

QUIET SEASONS ON

Jobs Feel Effect of Mid-summer Dullness.

EXCEPT IN GREEN PRODUCE

Hop Market Nervous With Weaker Underdone-Wool More Active and Steady-Wheat Trade Is Quiet.

Cereals-Wheat, quiet, steady; oats, and barley, dull, weak; flour, active, firm.

The season of midsummer dullness is approaching and for the next two months, most of the jobbing lines will be quieter.

Wheat-The country is almost bare of old wheat, and not much business is doing.

Very few hours of sunshine and plenty of rain during the week have not been conducive to the English wheat crop, which is decidedly backward.

Washington Crop Report. The Washington weekly crop report says in part:

In the western counties the precipitation, although beneficial to most crops, was more than needed, and damaged clover and grass by lodging them, as well as delaying cutting.

Wheat-The price of hops has dropped to 15 cents per pound, and only a few bales are wanted at that figure.

Trade it is said that quotations ruling in the market are still above a parity with values in Eastern markets.

The market has been decidedly more active the past week, due largely to the free selling of old Montana and Idaho wools, some sales of new Wyoming wools and a liberal transaction in domestic fleeces, notably wools of medium and quarter-horn grades.

Oregon wools in this market have shown practically no activity. Advice from Oregon, as we have already shown, indicates that the wool clip has improved with comparative slowness, the buyers being unwilling to come up to the ideas of holders.

The Reporter quotes Oregon wools at Eastern market as follows: Eastern Oregon, 140¢; Eastern Oregon choice clothing, 140¢; Eastern Oregon average, 130¢; Eastern Oregon heavy, 120¢; Valley Oregon, No. 1, 120¢; No. 2, 110¢; No. 3, 100¢; do lambs, 100¢.

PRODUCE-The local market is plentifully supplied with all kinds of fruit now in season. Early fruit from California are arriving in more or less satisfactory condition.
