PRICES RUN FROM 10 TO 14 CENTS

Out of 150,000 Pounds Offered, All but 30,000 Pounds Are Sold-Local Prospects Are Prices-Local Produce Outlook.

THE DALLES, June 5.—(Special)—The first wool of the season at the Dalles, Oregon, was sold today at 10 cents per pound, with a high of 14 cents for the remainder of the crop.

FROST EFFECTS IN FRANCE

Destruction of the Prune Crop Said to be Complete.

Writing from Bordeaux under a late date, United States Press Tourist, which is quoted here, says that the frost effects in France are reported to be practically complete, and as follows: A poor crop of last year, the country is without any reserve supplies except what is left of last season's imports.

OUTLOOK IN WASCO COUNTY

Wheat Fields Show Bad Effect of Cold Spring and Lack of Rain. THE DALLES, Ore., June 5.—(Special)—The rain outlook in Wasco County is not at all promising.

HOP PROSPECTS AND MARKET

Weather More Favorable for Growing Crop-No Trading. The market continues favorable for hops in the state and prospects are improved.

Success of Coast Newtows

Virginia growers claim that the success of Oregon and California Newtows over Virginia Altameras is due to the superiority in packing of the Western apples.

PORTLAND MARKETS

Grain, Flour, Feed, Etc. The wheat markets are dull, with small offerings and no export inquiry.

Vegetable, Fruit, Etc.

The firmness in berries has resulted in an advance of 50 cents per box. The crop of strawberries is short and the warm weather in the East has greatly stimulated the demand.

VALLEY WOOLGROWERS

The pool of the Willamette Valley Woolgrowers' Union is closed for this season. No wool will be taken into the pool after this date.

FIELD DAY FOR BEARS

STOCK PRICES DEPRESSED UNTIL THE CLOSING HOUR.

Heavy Liquidation Forced by Extensive Calling of Loans-Advance in Amalgamated Copper.

NEW YORK, June 5.—The bears had a field day on the stock exchange today and the professional operators sold down with such enthusiasm that they found themselves somewhat over extended toward the close and had something of a scramble to get back stocks to cover their shorts.

Money, Exchange, Etc.

NEW YORK, June 5.—Money on call ruled firmer, but closed steady, ranging from 2 1/2 to 3 per cent.
