Not manufactured for a sale and we are GOING TO SELL EVERY WALKING SKIRT IN THIS STORE WITHOUT RESERVATION—ALL MUST GO! This sale will be one decisively establishing a new record for big value-giving. You positively never witnessed such a wholesale slaughter of prices in this section as we have inaugurated here THIS MORNING for this grand clearance sale, and 'twill certainly be a long time ere such a happening comes again in the walking skirt stock. We propose to distribute all of these great values among the ladies of Portland at a mere fraction of their real worth.

IN EXPLANATION OF THIS GREAT SLAUGHTER OF PRICES

We have only to say we are carrying out to the letter the policy of our business, and incidentally the cause of our great success—to make each season stand its own losses before any gain is figured. So now that the Spring sales are practically over, we welcome this loss with open arms for the next three days, in order to clear the decks for Fall action. This will be one of the most remarkable and stirring events of our MAMMOTH JUNE CLEAN-SWEEP SALE. Starting this morning at 8 o'clock we shall sell all this season's WALKING SKIRTS-every one in the store, without reserve-cheviots, Venetians, coverts, homespuns, basket weaves and every good skirt fabric known, in colors of black, navy, brown, gray and novelty mixtures, at following reductions:

His Message to King Ends Any Idea of Uprising.

EXPECT POWERS TO GIVE IN

Now Being Displayed-Reception to the New Ruler Will Be on

BELGRADE, June 17.—With the receipt of the Crar's telegram to King Peter, in the opinion of the best-informed persons, natives and foreignors, all possibility of un internal rising against the provisional government of Servia has passed. The dis-patch has so strengthened the hands of the conspirators that there is no chance winatever of opposition to them.

Nothing is now heard but talk of the approaching reception of the new King.

Large crowds are constantly gathering before the windows of shops on the main street of Belgrade, where, since the re-ceipt of the Czar's message, a large pho-tograph of the chiest military actors in the late drama have been displayed. The Skupshtina and Senate during the

Traces of the Slaughter. BELGRADE, June II .- The corresp ent of the Associated Press was today allowed to inspect the palace in which King Alexander and Queen Draga were murdered. The bedroom which is furnished in Empire style, remains in the same condi-

ing, led their guests to the different rooms, eargerly pointing out the bullet holes, dynamite marks and blood stains, and displaying the greatest solicitude that o trace of the slaughter should be over-Queen Draga's coatly gowns and lingerie were overhauled by the rough hands of the soldiers when the Associated Press correspondent was in her bedroom, and rude jests were made regarding the draw-erful of toys which it was suggested were intended for the "expected helr."

The nurderers entered the palace from the rear, where there is a large vestibule that looked as though it had been struck by a tornado. The heavy oak doers and massive and a fide when the control of the assassins are nassive side columns were shattered by dynamite and the doors through three rooms leading to the royal bedchamber were also forced in a similar manner. Fire had been started in two places in the

The officers who attended the correspondent showed the latter the bloodstained floor at one end of the room, where the king and queen fell, and the broken Vene-tian shutter at the window through which their bodies were thrown to the ground. A secret stairway leads through the floor to rooms in the southern end of the palace. By this staircase the hapless souple might have attempted to escape but they were unable to do so because the opening of this stairway was covered by a heavy chest. Escape in any even would have been impossible as the sol diers who had surrounded the palace were so determined to kill the king an queen that they had even placed cannot in front of the salace and were prepared.

in front of the palace and were prepared to destroy the building in the event of falling to find their prey. Each of the three rooms between the vestibule and the bed chamber showed marks of the fragedy. Mirrors were shattered, pictures were shot through, furniture broken, there were built holes in the doors and in the oil portraits of the king which were in every room, and

Contrary to the general understanding but little effort has been made to rene vate the apartments except the carpen-ters were making two new doors to re-place those that had been blown to pieces at the time the conspirators forced their way into the rooms occupied by the king and queen. The royal apartments were simply and tastefully furnished, chiefly in Oriental style and presented a homelike appear-ance. The interior of the pulses might have been that of a country house belonging to a prosperous American.

The house of the king's adjutint, Lasar Petrovichs, which was the first attacked, is even a greater wreck than the royal apartments in the palace. The entrance was completely destroyed by dynamite. The adjutant escaped unburt but he was killed later in the vestibule of the palace. A large blood stain marked the spot where the officer died.

It was in a bare, whitewashed room on the communiter's quarters, adjoining the palace, that Queen Draga's two brothers were sitting on wooden chairs, which bear arks of the bullets.

The proceedings in the palace today showed the same callousness that has characterized the actions and demeanor of everybody in Belgrade since the trag-

MILITIA WILL TAKE HIM TO JAIL

Cowboys Employed by the Accused Refuse to Answer Any Questions About the Murder of the Berrys-One Is Imprisoned.

ST. FRANCIS, Kas., June 17.-Chauncey Dewey, Clyde Wilson and W. J. McBride, charged with the murder of members of the Berry family two weeks ago, were today bound over to the next session of the District Court without ball. They will be taken early tomorrow morning to Goodland, where they will swait their trial. They will be escorted across the country to Goodland by the Osborne Militia Company, which has been guarding them through the time since their arrest. Sheriff McCullough thinks he can protect his prisoners, if the militia helps him take them to jail at Goodland, in spite of the threats made by the settlers.

At the conclusion of the evidence given by the State this afternoon, the attorney for the Deweys announced that the defense would not present any evidence, fearing that their cause might be injured. Justice Hail then ordered the men to Justice Hall then ordered the men to be committed to jail at Goodland. Their trial will be held early in the Fall. Inter-est was manifested in the trial all day, because of the persistent refusal of the cowboys on the Dewey ranch to answer any of the questions put to them. War-rants are out for most of the men called as witnesses by the State from the Dewey as witnesses by the State from the Dewey ranch. Ben Slade, a Dewey cowboy, became angry under the questioning of attorney-General Coleman, and intim-nted that it would not be good for the attorney to question him further,

FEAR OF FEUDISTS IS GREATER Kentuckians Know Troops Will Cease With Close of Murder Trial,

JACKSON, Ky., June 17 .- Arguments in the trial of Jett and White proceeded today. The most sanguine predict noth-ing more than a disagreement, while others anticipate acquittal. Under these conditions the reign of terror continues. Following the action of the grand jury yesterday in releasing those held for arson and the alleged attempt last night to kill those who testified in the arson cases, there is increased anxiety as to what may happen to other witnesses in the murder cases after the trial closes.

The concluding argument of the defense was made tonight by Benjamin Golden, who spoke for hours in defense of the prisoners. Commonwealth's Attorney prisoners. Commonwealth's Attorney Byrd will make the closing argument for the prosecution tomorrow, after which the case will go to the jury.

CAPITAL PLANS SECRET FIGHT.

National Employers' Organization Will Be Hard on Strikers. CHICAGO, June 17.—A dispatch to the Record-Herald from Indianapolis says: David M. Parry, president of the National Manufacturers' Association, commenting on the proposed organization of a company to insure employers against strikes, says the company will undoubtedly be formed. He said it would necessarily be a mutual company, and that the membership would be kept secret, only the bership would be kept secret, only the officers being known.

"Organized labor will never know," he said, "when it orders a strike, whether it said, "when it orders a strike, whether it is really fighting combined capital or merely making an onslaught on an individual. The object of the company will be to protect its policy holders from losses resulting from strikes, and also to protect independent workmen. The company will have a legal department and will prosecute any man who attempts any coercion or commits any violation of the law."

Union Label on Montana Books,

HELENA, Mont., June 17 .- The American Book Company, through its represen-tative, Frank A.
