FORGED HIS SWEETHEART'S NAME Albany Farmer Gets a Girl's Money and Leaves for Parts Unknown.

ALBANY, Or., May 25.—(Special.)—Andrew Hansen, a young farmer, working for Henry Karstens, near Albany, forged the name of his sweetheart to a check Saturday, May 16, and left for parts un-known. The forgery has but just been discovered. Hansen was engaged to Miss Lillie Karstens, daughter of the man for whom he wah working, and they were to married this week. In anticipation of e marriage, Miss Kerstens lent Hansen oney to purchase an interest in a meat market in Albany, permitting him to sign her name to the check. After buying a half-interest in the market, paying for the same $200, Hansen drew $200 more out of the bank and sold back his interest in the market. He then made two deposits to the credit of Miss Karstens and drew two checks for small amounts. When he left he had $225 of Miss Karstens' money, and had left in her name $55. His reason for Hansen had known Miss Karstens in Nebraska, and his people there have been notified of the forgery.

NORTHWEST DEAD. Hause Hamilton.

ELGIN, Or., May 25.-(Special.)-Hanse Hamilton, an aged ploneer resident of this place, was discovered lying dead in his dooryard at 7 A. M. today by one of his neighbors. The indications are that he had gone out to cut some wood just be-fore bedtime last night and had been stricken with heart failure. Deceased was one of the early settlers of the county, and led the life of a recluse, although possessed of considerable means. A search of his humble home revealed two sacks of gold coin, one containing $500 and the other $500. He also had several thousand dollars on deposit with the local bank, and owned quite a little city property. He left a nephew living at Sprague, Wash., and a Rancher Knew More Than He Pretended About a Stolen Horse. COLFAX, Wash., May 25.—(Special.)-Bob" Hamilton, alias Hofer, was arrest ed at an early hour this morning at the ranch of Dan Parley, near Kamlac butte, on a charge of stealing a horse and sad-dle from G. M. Charles, a liveryman of Farmington, April 28. Hamilton was taken completely by surprise and submitted to arrest without a murmur, nor did he ask on what charge he was arrested. He had just risen from bed and gone to the barn when Deputy Sheriff Steward, who had driven to the ranch during the early hours of the morning, and was hidden near the barn, surprised him by calling on Hamilton was taken to the house of Dan Fariey to get his hat and coat, and Fariey attempted to prevent the officer from taking Hamilton from the place. Drawing his gun, the Deputy Sheriff told Farley to unlock the door and step aside, under penalty of being arrested or shot. Farley made no further resistance, but declared the prisoner innocent, and said: "I will swear he was here at my farm working for me when that horse was stolen." As the Deputy Sheriff had not told either Farley or Hamilton what crime was charged or Hamilton what crime was charged against the latter, this statement of Far-ley's is considered significant.

LOCKED UP IN BOISE JAIL,

Two Negroes Who Narrowly Escaped Lynching by Nampa Mob.

BOISE, Idaho, May 25.—The Governor's special train returned to this city at 3 o'clock this merning with James T. Quaries and Henry Williams, the two col-ored men who had such a narrow escape from lynching at the hands of a mob at Nampa shortly after midnight last night. The two negroes are now in the County Jail here.

It develops that the mob got into the jail and entered the first steel cage, but were unable to enter the second in which the prisoners were locked. The mob then determined to shoot the prisoners, and were trying to get a light when Marshai Liliard, Mayor Sutherland and a few others arrived. The small but determined band kept the mob off until the arrival of the Governor and Sheriff from Boise. The mob followed the party to the train.

but offered no resistance.

It has been determined by the Governor and the Prosecuting Attorney of Canyon County that the ringleaders of the mob shall be prosecuted.

John N. Grogan, the special officer who was shot during the melee at the ball game, was brought to the hospital here today. His condition is serious.

NAMPA, Idaho, May 25.—(Special.)— Notwithstanding the attempt to lynch the negro Quaries here last night, everything is quiet tonight.

OPEN TO SETTLEMENT.

Sixty Thousand Acres of Irrigated

Land in Idaho. SALT LAKE, May 25 .- General Manager Flier, of the Twin Falls Land & Water Company, announces that the State Land Board of Idaho has decided to throw open to settlement 60,000 acres of land under the company's irrigating canals, and that an official announcement to this effect will be made for public entry under the terms of the Carey act on and after July 1 next. The 60,000 acres are located along the Snake River, in Lincoln and Cassia Coun-ties, Idaho, and tracts not to exceed 100 acres each may be secured by settlers who will begin to secure irrigation water next

This is regarded as one of the biggest enterprises of the kind ever undertaken in the United States. There are two main canals in the company's system. One of these has a width of 80 feet, the other 26. The system, when completed, will com-prise nearly 1000 miles of canals and later-als, and will irrigate 270,000 acres.

Dean of Whitman College Accused of Breaking Her Own Rule.

WALLA WALLA, Wash. May 24.— (Special.)—The girls in Reynolds Hall, the girls dormitory, of Whitman College, held a kangaroo court last night and tried the dean of the hall. Several days ago the dean, who has charge of the girls, made a ruling that no girls should eat ice cream in any downtown ice-cream saloon with any young gentleman, either in the even-ing or in the daytime, unless accompanied ing or in the daytime, unless accompanied by a chaperone. There was a great deal of dissatisfaction among the young ladies over this restriction, but they obeyed it very well. Yesterday, however, two of the girls discovered the dean in an ice-cream parlor eating with a gentleman. The news spread rapidly among the girls, and, after a hasty meeting, a committee and, after a hasty meeting, a committee was appointed to act on the matter. This committee ordered a meeting of all the girls in the hall at 10 o'clock in the evening in the parlors of Reynolds Hall. At 10 o'clock, the close of study hour, the girls all assembled. They quickly organized a kangaroo court, electing a Judge, Prosecuting Attorney, Sheriff, etc. The dean was summoned before the court, and the Sheriff sent after her. She anneared the Sheriff sent after her. She appeared, and there followed a long discussion. She was tried and found guilty by a jury appointed from among her accusers. pointed from among her accusers. The Judge passed a pecular sentence, to the effect that the action of the dean in breaking her own law mullified her ice-cream decree, and the each girl who had refused an invitation to eat lee cream on account of this decree should immediately reconsider her answer and eat the same forthwith and that all other cities. should at once make appointments of the same nature. The dean is slient on the subject today, only saying that the mat-ter will be appealed to the faculty, and that in the meantime her former decree will be in full force and effect,
