be well to prepare a formal address em-bodying an invitation to the congress and the localities they represent to join in a patriotic endeavor to observe the anni-versary of the linking of the Pacific Coast to the Louisiana Purchase. Such an address would be printed in the Montana, Dakota and other newspapers and in the volume of annual reports of the con-STORE. The following circular has been issued by the secretary of the congress: The sixth annual session of the American Mining Congress will convent in the cities of Deadwood and Lead, September 7, 1963, and continue thereafter the 8th, 9th, 10th, 11th and 12th. The American Mining Congress is a permanent and representative organization embrac-ing not only those engaged directly in mining and treating metals of all kinds but also those interested in every silled industry. The mission of the organization is a thorough business campaign of education, and to this end the effort is made to bring together all classes of people interested in mining, or who desire reliable information relating to this important industry. It aims to do for the mining industry of all America what the Agri-cultural Department at Washington has done for agriculture; the Commercial Museum of Philadelphia, for commerce and trade; the

Colonel Drake was further assured by prominent mining men and some of the state offi-clais of Montana, Idaho and Dakota that Oregon's effort to properly celebrate one of the most notable events in the history of the Nation would be supported by their states and by individuals. Now that the Exposition has been fully determined upon and preparations are under way, he thiats some direct effort should be made to again press the matter before this congress.

The afternoon programme opened with a concert by the Chemawa band, but was composed mostly of recitations by Mrs. Harriet Colburn Saunderson, and by the antiphonally produced song cycle, "In a Persian Garden," from the "Rubalyat" of Omar Khayyam, by Mrs. Saunderson and Mrs. Waiter Reed, Mrs. Albert Sheldon, J. TO RECOVER SHORTAGES.

District Attorney Prepares Complaints in County Clerk Cases, District Attorney John Manning is pre-paring complaints to file in the State Cir-cult Court in the matter of the short-ages in the County Clerk's office reported by Expert George Black, against ex-Clerk's Hanley H. Holmes and L. Q. Swet-land. The account against the former is about $250 and against Swetland $500. Holmes is dead, but the bond filed by him residues is dead, but the cond filed by firm is good. His estate is represented by At-torney Ed Mendenhall. At the trial of the suits the question to be decided will probably be the correctness of the expert's figures.

There is no doubt that some errors were made in ...e Clerk's office during the years covered by the report.
