LOS ANGELES, Cal., May 21.-The 15th assembly of the Presbyterian Church of the United States convened at Emmanuel Presbyterian Church, at Tenth and Fi eora streets, this morning. Two ses sions were held during the day, the morn-ing being taken up with the annual sermon of the retiring moderator. Rev. Henry Van Dyks, of Princeton Univer-sity, and the entire afternoon to the election of a moderator for the ensuing year. Dr. Coyle, of Denver, was elected on the second ballot. In the evening the administration of the Lord's Supper occupled the time of the commissioners Van Dyke presiding.

Six hundred and seventy commissioners, representing both the conservative and liberal elements of the Presbyterian Church, occupied seats in the assembly. There is an unusually large number of young men among the delegates. It was explained by some that this is due to the fact that the "liberals" are in the ma-jority, and that in the campaign for commissionerships, creed revision cuts considerable figure. This brought a large imber of the younger element of the surch to the front. There are 12 colgeneral assembly.

Assembly Called to Order.

Moderator Van Dyke called the assem bly to order promptly at 11 o'clock. His sermon, which occupied about an hour In its nelivery, was a notable effort. His subject was "Religion in Relation to Human Happiness," and he urged his hearers to teach simplicity of religion instead of metaphysical doctrine. Im redistely after concluding his sermon r. Van Dyke declared the general as sembly formally opened. An adjourn-ment was promptly taken to 3 o'clock.

An active campaign had been carried on by the admirers of the several candi-dates for moderator during the past two days, and there was no cessation of the cays, and there was no cessation of the work of the lieutenants of Rev. Drs. Coyle, Roberts and Matser after the morning session. Dr. Coyle won, but not without a struggle. It required two ballots to elect him. On the first he fell 12 votes short, and on the second the count was not finished as Dr. Coyle had a majority before the roll call was coma majority before the roll call was compieted.

Orville Reed, of Monicinit, N. J., placed the name of Dr. Calvin W. Matser before the assembly. Rev. Dr. Van Dyke de-elded that accounding anesches was not the assembly. Rev. Dr. Van Dyke de-cided that seconding speeches was not necessary.

On the first hallot 669 votes were cast. Dr. Coyle received 312, just 12 short of election; Dr. Roberts, 220; Dr. Mateer, 16; Dr. Zenos, 21, and Dr. Schaff, 14. A second ballot was ordered, but before the beginning of the roll call vote Dr. Roberts withdrew from the contest. Pro-
