OREGON OYSTERS FOR THE PRESIDENT.— Eastern people visiting the Northwest are surprised to see the oysters produced here from the tiny seed systers brought from the East. The latest to look into this matter is J. H. Wilson, of Newburyport, Mass., an oyster cultivator, was in the city yesterday. He has been investigating the oyster business on this coast with a view of engaging in the cul-tivation of household oysters here, and was in San Francisco while President Roosevelt was there. While discussing business with the oyster dealers there he was astonished to learn that 7000 oysters at an oyster house, and was astonished at their quality, and on his arrival here inquired where the beds on which they were rulsed were stuated and then pro-ceeded to visit them. He was astonished at the growth made by the seed cysters planted in three years, and also at the fatness and excellent flavor of the bi-valves. He inquired what had caused the rapid growth and fine flavor and was told that the equable temperature of the water on this coast was favorable to the growth of oysters, and that the fresh water from streams flowing into the bay where the oyster-beds are situated im-proved their flavor. He says he has con-cluded that there is a great future to the oyster business in this section, and believes that before many years oysters will be shipped from Portland to the East, and he seriously contemplates stocking extensive bods on this coast. He said that the oyster dealers in San, Francisco appeared quite put out about the cysters for the President's banquet having been procured from Oregon, and were not inclined to give him much information about them. Mr. Wilson left for Puget Sound last night to look over the oyster

The scaffold on which A. L. Beiding, the murderer of three people, was hanged, is still standing in the Courthouse yard, waiting to end the cureer of the colored murderer Smith. The boarding around it has shrunken till a lean person can almost crawl through the cracks in it, and it has crawl through the cracks in it, and it has become an exessive. As the execution of Smith is to be the last public execution in Multnomah County, the public is slightly anxious to have the matter, painful though it may be to Smith, over with and the scaffold removed. Few understand the cause of the long and prelonged delay in this matter, but all understand delay in this matter, but all understand that legal proceedings have had some-thing to do with it. The strike, however, has more to do with the delay than the law at present. Smith has objected, it is said, to being hanged on that particular scaffold on the ground that it is an unfair one, he having been told that it was built "scahs." This is not the case, but the objection will probably put off his execution until the strike is over.

SALMON AGAIN PLENTIFUL-It has been so long since the advance guard of the great school of salmon for this season came into the Columbia and was suc-cessfully exterminated, and no more having appeared since, fishermen were be ginning to feel nervous over the pros-pects for the season's fishing. Last Sun-day the salmon began to come in and Sunday night quite large takes were made along the river as far up as Cathsome seines capturing a ton. It posed that the head of the school een waiting for the arrival of President Roosevelt to the end that some of the leaders might be caught in order that he might be enabled to feast on the larg-est and finest of fresh-caught chinook salmon during his visit here. Fishermen are in hopes that the fish will not fall many are being thrown away. CRUSHED BY ELEVATOR.-Mrs.

Jennie White was injured by an elevator in the Marquam building, on Monday afternoon, her left foot being crushed. afternoon, her left foot being crushed. Mrs. White, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Bert Blair, was in the act of entering the elevator when the accident oc-curred. The elevator was a trifle above a level with the floor and as Mrs. White entered the door the elevator boy lowered the cage, catching Mrs. White's foot between the bottom of the cage and the floor and laccrating it most painfully. Mrs. White was taken to a physician's office, where the wound was properly dressed. The X-ray failed to reveal any broken bones, and it is hoped that amputation will not be necessary. Mrs. White was later removed to the North Pacific Sanitarium

POLICEMAN DOES A FAST SPRINT,-If the Civil Service Commissioners have an doubt about Policeman Gossett's sprint ing qualities they may have conclusiv idence to the contrary by inquiring of me of the North End residents who intersed one of his sprints last night. John Rasmussen, a contractor, was some-what intoxicated, and as he staggered along Burnside, near First street, a man who later proved to be H. O'Brien grabbed his watch and dashed down First street where he turned up Couch. Officer Gos-sett happened along just in time to give chase to the fugitive, who was a block in the lead of the bluecoated guardian of the peace. But the policeman had su-perfor sprinting abilities, and soon de-livered Mr. O'Brien to the jailer at the station and placed a charge against him

Section of Kentucky Produces 011 as Well as Murders.

"I have just returned from the section of Kentucky where Marcum was killed," suid D. M. Watson, of the Perkins Hotel, yesterday, "and heard about the crime and its causes. Marcum had been warned last September to leave Breathitt County and he went, but he returned, thinking the affair had blown over. He no sooner did so than he was killed, and the assassins tried to kill the only witness of the murder, for they make it a practice to kill the witnesses of their crimes. The Cockerell faction and is said to be about the 35th growing out of the feud. The other faction, of which I forget the name, has grown very weak, most of its mem are in hopes that the fish will not fall bers having moved to Oklahoma. I have two wells within a mile country is in the heart of the new on region. I have two wells within a mile of the scene, but am not pumping them now, because the pipe line has not been extended there yet. I have hopes that it will soon be extended, for there are wells pumping all the way from two to 50 barrels a day, and the Standard Oil Company pays a fair price for the oil. The pipe line now extends from Parkersburg, W, Va., through Eastern Tennessee.

THREE-LINK FRATERNITY ASSEM BLES IN GREAT NUMBERS.

Grand Encampment of Patriarchs Grand Lodge and Rebekahs in Session.

The "three-link" fraternity is very much in evidence in Portland just now and Oddfellows from all parts of the state are here to attend the Grand Encampment of Patriarchs, the Grand Lodge and State Assembly of the Daughters of and State Assembly of the Daughters of Rebekah, the women's auxiliary to Odd-fellowship. The hotels are crowded to their capacity with the delegates and their families, most of whom will remain until after the President's visit. The order will turn out in force to assist in the re-ception and it is expected that more than 1000 members will march in Thursday's purade.

The Grand Encampment met at 9 o'clock yesterday morning at Arion Hall and com-pleted its business in the afternoon. Of the 400 past chief patriarchs in Oregon, 77 participated in yesterday's meeting, R. W. Stewart, grand patriarch, pre-siding. The morning session was deoding. COMING ATTRACTIONS.

Ralph Stuart in "Monte Cristo." Before an audience that taxed the ca acity of the Baker Theater, Ralph Stuart gave his fourth performance of the great and ever welcome play, "Monte No actor ever appearing in Portland ever gave a better interpreta-tion of Edmund Dantes, afterward the Count de Monte Cristo, than Raiph Stuart. The rest of the company are not to be forgotten, as they, like their star, do the work intrusted to them as only artists can. As there will be quite a number of visitors in the city the Baker management has made special arrangements to give all those who attend that comy playhouse during their stay here the best and kindest attention. The here the best and kindest attention per-curtain will raise at all evening per-formances promptly at 8:E. Seats can be engaged at the box office any time dur-lottery bill.

Ferneliff.

The fifth week of Ralph Stuart's remarkably successful engagement at the Baker Theater will be devoted to a revival of "Ferncliff," written by William Haworth upon Incidents occurring during the great War of the Rebellion.

This play proved so popular during Mr. Stuart's first starring engagement at this theater last year that it has been deemed expedient to reproduce it now. The hero, Tom Hewin, a young soldier, is admirably suited to Mr. Stuart's well-known talents, and the supporting parts are equally important, for this is not, strictly speaking, a star play. Every character is strongly depicted and essential to the working out of the intricate and absorbing story.

course of business." A subsidiary com-pany might have been formed, but as a fact no such company had been contemplated or proposed. He was emphatic that Wells had agreed to hand over the grants in 30 days, and that he had permitted Wells to take them back to British Columbia for political purposes. Pressed upon this point, he said Wells said his purpose was to say, if questioned that the land was not alienated from the HEALTH BOARD AFTER THEM. Railroads Must Improve Sanitary Conditions of Cars.

LOUISVILLE, May 19 .- A call has been issued for a special meeting of the State Board of Health Friday afternoon. The sole purpose is to take steps looking toward improved health facilities on coaches and Pullman cars operated in Kentucky. The investigation conducted by the Health Board bids fair to take material form in the shape of stringent requirements affecting every passenger coach, Pullman or otherwise, that traverses the state. It is said by health authorities that there is no worse conductor of disease than the passenger oach unless special care is taken for the welfare of the patrons of roads.
