NEW PITCHER FOR BROWNS

DAN McFARLAND WILL ADD MUCH STRENGTH.

One of Stars of Eastern League, He Has High Averages in Pitching, Fielding and Batting.

Dan McFarland is the new pitcher signed by the Browns. He has been playing with the Rochester team of the Eastern league and is one of the stars of that league. He is a right-hand performer and before joining the Rochester he played with the Montreal team.

McFarland's arrival will be welcomed by Hogg, Thielman, Butler and Shields, for with Shields out of the game on account of his arm, the other three pitchers have had their work cut out for them in defeating Oakland and Sacramento.

McFarland is expected to arrive either Sunday or Monday and will be on hand to appear against Uncle Henry Harris' Stars next week. Shields expects to be able to work during the San Francisco series, but if he obeys the mandate of his physician, he will be a couple of weeks before he will appear in the box.

McFarland comes to the Browns on the recommendation of Arthur Irwin, who was manager of the New York Giants during the days of the 15-club league. He has won 15 out of 30 games pitched and has a batting average of .250 and a fielding average way up in the nine hundreds.
