FIERCE BATTLE AT SOLEDAD

Government Troops Win the City House by House, Choking Streets With Dead-Rebels Make Last Stand in Capitol and Jail, SOLEDAD, Monday, July 20, 7:20 P. M .-Fighting since I o'clock this afterston has been horrible, and at 7 o'clock the only places that edili resist the onslaught of the government troops are the jall and the Capitol.

Early in the afternoon the government troops, which had received all the reinforcements available, together with ammunition, and who numbered in all 5200 men, were ordered to make a general attack upon all positions still held by the rebels. At 5 o'clock this afternoon the Zamora, called the Sebastopol of Cludad Reliver, was stormed and cantured. Bolivar, was stormed and captured. Ninety-four dead rebels were found in-side, among them being General Azanza, one of the revolutionary leaders, whose one of the revolutionary by a shell, bead had been blown off by a shell. At the same time General Rivas, General Gomez' chief Lieutenant, with 2300 men, succeeded in destroying a barricade erected around the Miranda Plaza, the key to the Capitol, where all the survivors of he revolution were concentrated.

All the roads and streets running into the Capitol are guarded by government troops, and the escape of the revolution-ists after the capture of the Capitol, which is inevitable, seems impossible.

At 7 o'clock tonight the Custom-House was taken after a ten-hour fight. Daiton block, where the American Consul and many foreign business houses are lo-cated, was captured at 5 o'clock. The revolutionists are without provisions and water. Their situation is considered desperate and hopeless. The shops are

With Terrible Loss, SOLEDAD, Venezuela, Monday, July 20, 10 A. M.—Since the last dispatch was sent to the Associated Press, at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, the battle between the tionary forces at Cludad Bolivar and the Venezuelan government army, commanded by General Gomez, has raged madly. Block after block was destroyed, the government troops entering the city slowly. All the houses had been barricaded and the revolutionists were forced from flat roofs called azotoas. When the revolutionists finally abandoned houses, after having taken all that could be used for barricades, or otherwise to step the advance of the government tapops, the buildings were immediately occupied by the government soldiers, who bored hig holes in them so as to communicate with the part house. with the next house city appears to have been struck At 7 o'clock in the evening the government forces arrived near the center of Cludad Bolivar. For two hours previously firing had diminished, but it was heavier at 11 o'clock and illuminated the sky. At in the morning, when the inhabitants the commercial and foreign parts of the city, near the Alameda, saw the advance of the government troops, they abandoned their homes and sought refuge in other parts of the city, crossing the streets amidst a bail of bullets and shells, the women carrying their children, the strong helping the weak. The intellectual, moral and relig-ious energy of the pontiff have moved the church of Rome for one-quarter of a cen-tury. I sympathize with those who mourn, but rejoice in knowing our dear God comforts such with the blessed as-surance that life is not lost; its influ-ence remains in the minds of men and diertainty of immortality." King Alphenso's Condolences MADRID, July 21.—King Alfonso today disited the papal nuncio to present his condolences on the death of the pope.

APPOINTMENT IS MADE. Father O'Reilly to Be Consecrated

Bishop of Eastern Oregon, OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, July II.—The apostolic delegate has been advised of the appointment of the Rev. Charles O'Reilly as bishop of the new diocese of Eastern Oregon, with headquarters at Baker City.

The papers bearing the commission of Father O'Reilly as bishop of Eastern Oregon will probably arrive from Washington in a few days Refore the new hishon of take his seat a sacred consecration service must be held, which will be one of the few ever held in Portland. This service will probably be held August 25, on the feast day of St. Bartholomew, it being cus-tomary to consecrate a bishop on one of these feast days.

It is possible that Archbishop Christie who is making a tour of the prefecture of Alaska, will not return in time to be present at the consecration service. In that case three bishops of the archdiocese of Oregon will perform the solemn ceremony Those who will doubtiess be present are Bishop Glorieux, of Boise, Idano; Bishop Brondel, of Helena, and Bishop O'Dea, of Bishop O'Reilly will then go to Baker-City to take up his new work in Eastern Oregon. The first announcement of the intment of Father O'Reilly as bishop was made from Rome on May 25, and he has been daily expecting the arrival of his formal commission ever since.

Clifford and Queenan Fight a Draw VANCOUVER, B. C., July 21.-Jack Clifford, of San Francisco, and Perry Queenan, of Seattle, fought a 20-round draw tonight. Clifford was under weight, but he forced the fighting until the 14th round. From that to the 19th, Queenan had the best of it, while honors went to Clifford for the final round. Queenan had the advantage in weight and experience.
