

HUNT CLUB COURT

Riders Tell the Story of the Williams Accident.

INJURED MAN SUES FOR $10,000

Society Turns Out to Hear Witnesses Describe How James Nicol's Horse Ran Over the Judge at the Finish.

Members of the Portland Hunt Club, men and women, testified at the trial of the damage suit of J. E. Williams against James Nicol, how it happened that Nicol rode over Williams with his horse at the close of a paper chase on April 5, 1902.

Williams was laid up for six months and lost his wages during that time, amounting to $15 per month. He says he suffered a great deal, and that he was given general damages $500 special damages and $30 for loss of time, making altogether $1070.

The trial attracted considerable interest, and there was a large attendance of spectators. Nicol is an expert horseman and conducts the Portland Riding Club, besides acting as instructor of the members of the Portland Hunt Club.

Questions for Jurors. "Are you a member of the paper-chasers?" "Do you belong to the club which chases through the city and country on horseback?"

George Charles Allen, who passed a forged check for $5 on E. Schiller, a cigar dealer, several weeks ago, was tried and convicted by a jury in the State Circuit court yesterday.

THE SNEW OF NO CHARGES

MISS MARIE WARE'S SURPRISING STATE OF IGNORANCE.

Especially Since Judge Bellinger Wrote Her a Letter Specifying Irregularities in Her Office.

Miss Marie L. Ware, who has been much in the public eye of late in connection with alleged public land frauds during the time she served as United States Commissioner at Eugene, and who came to this city on Monday, is still here, conferring with Horace G. McKinley and other advisers concerning the charges which have been made against her.

In a recent interview Miss Ware said that she has no knowledge of any charges having been preferred against her. This statement is not in harmony with the facts as they appear of record in the office of the United States District Judge.

"So you don't know anything about the accident at all?" "Only what I have stated."

Then Miss Ware was extensively questioned on the rules and regulations of the Hunt Club. Mr. Gleason objected, on the ground that the witness had but recently joined the club at the time of the accident.

"But," said the court, "the witness has been a member ever since, she seems to be familiar with the subject, and her testimony seems competent."

"Will," said Gleason, "she does look rather nervous." And the court was compelled to rally to the rescue.

"All witnesses in this court must be treated respectfully by the attorneys," said Judge Bellinger, "and Miss Ware was a member of the club at the time of the accident."

Mr. S. B. Forbes admitted that she knew Mr. Williams, "but not personally," she added, in order, evidently, that existing social relations might be preserved inviolate.

Mr. S. B. Forbes explained that her sister had won the race. Mrs. Forbes had followed her sister until Nicol had collided with Williams, and then she turned in time to see horse and rider turning a somersault in the air.

THE CASE CONTINUED UNTIL TODAY. GEORGE C. ALLEN CONVICTED. Jury Finds Honolulu Man Guilty of Forgery.

WORRIES THE RAILROADS

BIG CROWDS COMING TO SEE THE PRESIDENT.

Excursions From All Sides Will Gather at Cities—Northern Pacific Most Crowded.

The railroads are worried over the problem of handling the crowds of excursionists that will flock to greet the President at the various points he will visit in the Northwest. All the roads have received positive assurances of a business that will tax their passenger facilities to the utmost.
