FOR TRANSVAAL.

LONDON, May 6.—In the House of Commons today a formal resolution guaranteeing the Transvaal loan of £2,000,000, Colonial Secretary Chamberlain delivered a long, optimistic speech on the future of the new South African colonies.

ADIEU TO THE KAISER

Rome Gives Emperor Touching Farewell.

STREETS LINED WITH PEOPLE

All Cheer and Shout "Long Live William"—Wife of the American Ambassador Received by His Majesty.

Officers Storm Friars' Stronghold.

PARIS, May 6.—A dispatch from Bastia, Corsica, says the Capuchins, who had been barricaded in their monastery there for many days, were expelled today by the police, a detachment of infantry and a number of gendarmes.

Japanese Land Tax Abandoned.

YOKOHAMA, May 6.—As a result of an understanding arrived at between the Cabinet and the Constitutional Political Association formed by the Marquis Ito in 1890, the Cabinet has abandoned the land tax as a means for providing funds for the naval programme.

New Law Reduces Military Offenses.

BERLIN, May 6.—Late statistics show that the reduction of criminality in the German army, which began in 1896 with the introduction of two years' service, has become permanent.

For China-Japan Alliance.

LONDON, May 6.—The correspondent at Moscow of the Daily Mail says in a dispatch: "I learn upon good authority that the attitude exhibited abroad has induced Russian statesmen to endeavor to bring about a complete understanding with China and Japan."

Massacre Story Discredited.

VIENNA, May 6.—The statement that 6000 Christian inhabitants of Novibazar, European Turkey, have been massacred by Moslems published by news agencies in the United States, is regarded as an invention.

Riot in Connection With Strike.

LONDON, May 6.—A dispatch to the Central News from St. Petersburg, dated yesterday, says a riot occurred Monday evening when the strike of seamens broke out at Kronstadt.

Violin Allen's Next-Season Play.

BOSTON, May 6.—Miss Viola Allen announced today that next season she would appear in Shakespeare's comedy, "Twelfth Night," a play which she has long contemplated producing.

MOVE TO END FEUD.

Kentucky People Will Ask Governor to Bring About Peace. LEXINGTON, Ky., May 6.—The people not involved in the Cockerell-Hargis feud in Breathitt County, according to a dispatch received here from Jackson, contemplate calling on Governor Beckham to bring peace to the community.

Washington Sheep-Grazing Permits.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, May 6.—The Secretary of the Interior today approved permits for grazing 2000 sheep on the Washington forest reserve east of the mountains during the season of 1904.

ADIEU TO THE KAISER

Rome Gives Emperor Touching Farewell.

STREETS LINED WITH PEOPLE

All Cheer and Shout "Long Live William"—Wife of the American Ambassador Received by His Majesty.

Officers Storm Friars' Stronghold.

PARIS, May 6.—A dispatch from Bastia, Corsica, says the Capuchins, who had been barricaded in their monastery there for many days, were expelled today by the police, a detachment of infantry and a number of gendarmes.

Japanese Land Tax Abandoned.

YOKOHAMA, May 6.—As a result of an understanding arrived at between the Cabinet and the Constitutional Political Association formed by the Marquis Ito in 1890, the Cabinet has abandoned the land tax as a means for providing funds for the naval programme.

New Law Reduces Military Offenses.

BERLIN, May 6.—Late statistics show that the reduction of criminality in the German army, which began in 1896 with the introduction of two years' service, has become permanent.

For China-Japan Alliance.

LONDON, May 6.—The correspondent at Moscow of the Daily Mail says in a dispatch: "I learn upon good authority that the attitude exhibited abroad has induced Russian statesmen to endeavor to bring about a complete understanding with China and Japan."

Massacre Story Discredited.

VIENNA, May 6.—The statement that 6000 Christian inhabitants of Novibazar, European Turkey, have been massacred by Moslems published by news agencies in the United States, is regarded as an invention.

Riot in Connection With Strike.

LONDON, May 6.—A dispatch to the Central News from St. Petersburg, dated yesterday, says a riot occurred Monday evening when the strike of seamens broke out at Kronstadt.

Violin Allen's Next-Season Play.

BOSTON, May 6.—Miss Viola Allen announced today that next season she would appear in Shakespeare's comedy, "Twelfth Night," a play which she has long contemplated producing.

MOVE TO END FEUD.

Kentucky People Will Ask Governor to Bring About Peace. LEXINGTON, Ky., May 6.—The people not involved in the Cockerell-Hargis feud in Breathitt County, according to a dispatch received here from Jackson, contemplate calling on Governor Beckham to bring peace to the community.

Washington Sheep-Grazing Permits.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, May 6.—The Secretary of the Interior today approved permits for grazing 2000 sheep on the Washington forest reserve east of the mountains during the season of 1904.

ADIEU TO THE KAISER

Rome Gives Emperor Touching Farewell.

STREETS LINED WITH PEOPLE

All Cheer and Shout "Long Live William"—Wife of the American Ambassador Received by His Majesty.

Officers Storm Friars' Stronghold.

PARIS, May 6.—A dispatch from Bastia, Corsica, says the Capuchins, who had been barricaded in their monastery there for many days, were expelled today by the police, a detachment of infantry and a number of gendarmes.

Japanese Land Tax Abandoned.

YOKOHAMA, May 6.—As a result of an understanding arrived at between the Cabinet and the Constitutional Political Association formed by the Marquis Ito in 1890, the Cabinet has abandoned the land tax as a means for providing funds for the naval programme.

New Law Reduces Military Offenses.

BERLIN, May 6.—Late statistics show that the reduction of criminality in the German army, which began in 1896 with the introduction of two years' service, has become permanent.

For China-Japan Alliance.

LONDON, May 6.—The correspondent at Moscow of the Daily Mail says in a dispatch: "I learn upon good authority that the attitude exhibited abroad has induced Russian statesmen to endeavor to bring about a complete understanding with China and Japan."

Massacre Story Discredited.

VIENNA, May 6.—The statement that 6000 Christian inhabitants of Novibazar, European Turkey, have been massacred by Moslems published by news agencies in the United States, is regarded as an invention.

Riot in Connection With Strike.

LONDON, May 6.—A dispatch to the Central News from St. Petersburg, dated yesterday, says a riot occurred Monday evening when the strike of seamens broke out at Kronstadt.

Violin Allen's Next-Season Play.

BOSTON, May 6.—Miss Viola Allen announced today that next season she would appear in Shakespeare's comedy, "Twelfth Night," a play which she has long contemplated producing.

MOVE TO END FEUD.

Kentucky People Will Ask Governor to Bring About Peace. LEXINGTON, Ky., May 6.—The people not involved in the Cockerell-Hargis feud in Breathitt County, according to a dispatch received here from Jackson, contemplate calling on Governor Beckham to bring peace to the community.

Washington Sheep-Grazing Permits.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, May 6.—The Secretary of the Interior today approved permits for grazing 2000 sheep on the Washington forest reserve east of the mountains during the season of 1904.

BUILDING IS KEPT UP

Greater New York Has a General Shut-Down.

MOVE TO MAKE UNIONS GIVE IN

Lumber Dealers and Brick Manufacturers Will Sell No Material Until Drivers Come to Terms.

NEW YORK, May 6.—Without any apparent warning, a general shutdown took place today in the yards of the building-material dealers and the lumber dealers all over Greater New York and its vicinity as a culmination of the demands of the Building Material Drivers' Union.

More Bookbinders Walk Out.

CHICAGO, May 6.—Employees of four more bookbinding firms joined the strike today, making the number of firms affected eight. In March last the bookbinders of this city asked for an increase in wages.

More Bookbinders Walk Out.

CHICAGO, May 6.—Employees of four more bookbinding firms joined the strike today, making the number of firms affected eight. In March last the bookbinders of this city asked for an increase in wages.

More Bookbinders Walk Out.

CHICAGO, May 6.—Employees of four more bookbinding firms joined the strike today, making the number of firms affected eight. In March last the bookbinders of this city asked for an increase in wages.

More Bookbinders Walk Out.

CHICAGO, May 6.—Employees of four more bookbinding firms joined the strike today, making the number of firms affected eight. In March last the bookbinders of this city asked for an increase in wages.

More Bookbinders Walk Out.

CHICAGO, May 6.—Employees of four more bookbinding firms joined the strike today, making the number of firms affected eight. In March last the bookbinders of this city asked for an increase in wages.

More Bookbinders Walk Out.

CHICAGO, May 6.—Employees of four more bookbinding firms joined the strike today, making the number of firms affected eight. In March last the bookbinders of this city asked for an increase in wages.

More Bookbinders Walk Out.

CHICAGO, May 6.—Employees of four more bookbinding firms joined the strike today, making the number of firms affected eight. In March last the bookbinders of this city asked for an increase in wages.

More Bookbinders Walk Out.

CHICAGO, May 6.—Employees of four more bookbinding firms joined the strike today, making the number of firms affected eight. In March last the bookbinders of this city asked for an increase in wages.

More Bookbinders Walk Out.

CHICAGO, May 6.—Employees of four more bookbinding firms joined the strike today, making the number of firms affected eight. In March last the bookbinders of this city asked for an increase in wages.

More Bookbinders Walk Out.

CHICAGO, May 6.—Employees of four more bookbinding firms joined the strike today, making the number of firms affected eight. In March last the bookbinders of this city asked for an increase in wages.

BUILDING IS KEPT UP

Greater New York Has a General Shut-Down.

MOVE TO MAKE UNIONS GIVE IN

Lumber Dealers and Brick Manufacturers Will Sell No Material Until Drivers Come to Terms.

NEW YORK, May 6.—Without any apparent warning, a general shutdown took place today in the yards of the building-material dealers and the lumber dealers all over Greater New York and its vicinity as a culmination of the demands of the Building Material Drivers' Union.

More Bookbinders Walk Out.

CHICAGO, May 6.—Employees of four more bookbinding firms joined the strike today, making the number of firms affected eight. In March last the bookbinders of this city asked for an increase in wages.

More Bookbinders Walk Out.

CHICAGO, May 6.—Employees of four more bookbinding firms joined the strike today, making the number of firms affected eight. In March last the bookbinders of this city asked for an increase in wages.

More Bookbinders Walk Out.

CHICAGO, May 6.—Employees of four more bookbinding firms joined the strike today, making the number of firms affected eight. In March last the bookbinders of this city asked for an increase in wages.

More Bookbinders Walk Out.

CHICAGO, May 6.—Employees of four more bookbinding firms joined the strike today, making the number of firms affected eight. In March last the bookbinders of this city asked for an increase in wages.

More Bookbinders Walk Out.

CHICAGO, May 6.—Employees of four more bookbinding firms joined the strike today, making the number of firms affected eight. In March last the bookbinders of this city asked for an increase in wages.

More Bookbinders Walk Out.

CHICAGO, May 6.—Employees of four more bookbinding firms joined the strike today, making the number of firms affected eight. In March last the bookbinders of this city asked for an increase in wages.

More Bookbinders Walk Out.

CHICAGO, May 6.—Employees of four more bookbinding firms joined the strike today, making the number of firms affected eight. In March last the bookbinders of this city asked for an increase in wages.

More Bookbinders Walk Out.

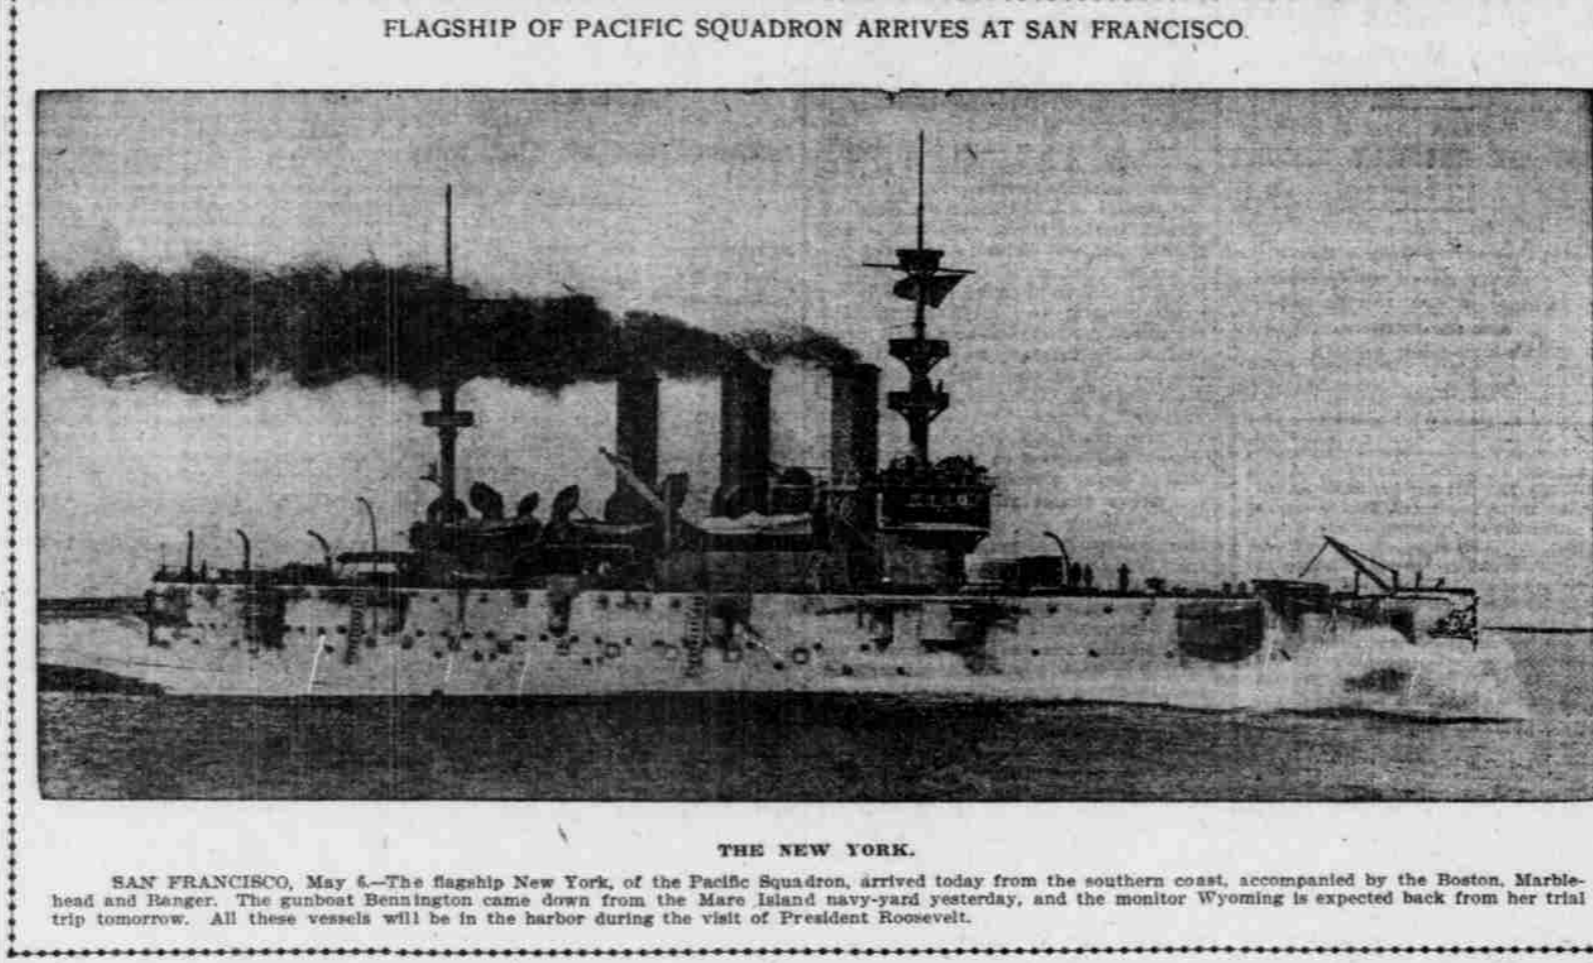

CHICAGO, May 6.—Employees of four more bookbinding firms joined the strike today, making the number of firms affected eight. In March last the bookbinders of this city asked for an increase in wages.

More Bookbinders Walk Out.

CHICAGO, May 6.—Employees of four more bookbinding firms joined the strike today, making the number of firms affected eight. In March last the bookbinders of this city asked for an increase in wages.

More Bookbinders Walk Out.

CHICAGO, May 6.—Employees of four more bookbinding firms joined the strike today, making the number of firms affected eight. In March last the bookbinders of this city asked for an increase in wages.

FLAGSHIP OF PACIFIC SQUADRON ARRIVES AT SAN FRANCISCO.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 6.—The flagship New York, of the Pacific Squadron, arrived today from the southern coast, accompanied by the Boston, Marblehead and the gunboat Bennington, which came down from the Mare island navy yard yesterday, and the monitor Wyoming is expected back from her trial tomorrow. All these vessels will be in the harbor during the visit of President Roosevelt.

THE NEW YORK.

ing to the state of siege, refused the final demand of the authorities to take down their barricades and to open the doors to the broken in with axes and the friars were arrested. About 200 persons made a demonstration against the authorities, but they were dispersed.

Woman Kills Fisherman.

BAY CITY, Mich., May 6.—David Trembley, a fisherman, of West Bay City, was shot and killed and Harry Schindtke was wounded last night by Mrs. Alton Roweth of Wisner. The two women, who others, had been drinking at Roweth's summer resort. Upon being refused more beer, one of the men crawled through a window to get it. Mrs. Roweth seized a shotgun and struck him over the head several times. The gun was finally discharged, Mrs. Roweth says accidentally.

WOMAN SHOT BY ROBBER.

She Was Trying to Shield Her Father Who Had Big Sum of Money. MEDFORD, Mass., May 6.—Miss Nellie Sturtevant, 23 years old, daughter of Treasurer James S. Sturtevant, of the Medford Co-operative Bank, was shot and killed at her home late last night by an unknown man who attempted to rob her father, as he was returning from a bank meeting with a satchel filled with checks and money. The assassin then jumped upon his bicycle and escaped. An Italian who answered the description of the murderer was arrested two hours later on suspicion.

WOMAN SHOT BY ROBBER.

She Was Trying to Shield Her Father Who Had Big Sum of Money. MEDFORD, Mass., May 6.—Miss Nellie Sturtevant, 23 years old, daughter of Treasurer James S. Sturtevant, of the Medford Co-operative Bank, was shot and killed at her home late last night by an unknown man who attempted to rob her father, as he was returning from a bank meeting with a satchel filled with checks and money. The assassin then jumped upon his bicycle and escaped. An Italian who answered the description of the murderer was arrested two hours later on suspicion.

WOMAN SHOT BY ROBBER.

She Was Trying to Shield Her Father Who Had Big Sum of Money. MEDFORD, Mass., May 6.—Miss Nellie Sturtevant, 23 years old, daughter of Treasurer James S. Sturtevant, of the Medford Co-operative Bank, was shot and killed at her home late last night by an unknown man who attempted to rob her father, as he was returning from a bank meeting with a satchel filled with checks and money. The assassin then jumped upon his bicycle and escaped. An Italian who answered the description of the murderer was arrested two hours later on suspicion.

WOMAN SHOT BY ROBBER.

She Was Trying to Shield Her Father Who Had Big Sum of Money. MEDFORD, Mass., May 6.—Miss Nellie Sturtevant, 23 years old, daughter of Treasurer James S. Sturtevant, of the Medford Co-operative Bank, was shot and killed at her home late last night by an unknown man who attempted to rob her father, as he was returning from a bank meeting with a satchel filled with checks and money. The assassin then jumped upon his bicycle and escaped. An Italian who answered the description of the murderer was arrested two hours later on suspicion.

WOMAN SHOT BY ROBBER.

She Was Trying to Shield Her Father Who Had Big Sum of Money. MEDFORD, Mass., May 6.—Miss Nellie Sturtevant, 23 years old, daughter of Treasurer James S. Sturtevant, of the Medford Co-operative Bank, was shot and killed at her home late last night by an unknown man who attempted to rob her father, as he was returning from a bank meeting with a satchel filled with checks and money. The assassin then jumped upon his bicycle and escaped. An Italian who answered the description of the murderer was arrested two hours later on suspicion.

BUILDING IS KEPT UP

Greater New York Has a General Shut-Down.

MOVE TO MAKE UNIONS GIVE IN

Lumber Dealers and Brick Manufacturers Will Sell No Material Until Drivers Come to Terms.

NEW YORK, May 6.—Without any apparent warning, a general shutdown took place today in the yards of the building-material dealers and the lumber dealers all over Greater New York and its vicinity as a culmination of the demands of the Building Material Drivers' Union.

More Bookbinders Walk Out.

CHICAGO, May 6.—Employees of four more bookbinding firms joined the strike today, making the number of firms affected eight. In March last the bookbinders of this city asked for an increase in wages.

More Bookbinders Walk Out.

CHICAGO, May 6.—Employees of four more bookbinding firms joined the strike today, making the number of firms affected eight. In March last the bookbinders of this city asked for an increase in wages.

More Bookbinders Walk Out.

CHICAGO, May 6.—Employees of four more bookbinding firms joined the strike today, making the number of firms affected eight. In March last the bookbinders of this city asked for an increase in wages.

More Bookbinders Walk Out.

CHICAGO, May 6.—Employees of four more bookbinding firms joined the strike today, making the number of firms affected eight. In March last the bookbinders of this city asked for an increase in wages.

More Bookbinders Walk Out.

CHICAGO, May 6.—Employees of four more bookbinding firms joined the strike today, making the number of firms affected eight. In March last the bookbinders of this city asked for an increase in wages.

More Bookbinders Walk Out.

CHICAGO, May 6.—Employees of four more bookbinding firms joined the strike today, making the number of firms affected eight. In March last the bookbinders of this city asked for an increase in wages.

More Bookbinders Walk Out.

CHICAGO, May 6.—Employees of four more bookbinding firms joined the strike today, making the number of firms affected eight. In March last the bookbinders of this city asked for an increase in wages.

More Bookbinders Walk Out.

CHICAGO, May 6.—Employees of four more bookbinding firms joined the strike today, making the number of firms affected eight. In March last the bookbinders of this city asked for an increase in wages.

More Bookbinders Walk Out.

CHICAGO, May 6.—Employees of four more bookbinding firms joined the strike today, making the number of firms affected eight. In March last the bookbinders of this city asked for an increase in wages.

More Bookbinders Walk Out.

CHICAGO, May 6.—Employees of four more bookbinding firms joined the strike today, making the number of firms affected eight. In March last the bookbinders of this city asked for an increase in wages.

BUILDING IS KEPT UP

Greater New York Has a General Shut-Down.

MOVE TO MAKE UNIONS GIVE IN

Lumber Dealers and Brick Manufacturers Will Sell No Material Until Drivers Come to Terms.

NEW YORK, May 6.—Without any apparent warning, a general shutdown took place today in the yards of the building-material dealers and the lumber dealers all over Greater New York and its vicinity as a culmination of the demands of the Building Material Drivers' Union.

More Bookbinders Walk Out.

CHICAGO, May 6.—Employees of four more bookbinding firms joined the strike today, making the number of firms affected eight. In March last the bookbinders of this city asked for an increase in wages.

More Bookbinders Walk Out.

CHICAGO, May 6.—Employees of four more bookbinding firms joined the strike today, making the number of firms affected eight. In March last the bookbinders of this city asked for an increase in wages.

More Bookbinders Walk Out.

CHICAGO, May 6.—Employees of four more bookbinding firms joined the strike today, making the number of firms affected eight. In March last the bookbinders of this city asked for an increase in wages.

More Bookbinders Walk Out.

CHICAGO, May 6.—Employees of four more bookbinding firms joined the strike today, making the number of firms affected eight. In March last the bookbinders of this city asked for an increase in wages.

More Bookbinders Walk Out.

CHICAGO, May 6.—Employees of four more bookbinding firms joined the strike today, making the number of firms affected eight. In March last the bookbinders of this city asked for an increase in wages.

More Bookbinders Walk Out.

CHICAGO, May 6.—Employees of four more bookbinding firms joined the strike today, making the number of firms affected eight. In March last the bookbinders of this city asked for an increase in wages.

More Bookbinders Walk Out.

CHICAGO, May 6.—Employees of four more bookbinding firms joined the strike today, making the number of firms affected eight. In March last the bookbinders of this city asked for an increase in wages.

More Bookbinders Walk Out.