

WAITING FOR THE GONG

JOE WALCOTT WILL FINISH TRAINING TODAY.

A Few Fast Rounds With Johnson Will Put the Black Demon in Trim—Smith is Resting.

One day more and Joe Walcott will have ceased hard work for his match with "Mysterious Billy" Smith, to take place at the Exposition building tomorrow night. The colored man is in condition for the bout, but a little more work won't hurt him, and so he will box a few fast rounds with Jack Johnson this afternoon, and then wait for the gong to ring.

Smith has already quit the strenuous life. He has been training more rigidly than Walcott, and at the suggestion of his trainer, he is to have a rest tomorrow night. If ever during late years the mysterious one was ready for a fight, it is at the present time. His eye is bright and his skin looks better than it has in fights now past.

Joe does not expect the fight will last over 10 rounds, and, naturally enough, he thinks he will be the man toward whom the referee will wave his hand. "Smith is a good fighter, but I have been going ahead while he has not been doing a thing," is the way Walcott sizes up the situation, and he has many who think the same way he does.

MULTNOMAH MEN AT WORK.

Track Athletes are Conscientious of Winning Decoration Day Meet. The Multnomah track team is confident of winning on Decoration day if some of the members do not fall them at the proper time.

This season's team is the strongest Multnomah has had in years. Among the members are a few of the standbys in the good old days. Although they are getting a little old they are still able to help the younger fellows out. The team is H. W. Kerrigan, one of the standbys in the club, who will enter all the jumps and perhaps the hurdles. Ed Murphy, another of the late-day athletes, but still a member of the team since '91, will enter the jumps and hurdles too. He may also run in one of the sprints. Jordan Zap, though new on the track team, is well known in club athletics. He will enter the one-half mile and discuss throw. He is in better shape than ever this year, and has been training conscientiously. Mellie, an old clubman and a graduate from Pacific University, the being his fifth year of track and field, is also in good shape. He will enter the hurdles, pole-vault and sprints.

Of the new men there are: Bollinger, Baumman, Oscar Kerrigan, Holcomb, "Trump" Sladen, Inglatz, Peterson, Gilbert, Blanchard, Cooke, Dement, Ronald Johnson, Bert Johnson, Chalmer and Downs. Bollinger is good for the one-half mile, 40 rods and relay. As he is not in very good condition the club will not expect very much from him. Oscar Kerrigan is good for the two hurdles and one of the sprints. Holcomb is a new man, an unknown quantity. Sladen is recently from John Hopkins and is especially good in the 100-yard dash. Inglatz is an old waddy man, as yet unknown quantity. Blanchard is an Amherst athlete, who has won fame on track and field and will be there for a few points. Cooke is the winner of last year's 100-yard dash. As he is stronger than last year, he may be able to break his record. R. Johnson is a fast man and will win one or two points for the club. Downs is a new man and has a splendid chance in the middle distance. Two of the old track men not yet mentioned are W. Honeyman and G. Gammie, both of the old school, who will win one or two points on Decoration day. Honeyman is not quite in the shape expected, but will make some of the younger fellows hustle to beat him.

CALIFORNIA OARSMEN COME

In Final Training for Race With Portland Rowing Club. The varsity crew of the University of California arrived on the steamer Columbia Monday evening and took its trial spin on the smooth waters of the Willamette yesterday.

Edward J. Grindley, who pulls the bow oar, is the captain and manager of the crew. In the other seats of the shell are: Sumner J. Smith, No. 2; William J. Dandy, No. 3; Emerson B. Harley, stroke. The crew is to race with the crew of the Portland Rowing Club in the Decoration day regatta. This is the first time in the history of the university that a crew has left Berkeley to compete with the crew of another college or club, and the three men under Captain Grindley feel the responsibility of making an honorable showing for the blue and gold. The captain, on his part, feels that a great weight is resting upon his shoulders.

The California oarsmen immediately made themselves known to the local rowing fraternity, and were given all the privileges of the clubhouse. Rowing among the students of the Berkeley University has only become popular within the past year. The crew which has come for five years has only practiced together for five weeks. The crew members have rowed together for some time. This Spring they defeated the Dolphin crew of San Francisco by seven lengths. After testing their powers against the oarsmen of the Portland Rowing Club, the college boys will go to Seattle, where they will row the crew of the University of Washington June 2.

TERRY MCGOVERN IS ILL.

He Asks for a Postponement of the Fight Set for May 30. NEW YORK, May 26.—Terry McGovern will not be in condition to fight a battle at Fort Erie on Memorial Day, and Sam Harris, his manager, has asked for a two weeks' postponement.

McGovern, who has been training here, has been ailing since Friday. He did not work Saturday or Sunday. Feeling better yesterday, he went out for a spin. After going a few miles he broke down completely, and was scarcely able to get back to his quarters. A physician said McGovern was suffering from malaria, and would have to stop training. Manager Harris says he can send him to Mount Clemens, and get him in condition to fight two weeks after next Saturday, if he can get the match put off until that time.

WILL CLIMB OUT OF CELLAR.

Greenengages Return From California Not Discouraged by Bad Luck.

The Greenengages are at home again. They will stay at home for the next three weeks, and, what's more, will pull out of last place and break the hoodoo which has been following them thus far in the season. Manager Grim and his hunky lads arrived from Frisco yesterday morning and will open for a series of five games with Tacoma this afternoon.

The California trip was not exactly a triumphant pilgrimage. In fact, the team has been up against a combination of hard luck and robber umpires ever since it left. It was ruthlessly despoiled by a brigand at Frisco and his brother-in-crime at Los Angeles. At least five close games in both cities were stolen bodily, apparently on the assumption that the tallenders have no rights which umpires are bound to respect. In addition to these calamities, McCarthy is laid up at his home in Frisco with a sprained knee and will be out of the game for some time. Palmer, who has been doing the utility stunt and playing second at intervals, has been put in at short and has done very creditable work. Quick was suspended for five days at Los Angeles for arguing with the umpire, but the statute of limitations has run and he will be in the box in today's game. Miller is sick and Wallace has a bum back. Farrott has shaved off his fierce Corsair mustache and claims that his batting eye has been founched thereby and McGill, the much-touted southpaw from Louisville, whom Grim signed a month ago, has apparently gotten side-tracked by the way and has failed to put in his appearance.

In spite of all these untoward things, the survivors are full of vim and are determined to fight their way out of the dark chute, so there is every reason to believe that Tacoma will get a run for her money in the coming string of games. That aggregation has signed St. Vrain, who pitched for Tacoma two seasons ago, and he is expected to arrive from Chicago in time to pass up the pillow in Sunday's game.

HELENA, Mont., May 26.—Walter Slagle pitched against his old-time teammates this afternoon, and by some unfortunate errors on the part of the Senators won his game. Thompson pitched splendid ball, but received rotten support.
