GREENGLASS IN HARD LUCK

Wallace Pitches Only Two Innings and Loses the Game to Frisco. SAN FRANCISCO, May 2.—Portland started off today's game with Wallace on the slab.

GIK-Edge Work of Browns.

While the story of the inside work of the Senators was mostly failure, that of the Browns, with the exception of two games by Reidy, was a success.

Real Beginning of Fun.

Runs were not a common commodity in Brownville until the fourth inning. A couple of singles and three free tickets to first created the first run over the rubber.

FIGHTERS ARE TRAINING GREAT DEMAND FOR POINTERS ON SMITH AND WALCOTT.

They Have Fought Before and Battle Was Bloody and Abounded in Fouls on Both Sides.

"Nothing but hard work" was the sign hung up at the training quarters of "fighters" Billy Smith and Joe Walcott yesterday. The rain and other attractions have kept the two fighters cooped up for a couple of days, but yesterday morning bright and early both citizens of Milwaukie were on the road, and both men did a ten-mile trip over the pike leading out towards the flat uncult.
