Though Track Is Not All Ballasted and Road Does Not Seek It, Business Is Coming.

Wheat is now coming to Portland over the Lyle-Goldendale road of the Columbia River & Northern, and general merchan-dise specifically billed to interior points by that line is being forwarded. A few passengers are being carried, but the new road is not yet ready to do a general

The roadbed is in fair condition, but

The roadbed is in fair condition, but ballasting will not be completed for several weeks. Fully 25 of the 43 miles of roadbed have been thoroughly ballasted, and, owing to the unusually favorable country through which the line runs, the track rides as smoothly as a street-dar line over an asphalt pavement.

The impatience of many of the owners of wheat stored in the interior resulted in the issuance of an order to carry the grain to tide water. The company had not desired to do any carrying trade until it could complete the work of ballasting the track, but since the people of the Klickitat Valley had co-operated so enthusias. tically with the railroad-builders, it was decided that the wheat should be taken decided that the wheat should be taken

The wheat now being carried by the

The wheat now being carried by the Goldendale line has been stored for upwards of six months. To transport this grain to the river lines has heretofore involved an expense of upwards of I7 cents to the growers. The new railroad makes a deep cut on these charges.

Passenger traffic has been discouraged by the railroad officials. The company has two handsome coaches on its sidetracks at Lyle, the river terminus of the line, but has refused to send them over the road to Goldendale. A boxcar is doing duty as a caboose, and such passengers as desire to make the trip are carried in each direction if they climb into the boxcar. This method of travel, being much faster than anything the people have exfaster than anything the people have ex-perienced heretofore, is a welcome inno-vation to the ranchers of the valley, and the passenger traffic even now is some-What heavy.
Owing to the fact that the line has not yet been put in first-class condition, the company officials have not solicited freight in either direction. They have only aced the inward-bound merchandise that the shippers have been extremely anxious to have forwarded to its destination at once. The movement of general undise has been unusually and the traffic in general suggests a heavy

Some time during the coming month it is the intention of the stockholders in the railroad to give a general excursion from Portland to Goldendale. The Klickitat Valley is naturally tributary to Portland, and, in the interests of close business relations between the two districts, the ex-cursion is planned. It is not the inten-tion of the railroad officials to prepare for the excursion prior to the time the line is oroughly ballasted and made ready for gular traffic. Then a ride can be made to the rich wheat district with com-

The Goldendale line at present enjoys the distinction of being a fairly easy road to travel. Over much of the distance the ties were laid upon the prairle, on a nat-ural roadbed, and elsewhere the ballasting has been completed. When the road-bed has been halfasted for its entire dis-tance, the Goldendale line will be one of the endest riding of new roads ever con-

EXCURSION RATE TO DENVER.

Chance for Cheap Trip Offered by Christian Endeavor Convention.

One of the lowest first-class rates ever announced by Western railroads has just been promulgated by the O. R. & N. The other northern lines will join in the quota-tion of this tariff. The roads have quoted the round-trip rate of $45 from Portland end Puget Sound points and $40 from Spoto Denver at the time of the Chris-than Endeavor meeting.

The tickets are to be placed on sale for this excursion July 5 and 6, and the travciers are allowed until July 13 to reach Denver. The terms of sale are that trav-ciers chall go one way to Denver, but may return by another route to their home. In the event it is expected to return by way of San Francisco and Califormia points, an additional $1250 is charged. The return limit is August 31.

The following points are charged the rices mentioned above the Spokane rate: Lewiston, $1.85; Moscow, 30 cents; Pome-roy, 30 cents; Dayton, 40 cents; Walts-burg, 10 cents, and Elgin, 65 cents.

The Rio Grande has announced an excursion from Portland to Indianapolis, ind., at the time of the meeting of the Modern Woodmen of America. The exact date for the departure of the excursion lats from Portland has not yet been fixed, but the train will leave in the morning so as to arrive at Salt Lake the second morning. Half a day is to be devoted to the Mormon capital, and an opportunity given for visiting points of interest in that city. A stop is also to be made at Colo-rado Springs.

ASKS LAWMAKERS TO ACT. La Pollette Urges Protection to State Against Higher Rates.

MADISON, Wis., May 8.—Governor La Follette today sent another message to the Legislature on the subject of freight rates. The message results from revela-tions in connection with the opening of coal bids yesterday. The dealers inserted bids making the prices subject to freight rates. Such reservation was never be-fore made, and the Governor says it proves conclusively that the railroad companies instructed the shippers to make contracts subject to increased rates. He says the necessity for the Legislature to take action is imperative, so as to prevent the roads from increasing tariffs to off-

The Board of Trade has not dropped the transport issue, but is using every effort to secure for Portland a part of the transport trade that is now divided between San Francisco and Seattle.

HEAVILY INVOLVED. A Failure Impending.

Improper feeding brings on disease. The use of coffee, for instance, is almost certain to cause organic ills. The whole system of health becomes involved and the physical failure known as collapse is always impending. No financial trouble can cause half the suffering that follows disease, and most disease comes from what we cat and drink. It is no guess work, but solld, scientific fact that coffee hurts about nine of every ten that drink it. It attacks the vital organs directly, and indirectly its ill re-sults are frequently seen in the remotest corner of the body. All the while serious organic diseases may be growing that will be hard to cure, and the coffee drinker is subject to such suffering as headache. is subject to such suffering as headache, billousness, flatulence, insomnia, nervousness and a hundred and one other ills. "Once upon a time," as they say in the tales, "when I was controlled by the coffee fiend," writes a lady of St. John, Canada, "life was a weary burden to me on account of the wretched headaches, utter weariness of both mind and body and general billousness, all due, as I afterward found out, to the use of coffee. Acting upon an old friend's advice, I quit coffee and drank Postum, and presto, in a week I was transformed into a different being.
