Columbia. Advices received from the Savena River and Rivers Inlet report that the run at those points is continuing good and the packing is going on quite antisfactorily. The socking for run usually begins on the Skeems from two to three weeks earlier than on the Praser, but in the Fraser this year the run is exceptionally late.

It is the impression in packing quarters that prices on the 1803 pack will not open below 25 cants on red Ainska and $1.10 on sockeye talls.

Joseph Durney was quoted at San Francisco as saying that no safe prediction as to future prices on Alaska reds could be made at present. The Pacific Northern Packing Company has had heavy sales since it made the opening price of $1.10 for sockeye taffs. The price of Alaska reds will be determined largely by the quantity of sockeyes packed this season and may go as low as 80 cents or as high as $1. There has been a large demand for spot salmon turing the past two weeks.

LIQUIDATION IS RENEWED

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET EXCIT-ED AND UNEASY.

Porced Settlements Due to Special Needs of Capitalists-Break in Amalgamated Copper.

NEW YORK, July 28.-Excitement and ur NEW YORK, July 23.—Excitement and un-enziness developed again in today's stock mar-ket as a result of the renewal of the urgent and apparently forced liquidation. This was believed to be due to the special needs of in-dividuals and the identity of these individuals was the subject of the usual gossip and the usual apprehensions. Amalgamated was the center of the excitement and much of the self-ing of it was said to be for Boston account, as reports were received of a violent break in the copper shares generally there. There was nothing in the news of the trade to account for the break, the metal advancing sharply in any further recession today.

Wall street showed considerable anxiety over the news of the failure of an important building firm in New England as it was believed to involve connections in the New York department of that industry, Amalgamated, with its half of 1 per cent dividend off, sold down to 35%, a break of 5% and the lowes price of record. United States Realty lost 2 and the preferred 5, the last-named railying 2 and Amalgamated closing only 5, above the lowest. The fear that this violent liquidation was the outgrowth of the New England business trouble gave currency to many rumors of business embarrassment in New York, which were often due to the sharp declines in special stocks in which individual brokerage houses of these runors could be substantiated.

Another unfavorable influence in the stock market was the renewal of the violent speculative fluctuations in the cotten market, with reports of purchases in Liverpool for realignment to this country for the relief of the distressed shorts. The stock market has been reclined to respond with declines to the jumps inclined to respond with declines to the jumps in the cotton market, though the common be-her is that Wall street operators have been very persistent short sellers at the high levels prevailing in the cotton market.

The excitement developed in the corn market today was also detrimental to stocks, joined as it was to reports of hot winds in the corn belt

It was to reports of hot winds in the corn belt and danger to the corn crop.

The suggestion of the from Age that the great decline in securities might check new undertakings, and thus adversely affect the demand in that trade, but the iron and steel stocks, especially of independent companies. The United States Steel stocks were boubly affected until the general weakness developed into in the day, but declines of between I and 2 points from last night became fairly general then. The market had steadied near the last, but Southern Pacific's downward plunge of 2% to 63 made the close feverish and irregular.

previous bids for 2000 tons, but may buy 1000 tons in the open market. Flour, feedstuffs and local and shipping accounts. Peaches, chiefly generally easier. Apricots in small packages were steady, but bulk lots are accumulating and have reduced their blds. Hard Bartlett pears for shipping were in less supply and steadler, but ripe stock was more plentiful and weaker. Apples, including best Graven steins, were abundant, slow and easy. Plums and prunes were very weak for general offerings. Pigs were in abundant supply with a sharp advance on large hones. Melons were arriving from the river. Choice berries gen erally were firm under lighter supplies, Citrus and higher. Old Oregons were slow, Ontons were easier. The first marrowfat squash of the season arrived and brought a good price. Green tomatoes were in heavy supply and lower.

Choice green corn was steady. Other vegetables were in good supply and generally weak.

Poultry was steady for choice offerings. A carload of Eastern is offering, Butter was Regarding general conditions, the paper says:

The burning question is to what extent the decline in securities will check new undertak-ings, and thus adversely affect the demand. Is the iron trade proper the waiting attitude of buyers is being persisted in, and is having its effect upon prices. There have been some preity large sales of steel billets during the past two weeks, in some cases at low prices. The out-side Bessemer plants meet a Bessemer pig market which is easentially strong. The out-side basic open-hearth plants are in a better position as to the basic pig market, where more simple supplies are available, notably from the South. The associated rail mills have thus far officially reported sales aggregating for 1904, 450,000 tons, which is not quite up to the figures which detailed reports of trans-actions would lead one to expect.

CORN REPORTS HELP WHEAT, Chleago Market Closes Strong and

Higher, CHICAGO, July 23.—Reports of extremely bot weather in the Northwest and disappoint-ing threshing returns, together with a light movement, created a bullish sontiment in wheat and September sold up under free buying by St. Louis houses and local buils to 76%c, after opening steady at about yeaterday's closs. Some of the early buyers took profits on the some of the early buyers took profits on the builse and this caused a reaction to 75½c but on the strength which developed in corn, buying was renewed and the late tone was strong. September closing at 75½c, a gain of %9½c. Local shorts who oversoid on yesterday's break covered freely and helped the late tone. Trade was large and active.

Hot winds in Kansas and adverse crop reports with small receiving gave afform of ports, with small receipts, gave a strong ef-fect and excited the corn market early in the session. With slight depressions here and there, the strength held until the close. Influential selling on the early advance caused a decline from the high figure, but final prices showed September 14,614c better at 505,651c, after ranging between 50651c. There was a big trade with a better cash demand and buying Oats were in evidence on every hand.

Oats were stimulated to fair activity on a higher range of prices by the bull movement in corn. Shorts covered freely on the upturn and trade was good. On the whole, the market was firm with local buil traders inclined to favor the long side of the distant futures. September closed %6%c higher at 33%c.

comber closed %6% higher at 35%. Constantly declining hog receipts and higher prices at the yards caused strength in provisions. There was some good outside buying and better prices ruled all around. Packers sold moderately on the advance, but the market held steady with September pork up 7% at $14.52%; land 11% file higher at $8.07%, and ribs 5077% better at $4.23%. and ribs 507%c better at $8.42%.
