HELENA, Mont., June 28.—(Special.)—In a ten-inning game, fraught with numerous surprises, Helena today, by a score of 6 to 5, defeated Portland in the final game of the series.

The game was a fast, clean contest. In the ninth inning, with the score 4 to 5 in favor of Helena, Thompson filled the bases with two out. At this time something went wrong with Carich's glove and he stepped out of his position to fix it, without asking Mahaffey to call time. Thompson was also off his guard and Hanley executed a daring steal of the plate, tying the score. Just before Hanley reached home, Thompson saw him and threw to Carich, but Carich did not see the ball, which went by him. Fisher, seeing this, also started home, but Thompson got the ball and Fisher was called out at the plate on a very close decision.

In the tenth inning Thompson won his own game. With two out, the Helena pitcher hit for two runs, Nagle then duplicated the performance and Thompson came home with the winning run. Portland scored in the third inning on Bradley's three-bagger, followed by a wild pitch. In the sixth Deisel and Parrott singled and were batted around the circuit. In the seventh Shea singled, went to third on Kelly's failure to cover second base to catch Carich's throw, and came home on Bradley's single.

Helena scored in the second inning on Frary's three-bagger and a throw in. In the sixth and seventh innings Carich drew a pass, stealing second and third, and scoring on Howitt's single. In the seventh the locals made two runs, Nagle putting the ball into the right corner of the field for four bases, followed by a double by Peoples and a single by Carich, Peoples scoring on Carich's hit.

In the eighth Putnam opened with a single, was sacrificed to second and came home on Nagle's hit.

TACOMA, June 28.—(Special.)—The crowd that ever saw a ball game in the Tacoma grounds in the history of the game in this city, turned out today to see the Tigers overwhelmingly defeated. Elmer Strickland was the star of the game, kept the hits well scattered, while his team-mates played on their toes every minute. Baker retired in the second inning in favor of Loucky, who received ragged support, five runs scoring in the sixth with but one lonely single. Ground rules were responsible for numerous extra bases. Schillers Win by 10 to 2 From Disorganized Team.
OREGON CITY, June 28.—(Special.)—Oregon City lost to Schillers, of Portland, this afternoon in another game in the Interstate League. The score was 10 to 2 in favor of the visitors. Three hundred people witnessed the game at Cushman Park. A bunch of costly errors in the first three innings, the result of a disorganized team, was responsible for an easy victory for the locals. Letto, as usual, pitched clever game for the locals, but did not have the support that was necessary to cut off runs. Emerick and Foley, of the Sunnyside team, played with Oregon City today, and were effective in their respective positions at shortstop and second base. Gains and Gains formed the battery for the Schillers and gave the Falls City players but five hits in the game. Letto and Kreitz made the local battery.

WASHINGTON FOOTBALL PROMISES.

Corvallis and Eugene on the List—Game With Multnomah.

UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON, Seattle, June 28.—(Special.)—The athletes of the University of Washington are rejoicing over the possibility of soon having a football team. The gridiron will undoubtedly be covered with dirt and leveled so that the "varsity" will not be in any danger of losing some of her best men in the practice games on account of a story told by Fred McGovern, last year's plucky football captain, sprained his ankle early in the season last fall through the poor condition of the grounds, and the "U" lost one of her best men for all the intercollegiate games.

The work on the athletic field will likely not begin until August 1, when it will be decided which of two plans are to be followed. It is the hope of the collegians that the regents will consider it advisable to put in a new athletic track and a baseball diamond, as well as repairing the grounds. It is also thought that a post-season game will be played against the Multnomah football team, but the collegians have always been on friendly terms with the clubmen of Portland, and while the university is not favorably inclined towards anything but college contests, nevertheless Multnomah will likely be on Washington's schedule.

CRUISE UP COLUMBIA.

Oregon Yacht Club Plans Delightful Celebration of the Fourth.
Twelve of the Oregon Yacht Club yachts will start on a two day cruise down the Willamette and up the Columbia River on Friday. About 30 members of the club and their friends will embark on the voyage to celebrate the Fourth on the Columbia.

The yachts will leave the club house at 7:30 o'clock on Friday evening, and will drop down the Willamette to the mouth of the river, where camp will be made and the night passed on Nigger Tom.

If the weather is favorable, a number of ladies will brave the hardships of the cruise and pay for their transportation with their services in preparing supper in camp. Just where the second night's camp will be made will depend upon the wind and the progress of the fleet.

An abundance of fireworks will make up a part of the fun, and the yachtsmen will enjoy a celebration all their own on Saturday evening. Bonfires will blaze in camp in the evenings, and a bounteous feast of refreshments will be served around the fires.

The skippers expect to go up the Columbia at least as far as Washoulog before starting on the home trip. The yachtsmen will be met at the mouth of the Willamette on Sunday evening to tow the boats and crews to their harbor at the Yacht Club boathouse. The past week in preparation for the voyage, and are bidding good-bye to relatives and friends.

SAN FRANCISCO, 28.—(Special.)—Hogg tried it twice today and failed each time. The speedy pitcher was not quite satisfied with the morning results, when Lohman jammed a double into left field in the ninth and sent Gorton home with the winning run. At his own request Captain Vigneux sent Hogg to the slab again at Recreation Park with no better results. He was not found very extensively, but had the keen displeasure of seeing two of his three gifts turn into runs when succeeded by some scattered hits.

The climax was sensational enough to warm the heart of the gallery gods. Portland had run three men around the circle early in the game, and Oakland's recruits did the rush act for three in the fourth. Flawless fielding then brought the assaults to a full stop until the last half of the eighth, when Lohman, the first man to face Hogg, went home by first base, and Hogg, who was to first by patience, O'Hara, fled out to Hurlbut, but Brashear and Murdoch produced sharp hits and there by loaded the pillows. Baxter was urged to do something for his section of the State. He was too anxious, and Hogg waited for his foul fly.

Kruger, who had not made a hit during the series, let one go by and missed the next. Lohman wanted runs so badly that he did an unusual stunt of substituting Graham at this juncture, and the first ball pitched was driven far into the outfield for two bases, and three tallies rushed over.

In the morning game at Oakland a deadly base on balls turned a tie into an Oakland victory. The score:

LOS ANGELES, Cal., June 28.—After winning the game by batting Whalen all over the field in the first three innings, Los Angeles lost in the seventh, when Hall went to pieces, and the visitors scored the winning run. The game was a close one, but the home team was too late, as Jimmy the Whale was invincible after the third. The two teams broke even on the series, and the Seraphs will have to fight for first place next week against Fisher's
