Sheepmen and Cattlemen of Eastern Oregon Angry.

THREAT OF DEATH IS MADE

but Both Parties Conceal Results-Sheepmen Carry Arms and Are Ready to Fight.

BAKER CITY, Or., July 20 - (Special.)-A range war appears to be brewing in Grant, Malheur and Harney Counties. No serious trouble is anticipated in this county. Both sides are reticent, and it is impossible to get any information in advance of the trouble.

The cattlemen have posted notices in certain localities threatening death to sheepmen, but no hostilities have broken out yet. Several encounters have actually taken place in remote districts, but no one has been killed unless when encounters resuit fatally both sides hide the facts.

A sheepman of Idaho who has rented 60,-000 acres of land in Malheur and Grant Counties says all is serene in his district, but it is known that he has received threatening letters. The sheepmen are armed and will stand only so much.

WAR FEELING GROWS. Japanese Statesman Urges Strong Mensures Against Russia.

VICTORIA, B. C., July 20.-The steamer Indrasamaha, which arrived tonight, brought news that the war feeling in Japan was stronger than ever when the steamer sailed, as a result of the alleged secret concessions made by the Chinese government to Russia. The increasing excitement of Japanese papers is also accentuated by the change of attitude of Prince Ching, who is said to have gone over completely to the Russian side.

The Kobe Chronicle says Admiral Hitaka, chief commander of the Japanese standing squadron, has addressed a memorial to the naval staff department, suggesting the advisability of organizing the Japan sea squadron, and also the necessity of formulating a plan of defense and general operation from the naval standpoint. Count Okauma, a local Japanese states man, in an interview on the situation, said Japan should question Russia, and ask an explanation of her arbitrary conduct in Corea and Manchuria, and, should the reply be unsatisfactory, a strong pro-test should be sent and the question at the same time submitted to the other powers. In taking such a step, Japan must be prepared to resort to arms, if necessary. At present Japan was superior to Russia in armaments in the far East, and Japan's cause was a right one. However imprudent Russia might be, she would not venture going to war and risk offending all the other powers, and he be-lieved the protest would be successful. Colonel Brown and Edward Koukel, Americans, have been sentenced to three years' imprisonment by United States Consul Ragdale at Tien Tain for robbery with violence. They held up Eugene Ver-ner, a Frenchman, at Pekin.

NO AGREEMENT WITH HAY

Count Cassini, the Russian Ambassador to he United States, who is here spending part of his leave of absence. He said; "It is not correct, as cabled, that I arranged with Secretary Hay before my departure the question of open ports in Manchurja. It is true that Mr. Hay called on me Jupe 26, but it was a friendly visit and entirely unofficial. The Manchurian ports were mentioned during our conver-sation but no definite arrangements were completed.

'The conversation was quite cordial and friendly, but it did not go beyond that. I expect, however, that a mutually satisfactory understanding regarding 3 churian questions will eventually eached between the two governments. But I repeat no such arrangements have been made by me. What has been done by the Charge since my departure 14 days ago

Regarding the Isarelite petition, the United States Government already knew that such a petition would not be re-ceived. No such petition would be received by any independent state. The United States, first of all, would not consent to any foreign interference in its domestic affairs. Beyond this, I do not know anything about the matter. My re-lations with the United States have always been pleasant during my stay in Washington. My present absence is due to the fact that I am taking a much-needed holiday. I did not see the President before my departure, as he was absent from Washington. I saw Mr. Hay, but our interview was not official; it was ex-tremely pleasant.

"I expect to return to my post as soon as my leave expires, which will be in Count Cassini will remain here ten days longer, and then he will go to St. Pe tersburg.

CAN'T LIBEL A TOWN.

No Redress Agulust General Grant for Criticism of Brackettville,

WASHINGTON, July 20. - Several months ago, in reviewing the court-mar-tial sentence of a soldier, General Fred D. Grant made some severe reflections on the town of Brackettville, Tex., which called forth complaints, one letter being addressed to the President. The question was referred to the War Department, and Judge Advocate-General Davis rendered an opinion, in which he says: "It would appear that no penal action would lie for a publication affecting the town of Brackettville. If any individual resident of that place believes his reputation has been injured as a consequence of the publication which has been made the subject of complaint, he has his rem-edy in an action at law."

Open Ports in Manchuria. WASHINGTON, July 20 .- In a conver sation at the Russian Embassy on the af-ternoon of June 28 with the Associated Press, Count Cassini referred to the call of Secretary Hay on the day previous, and expressed his gratification at its re-sults. The Ambassador, in reply to the question as to whether Manchuria was der discussion during the call, replied assured Mr. Hay that Russia would ex-ecute to the letter her pledges in Man-churia, and at the proper time would concede certain ports.

The Ambassador then recalled the conversation between himself and the Secretary, pointing out that, while no agree-ment had been reached as to which ports should be opened, the broad understanding was arrived at that Russia should give to the United States what she had asked for. To this it was said Mr. Hay expressed his satisfaction, and, as he was leaving. Count Cassini said that he haped an announcement to the world of exact ports which would be opened

It is believed here that the point the Ambassador is endeavoring to make is that the general understanding reached between himself and Secretary Hay PARIS, July 20.—A representative of the June 28 did not specify the ports to be Associated Press had an interview with opened, which at that time had not been decided upon. Moreover, when the Ambassador said that no definite agreement had been reached, it is assumed that he refers to the fact that no written exchange passed between Secretary Hay and himself at that time.

Beavers Asks for Early Hearing, but Government Denies it.

NEW YORK, July 20 .- Counsel for George W. Beavers, formerly of the Post-office Department, against whom two indictments have been found, made a statement today that he had communicated with District Attorney Youngs offering to produce Mr. Beavers before a United States Commissioner for a preliminary hearing, but that Colonel Youngs did not care to accept that offer. The statement characterized the course of the District Attorney as irregular and unfair, asmuch as it denies himself (Beavers) the opportunity of a preliminary hearing and precludes him from ascertaining anything of the nature of the charge against him prior to the date of his trial."

forces with those of candidates having better chances. There are a half dozen at least who are entering the conclave with that the foreign cardinals will ultimately give the casting vote, as, living far away from Rome where different factions form, and flourish, they will be more impartial, especially as it is admitted by all that the new pope will be chosen from among the Italian candidates,

From a most reliable source the Assoclated Press representative learns that the considerable talk which is going the rounds to the effect that certain foreign powers might exert the right of veto in the conclave is unfounded. What the powers desire is not that the new pope should be friendly to any particular power, but that he should conduct the affairs of the papacy in a heaceful, equitable, religious manner without stirring up international strife.

The most prominent candidates for the succession are Cardinals Gotti, Oreglia, Aghaidi, Serafino Vannuteili, Capcelatro, Sarto, Rampolla, Dipietro, Svampa, Fer-reri, Satolli and Richelmi.

POPE-REGENT IN CHARGE, Cardinal Oreglia Presents Strong

Contrast to Gracions Leo. ROME, July 20.-While the guards and watching monks were being stationed around the dead pope events of moment-ous importance to Catholic Christendom were occurring. The death of Pope Leo meant the passing of the supreme power into the hands of the Sacred College of Cardinals as its temporary custodian during the interregnum.

The perfect administrative machinery of the church provided against the slightest interruption of the governing authority. As the senior member of the Sacred Col lege, Cardinal Oreglia, to whom the pope today solemnly confided the interests of the church, has now become the exponent of the cardinals until Pope Leo's success or has been elected. This has brought forth Cardinal Oreglia as the striking personality of the hour.

The cardinal is the exact antithesis of Pope Leo, having none of the late pontiff's sympathy and benevolent characteristics. He comes from a noble Piedmontese stock and his nobility is shown in his haughty and austere bearing. He is not popular among his colleagues or the Romans, and his brusque manner has carned him the title of "the Pledmontese bear." He is tall and robust and his 74 years are shown by the whiteness of his hair. His face has the tawny hue of, old parchment and is deeply lined. Despite his austerity, the cardinal's learning and plety are universally recognized. This is the man who for the time being is practically pope. It was he who issued the orders to clear the Vatican of intruders and brought tranquillity out of the confusion immediately following Pope Leo's death.

CHANGE IN ALL DEPARTMENTS. High Officials Will Retire-Questions

Affected by Action of Conclave. ROME, July 30 .- The death of the pope brings about a widespread change in all administrative departments of the church and chiefly influences questions of church policy. The change within the Vatican affects practically all the officials from the highest to the lowest. Cardinal-Rampolla retires from the post of secretary of state, where he exercised a strong in-uence owing to the physical infirmities of Leo. Other high officials are similarly affected. They will, however, continue to exercise their functions until the new pope is ejected, when he will designate his own secretary of state and other officials to carry on the various important branches omplete change of apostolic authority. The propaganda alone remains intact. The chief international questions that may be affected by the death of the pope of religious orders in France, the change of the clergy in the new Spanish-American colonies, the successor of the late Cardinal Vaughan, and attendant questions connected with the administration of the church in England: Among Vatican officials, the Philippine question, involving transfer from the Spanish to the American hierarchy and the elimination of the friars, is regarded as one of the most important. The Philtopine policy had the hearty approval of Leo XIII, and there is no reason to believe that it will be changed

The relations between the Italian government and the Vatican continue to be serious problems. Although the temporal authority of the papacy terminated eight years before Leo XIII became pope, he steadfastly maintained the principle of temporal power, and the question of the relations of the government and the Vatican remains one of the highest impor-

RAMPOLLA UNDER FIRE. His Assumption of New Power Condemned by Another Cardinal, PARIS, July 20.—The exceptional character of the action of the pope, according to the dispatches from Rome, in delegating part of his powers to Car-dinal Rampolla, attracted considerable at-tention in Paris and was strongly emphasized by an unnamed but well-informed cardinal, a non-resident of Rome, in an interview published by the Eclair, as fol-"His (the pope's) body, which still breathes, is on earth, but his powerful intelligence has departed forever. Yesterday Rampolla announced that most extensive powers had been conferred upon him. By whom? The Sacred College? It has no power while the pontiff breathes. The pope alone is capable of delegating such powers, but in order to do so he must be in a position to act with intelligence, and Dr. Rossoni, an eminent physician, bears witness to the fact that Pope Leo is adorable, but his speech is

"What are the powers conferred on Rampolla? They are evidently spiritual. It is not known how far they extend. The eminent secretary of state is about to renew his entourage by cutting down the inconvenient trees and planting insignificant bushes in their place. To assume such a responsibility, to risk such a dan-ger, is an act of courageous devotion to the church, because if the new plenipotentiary does not come to an understand-ing with the camerlingo, all the plantation will be torn up on the morrow of the pope's death. History furnishes no precedent for the delegation of powers in articulo mortis."

OREGLIA MAKES READY.

Arrived at Vatican With All Paraphernalia to Take Command. ROME, July 20 .- As the morning wore

ROME, July 20.—As the morning wore on, but still early, Cardinal Oregila, the dean of the Sacred College, who always has shown great eagerness to assume command, who, however, cannot do so until Pope Leo is actually dead, arrived with considerable paraphernalla, indicating that he had come to stay, ordering his carriage to go home and not return. After him came other princes of the church, all with grave, preoccupied faces. church, all with grave, preoccupied faces, who returned each other's greetings with such expressions as "I have not slept at all." One even was heard to say, "I think we are at the end." "Or the bedinal who spoke, the latter being considered very likely to be the next pope. Eight cardinals, an unusual number for such an hour, had by this time gathered, and they went anxiously forward, foi-lowed at a respectable distance by the others present. When the bulletin an-

FRANCE WILL TAKE A HAND.

Foreign Minister Will Consult the French Cardinals Before Conclave. PARIS, July 20.—The papal nuncio in Paris was not officially advised of Pope Leo's death until 8:45 P. M., but the flag. half-masted, was displayed at 5 o'clock. Minister Delcasse called at the nunciature and President Loubet sent his aid-decamp to express condolence. Throughout the evening the Ministers, Diplomats and prominent members of the aristocracy walked to the nunciature to sign the reg

Germany Has No Candidate,

BERLIN, July 20.-The news of the death of the pope, being expected for some days, caused no surprise. Emperor William during his trip to Norway had been getting frequent bulletins about the pontiff's condition. While no pope could possibly have been more acceptable to Germany than the deceased pontiff, government circles expect no changes in the relations with the Vatican. Germany has no candidates for the holy chair and will not even indicate a preference.

Austria Opposes Rampolia,

VIENNA, July 20.-On receiving news of the pope's death, the Emperor retired to his private chapel to pray. The event will not change Austrian relations with the Vatican, and it is unlikely that Austria will attempt to influence the decision of the conclave except in the election of Car-dinal Rampolla, to whom the Austrian government is opposed.

HARD ON THE DOCTORS. Pope's Nephew Severely Criticizes

Their Management of Case. PARIS, July 20 .- The Matin's corre spondent at Rome sends what he describes as an authentic version of the pope's end, received from the lips of M. de Navenne, counselor of the French Embassy at the Vatican, who was present at the last moment. The only persons at the bedside, on account of the smallness of the room and the stifling atmosphere, were the pope's valet, Centra, his two nephews, Dr. Lapponi and the domestic prelate. Count Camillo Pecci was so overcome by emotion and the heat that he was soon obliged to go out,
