In brief, the note declares that it is incumbent upon King Peter to avenge the assassination of King Alexander and Queen Draga, and expresses the enviction that he will know how to punish the regicides, whose misdeeds should not be visited on the entire Servian nation or army. The note adds that it would be dangerous to the tranquility of Servin to leave the crime unpunished. On this subject the note says:

"The imperial government, while hatiing the election of the new monarch scion of a giorious dynasty, and wishing nil success to the supreme head of the Servian people, which is nilled to Russia by ties of religion, can nevertheless not refrain from expressing the confident hope that King Peter will be able to give evidence of his sense of justice and firmness of will by adopting measures at the steet to investigate the abominable deed that has been committed and mete out rigorous punishment to those traitorous criminals who have stained themselves with the infamy attaching to reg-Of course, the entire Bervian nation or army cannot be held responsible for the crime which revolts pul lic conscience, yet it would be dangerous to Servin's internal peace not to exact expintion for the revolution carried out with violence by the military. Late today a lendet giving the text of Emperor Francis Joseph's telegram to King Peter was circulated, but the strictures were so blurred in the translation that they were almost incomprehensible. The telegram, however, was otherwise so sympathetic that it was accepted as being eminently satisfactory.

The cruiser interference with its rights. The cruiser Geliveston, at Richmond, it is stated, will be launched when ready. Secretary Moody is not at all disposed to act hastily regarding the Galveston, but indefinite delay upon the construction of that vessel, in the event of an international amergency, might prove a grave matter, and the department therefore is bound to proceed with the cork as resulting a nonproceed with the work as rapidly as pos-

Becretary Moody was informed tonight of the action of the Richmond court re-straining the Government from further work on the Galveston, but declined to talk on the subject until after conferences tomorrow with the President and Attor-ney General Knox Attorney General ney-General Knox. Attorney-General Knox was unwilling to be quoted until his opinion, rendered to the President as to the jurisdiction of the Government over the Galveston, had been made pubifc. It can be etated, however, that the Attorney-General recognizes as eminently well taken the contention advanced by Rear-Admiral Bowles, Chief of the Bureau of Construction and Repair, that no court has the right to interfere with the work on a war vessel, and that the Government would be warranted in calling Federal troops to protect its agents engaged in such work.

Instructions have been sent Lieutenant Theiss and Naval Constructor Grosdeck, in charge of the work on the Galveston, to proceed with all possible dispatch in the effort to get the ship ready for launching on Monday. When the Galveston shall be kunched, a gunboat will probably be sent to accompany her to Norfolk. It is not excepted that the department will have to resort to a show of naval or military force to execute its orders.

WASHINGTON, June 18.—The Federal Grand Jury, which has been investigating postal affairs, is expected to bring in five indictments tomorrow against persons in-volved, but may not report until Mon-day. Assistant District Attorney Taggart, who has the cases in charge for the Government, was at his office earlier than usual this morning, and was busily engaged in going over the indictments. He donied himself to all callers. Although every effort has been made to keep the public in ignorance of the action to be taken until the papers were ready for presentation by the Grand Jury, it is presentation by the Grand Jury, it is learned on unquestioned authority that the jury has voted to return indictments against August W. Machen, Diller B. Groff, Samuel A. Groff, George E. Lorenz and Mrs. Lorenz, the two latter being residents of Toledo, O. The specific charge, it is understood, will be conspiracy to defraud the Government.

The fact that new indictments would be returned against Machen and the Groff.

At the time of the arest, stories were in circulation that there was a go-between, but the information at hand then was not conclusive enough to establish the identity of this particular

JURY IN FEUD HANGS

Kentucky Assassins Are Confident of Acquittal.

REIGH OF TERROR ST.LL EXISTS

Commonwealth's Attorney Severely Denounces the Murderers, but His Act Will Cause Him to More-Governor May Take It Up.

JACKSON, Ky., June 18 -- As expected here, the jury in the case of Curtis Jett and Thomas White, charged with murderand Thomas White, charged with murdering J. B. Marcum, has been unable to agree upon a verdict. The case has been in the hands of the jury all afternoon, and tonight it is stated that at least two jurces are helding out for conviction, while others are divided, most of them favoring acquittal. The jurors went to bed early, and there will be no report before tomorrow.

During this auspense there has been intense anxiety about the Courthouse and throughout the town, in discussing what might follow either a verdiet of guilty of of acquittal or of a compromise on limprisonment, but the indications are that the jury will finally report that it has disagreed and sak to be discharged. It is said that in that event there will be no such probability of bloodshed and further acts of arson as there would be in the event of conviction; that there will be a general cooks of members of the Cardwell-Cockrell faction, the widows and orwell-Cockrell faction, the widows and orwell-tockrell faction, the whows and de-phans of victims and others, and that the dominant faction will be left without for-midable opposition in holding the town as well as the county offices hereafter. Prosecution W. Not Stop.

It is not expected that the prosecution for the murder of Marcum and others will stop with this jury. Although the court has been in session some weeks at great expense to the county and also to the common wealth, it is believed that Inspector Hines will make such a report to the Governor as to secure other trials under different conditions. It is remarked that the general exodus that is expected will take away many of those who might otherwise be depended on an witnesses
