It was Tacks Parrott, chief artist for the Greenegays, aided by Gunners Donahue and Hanley, who captured the series from Tacoma by winning yesterday afternoon's game on the East Side.

Both at the bat and in fielding, Parrott played an all-star role. Six chances, all more or less on the foot order, came his way while the matinee was in progress.

Tacks Fall on Wallace. The Tigers opened the engagement, and they fell upon Wally Wallace as fondly as an Irish copper would on a bunch of negro craps.

Two more hits were made off him, and then he kept on as magnolia blossoms in the Klondike. In the fourth inning he made a slight mistake in walking Hutchison.

LACK OF TRAINED ATHLETES IS THE MAIN CAUSE.

Few Good Men Made Contest With 'Varsity Close, but Interest Has Slightly Declined.

The Vancouver Maroons took the Portland Monograms into camp yesterday at Vancouver, and by defeating them took first place in the Interstate League.
