EAGER FOR THE ROAD

Tillamook Citizens Securing Right of Way.

RESULT OF PORTLANDERS' VISIT

Connection With Union Depot to Be Made Over the Coast Range by Wilson River Route From the Bay Town.

ASTORIA, Or., July 28.—A special from Tillamook says that all the details relating to the proposition submitted to the citizens at a meeting held there recently by Messrs. McCraken and Reid, of Portland, relating to the projected railway connecting Tillamook Bay with Portland, have been settled, and a committee is now actively at work securing the right of way for the road.

This right of way consists of a 60-foot strip from Tillamook to the summit of the Coast Range of mountains, free of charge to the Portland, Nehalem & Tillamook Railway Company, by way of the Wilson River, the shortest route, 82½ miles, to Portland.

MISTAKEN FOR A DEER.

Dr. Cooper, of Chetco, Is Fatally Wounded by Young Friend.

GOLD BEACH, Or., July 28.—Dr. A. Cooper was accidentally shot near his home at Chetco, while out hunting deer. Raleigh Scott gives the following account of the fatality:

On the evening of July 18 Dr. Cooper and two young friends, Harry Ingler and Herbert Watkinson went out hunting. Cooper, knowing the country better than the boys, placed Herbert Watkinson on one side of a gulch and sent Harry Ingler around the head of the gulch and told him to stop on the first ridge and he would go down and scare the deer out. In a few minutes after parting from Cooper Harry Ingler saw a deer come out of the gulch on the side where he was, but on the opposite side from where he had parted from Cooper a few minutes before. He fired at the deer but missed it, and the deer went out of sight into the high brush and fern. Presently Ingler saw the brush begin to shake and soon saw a white spot in the brush, which he thought was a deer's tail. He shot at it, and then Cooper shouted to him that he was shot. On going down to Cooper he found him to be shot in the left breast about two inches below the heart. The bullet had gone out under the right arm.

Dr. Crawfis was sent for, and everything possible was done to save the wounded man, but he died the next day, July 15, about 3 P. M.

J. W. Riley, Justice of the Peace, held an inquest and the jury brought in a verdict that the shooting was accidental and exonerated the boy from all blame in the matter. Cooper, after being shot, told his friends that he himself was to blame, as he had told the boy he would come out at the head of the gulch, but instead crossed it and went out on the opposite side.

Dr. A. Cooper was a Scotchman by birth and as far as known has no relatives in the United States.

Harry Ingler, the boy who did the shooting, is a young man and a friend of the doctor. His home is in Oakland, Cal.

MINISTER LEAVES DEBTS.

Rev. G. Howard Osborne Charged With Defrauding Creditors.

INDEPENDENCE, Or., July 28.—(Special.)—A sale was made yesterday afternoon of part of the mortgaged property of Rev. G. Howard Osborne.

Rev. Mr. Osborne is a former citizen of Canada. He was in the evangelical work for the Methodist church in Portland, and also held a position as pastor of an East Portland Methodist church. From there he secured a position in the Independence district, and covered the Independence and Buena Vista territory. He also took a position with the A. O. U. W., lecturing over the state in the interests of that order, and was in their employ some two months or more.

While here he placed a chattel mortgage upon some horses, wagons, harness and his stereopticon machine. He later sold to different parties all of his mortgaged property but the stereopticon machine. He is wanted by the members of the church at Buena Vista, as he appropriated to his own use money given him to pay debts owed by the church in this city. A warrant was issued for his arrest by Justice Wilson, of this place, and Constable Moran made a trip to Portland to secure him, but Mr. Osborne did not wish to meet his friends in Independence, and had left for new fields, taking with him or disposing of his mortgaged stereopticon machine. It is reported here that he is in California, where he intends to take a course of theological instruction in one of the universities, preparatory to entering another church. He left many outstanding obligations, and was enabled to do so principally through the influence he gained over his parishioners through his church work. He is an Englishman, and was educated in a college in England. He is married and has an estimable wife. He delivers an able address, is an excellent tenor, is quite intelligent and gave satisfaction as a minister.

TAKE GAMBLER'S VALUABLES.

Sumpter Men Create a Scene in a Bank—Under Arrest.

BAKER CITY, Or., July 28.—Justice of the Peace Evans and J. D. Cline were brought here this afternoon from Sumpter and placed in the county jail, in default of bail, on the charge of assault and robbery committed at Sumpter yesterday. Cline and Evans engaged in a gambling game with Jack Pearson, the night before. Evans and Cline lost at first, but later won. The losses were paid in checks, Evans and Cline finally holding Pearson's check for $600, and Pearson holding theirs for $300.

Early in the morning Cline and Evans attempted to cash Pearson's check at the bank. Just as they were about to get the money Pearson rushed in and stopped payment. An altercation arose, and Cline and Evans engaged in a fight with Pearson, and they took the letter's watch and what money he had, according to Pearson's story. Evans and Cline were arrested on complaint of Pearson and were brought here this afternoon.

POISON ENDS HER PINING.

Benton County Girl Wanted to Work in Corvallis Restaurant.

CORVALLIS, Or., July 28.—(Special.)—Seventeen-year-old Vera Ridenour, the younger daughter of a pioneer family, swallowed carbolic acid at her Big Elk home, 30 miles westward and southward from Corvallis, at 5 o'clock last night, and died three hours later in great agony. She left a note in which she declared that she was tired of life, and did not wish to live any longer.

Miss Ridenour graduated June 5 in the eighth grade from the Corvallis public schools. She spent the school year at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel King, in this city, where she was popular with all members of the family. After graduation she entered the Commercial restaurant as a waitress, but was shortly afterward required by her parents to give up the situation and return home. She desired to remain at the restaurant, and told friends that as soon as she was 18 she would return. She also told Mrs. King and others that she did not wish to go back to live among the mountains of the Big Elk country.

Her parents were early residents in the vicinity of Corvallis, where they are highly respected and widely known. The father, William Ridenour, once lacked but a single vote of being elected Sheriff of Benton County.

LOOKING OVER LAKE COUNTY.

Minneapolis Man Says New Road May Traverse It.

PAISLEY, Or., July 28.—Francis G. Burke, of Minneapolis, spent two days here making a personal examination of the country and a feasible route for a railroad which he thinks will be built from Salt Lake to the Coast, terminating somewhere near Eugene. He expressed the belief that the $10,000,000 recently paid the Union Pacific Company by Clark for the Oregon Short Line will be expended on a road through this country to the Pacific Coast.

After an examination of the country he has concluded that the most practicable route for such a road would be across the desert from Stein's Mountain, striking Lake County at a point where Oregon and California corners on the Nevada line, thence bearing northwest and passing through Crooked Creek Valley and up the Chewaucan Valley to Paisley, and in a northwesterly direction to the low pass over the Cascade range on the headwaters of the north middle fork of the Willamette River.

Nearly all the timber in this part of Oregon would be accessible to such a road. Mr. Burke goes from here to San Francisco, thence to New York.

CLEARING NORTH UMPQUA RIVER.

Franchise Given to Oregon Boom & Timber Company.

ROSEBURG, Or., July 28.—(Special.)—A most important step was taken here yesterday toward the development of the lumbering industry of this portion of the state. This was the granting of a franchise to the Oregon Boom & Timber Company for improving the North Umpqua River for floating logs and timber.

The contract provides that the work shall be completed within two years. It is also agreed that the company shall erect and operate a sawmill of 100,000 feet daily capacity at Winchester, where the main line of the Southern Pacific Railroad crosses the North Umpqua River. Other parties also expect to erect woodworking plants there as soon as facilities for securing timber are assured.

This franchise provides that the stream shall be cleared of obstructions as far east as the Cascade forest reserve, a distance of 30 miles, thus making available vast bodies of very fine timber which are now practically inaccessible. Operations will begin as soon as preliminary details can be arranged.

TAKES CHAIR OF CHEMISTRY.

Willamette University Directors Elect J. B. T. Tuthill.

SALEM, Or., July 28.—(Special.)—At a meeting of the board of directors of the Willamette University today, J. B. T. Tuthill, a number of years manager of the Salem Gas Works, was elected to the chair of the department of chemistry. Mr. Tuthill has had a number of years' practical experience in chemistry and toxicology and will be a valuable acquisition to the efficient corps of instructors.

Mr. Tuthill prepared for college at the Boys' High School at San Francisco, Cal., and at Phillipps Exeter Academy, of Exeter, N. H., entered Harvard College in 1883, and graduated with the degree of A. B. in 1887. He took a post-graduate course in chemistry at Harvard and acted as assistant in descriptive chemistry one year, receiving the degree of A. M. in 1888. He taught chemistry and physics in Riverview Academy, at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., two years, and has been professor of chemistry and toxicology in Willamette University seven years.

TIME CHECK A FORGERY.

Man Arrested at Astoria for Passing It on a Merchant.

ASTORIA, Or., July 28.—(Special.)—A couple of young men, both strangers, entered the second-hand store conducted by Max Strahl, this morning and after purchasing clothing to the value of $8, presented in payment what purported to be a time check issued to A. M. Welch by the Northwest Construction Company for $15.90. As the check was on the regular printed form used by the construction company, Mr. Strahl accepted it, giving the men $15.90 in change. When the paper was presented to the company's office later in the day it was pronounced a forgery.

This afternoon Mr. Strahl saw one of the men on the street and he was arrested by Sheriff Linville. He is being held awaiting a preliminary hearing tomorrow. The man gave his name as Arthur Kendall and said he came from San Francisco a short time ago. A letter was found in his possession addressed to Arthur Kreel, at Portland.

Molalla Cattle Are Not Diseased.

OREGON CITY, Or., July 28.—(Special.)—Investigation discloses that the recent reports concerning an alleged mysterious disease affecting the cattle of the Molalla country were grossly exagerated. J. W. Thomas, master of the Molalla Grange, says that the report is entirely erroneous and that a diligent search on his part failed to locate a single herd of cattle that is afflicted with any alleged "mysterious" or other disease.

Mr. Thomas credits the origin of the report to parties who are jealous of the splendid butter, cream and beef for which the Molalla country is famed. The cattle of the county are found to be in better than average health.

Boom Must Be Moved.

ASTORIA, Or., July 28.—(Special.)—Complaint was made to Major Langhtt some time ago by the Saldren Logging Company that the log boom owned and operated by Mrs. Netterstead on Gray's River, at the mouth of Seal River, was so constructed that it interfered seriously with the navigation of that stream. Yesterday a Government engineer made an examination of the boom and directed that it be shifted sufficiently to permit steamers and rafts to go by it or be removed from the river.

Mr. Saldren, in speaking about the matter, said he was compelled to make complaint against the boom as it was in such a position that he was unable to tow any log rafts by it.

Big Raft Starts Saturday.

ASTORIA, Or., July 28.—(Special.)—The log raft which is being constructed at Stella for the Robertson Raft Company will be ready to start down the river on Saturday. The bar tug Tatoosh, assisted by the tug Sea Lion, will tow it to San Francisco. The latter vessel will arrive here from Puget Sound on Friday and will be accompanied by the tug Wanderer, which will take the place of tha Tatoosh on the bar during the latter's absence.

Irresponsible Boy Takes a Rifle.

OREGON CITY, Or., July 28.—(Special.)—John Rex, a lad aged 17 years, was brought to this city today from Marquam and lodged in the county jail on the charge of entering a house at Marquam and taking a rifle. Rex appears to be a simple-minded boy and is a stranger. The boy committed a similar offense a short time ago.

Tam o' Shanter Crosses Out.

ASTORIA, Or., July 28.—(Special.)—The American barkentine Tam o' Shanter, which crossed out today for San Francisco, carried a cargo of 650,278 feet of lumber, loaded at Knappton mills.

GREAT COUNCIL OF REDMEN

SEVENTY DELEGATES ATTEND 12TH SESSION AT OREGON CITY.

Officers Are Elected for the Ensuing Year—L. B. Reeder and W. C. A. Pohl Great Representatives.

OREGON CITY, Or., July 28.—(Special.)—The 12th annual session of the Great Council of the Improved Order of Redmen for the Reservation of Oregon was convened in this city this morning. Sessions will be held tomorrow and adjournment will probably not take place until Thursday. Seventy delegates are in attendance. The annual election of officers took place this afternoon with the following result:

Great sachem, George M. Orton, of Portland; great senior sagamore, Dr. Henderson, Astoria; great junior sagamore, W. H. Conyers, Clatskanie; great prophet, L. B. Reeder, Pendleton; great chief of records, R. W. Ritner, Pendleton; great keeper of wampum, Jacob Reisch, Portland.

L. B. Reeder, of Pendleton, and W. C. A. Pohl, of Astoria, were elected great representatives to attend the great council of the United States, to be held at Atlantic City, N. J. The retiring officers were:

Great sachem, L. B. Reeder, of Pendleton; great senior sagamore, Dr. Henderson, Astoria; great junior sagamore, George M. Orton, of Portland; great keeper of records, W. C. A. Pohl, Astoria; great keeper of wampum, J. H. Griebel, Portland; prophet, Dr. S. Lewis King, Portland; great representatives, A. B. Cherry, Portland, and J. H. Howard, Oregon City.

Delegates to the council are as follows: Abram Smith, Jacksonville; Harry Curr, E. J. Hyland, L. Carstensen, L. Dammasch, John J. Englebart and J. A. Semler, of Portland; Charles Dahlstrom, C. E. Tietjen, Sumpter; Marion Irwin, Eagan; George R. Holman, LaGrande; Walter Hunter and C. C. Fowler, Goble; T. S. Wadell and Thomas Lunde, Clifton; E. A. Wilson, Cottage Grove; Oliver Knotts and E. F. Beitel, Pilot Rock; A. E. Miller, Seaside.

Badges of unique and appropriate design are worn by the delegates. The badges consist of a band of ribbon of the National colors, lettered to indicate the meeting that is being held. Attached to the ribbon in the center is a miniature photographic likeness of Willamette Falls.

DEAD HORSES LINE THE TRAIL.

Stampeders Are Leaving the Nazina Country in Alaska.

SEATTLE, Wash., July 28.—Reports brought down from Valdes by the passengers of the steamer Excelsior, which arrived yesterday tell of a condition of affairs existing in the new gold camp of the Nazina country that borders on disaster.

Although gold exists in that country in large quantities, the operations this Spring have demonstrated that the cost of labor per day in taking it out exceeds the value of the gold taken. The result has been that operations there generally have been suspended, and that in a short time all will close down. The result is that men who stampeded to that country during the early Winter months are now trying to make their way out over the rough Summer trail. Four drownings have already been reported, and it is claimed that there are undoubtedly others that have not yet been learned of. Others who did not go over the Summer trail attempted the trip over to Fairbanks. They met with disaster. Horses died on the road, provisions gave out, miners became sick and a terrible state of affairs was the result. For miles along the route it is said that dead horses lay thick.

This news came by George W. Johnson, a Dawson pioneer, who is said to know every mile of that country. Both he and his son had many narrow escapes from death on the way out. Both were injured. Mr. Johnson left mining material there that cost many thousands of dollars, which he can never recover.

He says there is plenty of gold in the Nazina country, but that the only way it can be successfully worked is by handling it all together with one big hydraulic proposition.

SALMON WILL NOT COME IN.

Sport About the Mouth of the Columbia—Catch Almost Nothing.

ASTORIA, Or., July 28.—(Special.)—The run of fish during the past few days has been less than at this season of the year since any record of fishing on the Columbia has been kept. For several seasons the big run has been backward, but never before so late as this year. That there are an immense number of salmon playing about outside the mouth of the river is certain, and that they will come in some time is assured, but just when this will happen is an uncertainty. At the present time the traps are doing practically nothing and the gillnetters, who drift about the lower harbor, have caught but few fish for several nights.

Up the river the conditions are even worse, as the seiners are doing very poorly. Miller sands, which is considered one of the best, yesterday caught 200 pounds of steelheads and about double that amount of salmon. At McDonough's landing, which is looked upon as the best gillnet receiving station on the north shore, but three fish were delivered this morning.

DECLARE PEACOCK INSANE.

Doctors Examine Polk County Murderer and Report to Governor.

SALEM, July 28.—Governor Chamberlain today heard the petition for commutation of the sentence of William P. Peacock, condemned murderer, from death to life imprisonment. Peacock was convicted of the murder of Alexander Kerr, at Parker Station, Polk County, on May 13, and was sentenced to hang August 7. Attorney Oscar Hayter, of Dallas, appeared for the prisoner and District Attorney J. N. Hart for the state.

Upon request of the Governor, Drs. J. F. Calbreath, superintendent of the Asylum; W. T. Williamson and L. Z. Griffith, first and second physicians; J. D. Shaw, prison doctor; W. A. Cusick, ex-prison doctor, and Harry Lane, of Portland, made an examination of the prisoner and reported him a victim of paranoia and hopelessly insane.

The Governor went to the prison this afternoon and had a talk with the prisoner. He has taken the matter under advisement. It is believed the Governor will commute the sentence. A strong petition for commutation and a remonstrance against, signed by Polk County people, have been filed in the case.

BREMERTON SALOON WOULD OPEN.

Town Council Must Show Cause to the Supreme Court.

OLYMPIA, Wash., July 28.—The Supreme Court today issued an order requiring the Town Council of Bremerton to show cause why they should not be restrained from interfering with the opening of the Fashion saloon. The right of the Town Council summarily to revoke saloon licenses before their expiration was decided in favor of the town by the lower court, and pending appeal by the saloon to the Supreme Court, the proprietors desire to continue business.

The Fashion is the only saloon that has opened at all in the navy-yard town since the action of the Secretary of the Navy in withdrawing, on account of immoral surroundings, all Government work from the yard bestirred the Town Council into revoking all saloon licenses. This particular saloon carried the matter into the courts and was permitted to open while the matter was pending in the lower court. The decision being against them they closed again.

The order of the Supreme Court is made returnable next Friday, when it will be determined whether the saloon shall be permitted to do business.

STATE OWNS THE SCHOOL FUND.

Washington Bonds No Longer in Private Hands.

OLYMPIA, Wash., July 28.—State Treasurer Maynard today paid the last bond of the State of Washington that was in the hands of private parties or corporations. All the state's bonded indebtedness is now held by the permanent school fund.

The bond paid today was No. 60 of the "funding issue" of 1890. Sixty of these bonds of the denomination of $5000 each and drawing interest at 3½ per cent were issued in 1890, and were payable in 15 years with a five-year option. During the present administration $145,000 of the issue was taken up, and the balance was paid during the terms of other treasurers. The 60 bonds were not all held by on individual, and the last, No. 60, was in the hands of the Bank of America, of New York.

The State of Washington's bonded indebtedness is now $1,340,000, and is in 3½ per cent bonds held by the permanent school fund.

LEGS CRUSHED IN LANDSLIDE.

Laborer Engulfed While Working on Northern Pacific Extension.

HOQUIAM, Wash., July 28.—(Special.)—Andrew Nelson, who has been working on the Northern Pacific extension for H. C. Henry, was caught under a landslide of blue clay today and nearly buried alive. Willing hands soon dug the unfortunate man out, and he was put on the construction train and brought to this city, where he was taken to St. David's Hospital.

It was thought his left leg would have to be amputated, but Dr. Campbell on examination found both legs broken and badly crushed. He set the injured limbs.

FARMER CRAZED WITH LIQUOR.

Whatcom County Residents Had to Dodge Revolver Bullets.

WHATCOM, Wash., July 28.—William Roy, a farmer in Rome precinct, Whatcom County, terrorized the people of his neighborhood last evening by attempting to shoot John Schultz and firing his revolver at houses as he passed down the road. He had been drinking in town.

Roy was finally knocked down, tied with a rope and brought here. Today he says he has no recollection of the affair, and was bound over to the Superior Court.

Molalla Wool Pools.

OREGON CITY, Or., July 28.—(Special.)—The members of Molalla Grange have just disposed of a pool of wool to L. W. Robbins, the merchant, of that place. Eight thousand pounds of wool were included in the pool, which brought a price quite satisfactory to the farmers. While it was organized late in the season, even after numerous other pools were in the field, the pool was a financial success, and all were well pleased with the first effort at co-operative selling. Molalla Grange expects soon to take the preliminary steps looking to the pooling of the wool and mohair crop of Clackamas County for the year 1904.

Two Ladies Thrown From Buggy.

TOLEDO, July 28.—(Special.)—Mrs. Charles Kreiger and Mrs. Jeery Lane, residing three-quarters of a mile northeast of the city, were thrown from their buggy Sunday and Mrs. Krieger sustained serious injuries. Dr. Wetmore was called and found upon examination that she was badly bruised about the back and shoulders, her neck being nearly dislocated. Mrs. Lane escaped with a few scratches and bruises. A bad road and careless driver were to blame.

Hoquiam Carpenters' Short Hours.

HOQUIAM, Wash., July 28.—(Special.)—The carpenters of this city all asked for an eight-hour day yesterday, and, as some of the contractors would not grant it, they quit work. Nearly all have returned to work today, as they have been granted what they asked for. The other contractors are holding out until a meeting of all the contractors to be held this evening. It is thought they will concede the demand and allow the men eight hours, as the others are doing.

Mrs. Smith Enters Denial.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 28.—Mrs. Adelaide Lloyd Smith, of Seattle, who achieved considerable notoriety because of her connection with the famous Moxey case, and who was recently arrested on a charge of selling oil stock of no value, filed an answer today to the suit to recover $1500, filed against her by Annie Freez. She denies that she ever sold stock in an oil company to the plaintiff under the conditions described in her complaint.

Clubroom for Militiamen.

OREGON CITY, Or., July 28.—(Special.)—At a meeting of the enlisted men of the late Company A, Third Regiment, Oregon National Guard, last night it was proposed to organize the company into an athletic society, rent a hall and conduct a social organization. The company owns furniture sufficient to equip suitable clubrooms. Definite plans will be determined upon soon.

Rose Again a Citizen.

SALEM, Or., July 28.—(Special.)—Governor Chamberlain today restored Charles Rose, who served a two-year sentence in the penitentiary from Benton County for larceny, to full citizenship. Ever since his release Rose has had employment and has led an honest, upright and industrious life.

Franchise to Interurban Road.

WHATCOM, Wash., July 28.—A franchise through this city has been granted to the Whatcom-Skagit Interurban Electric Railway, which proposes to build several miles of line north from here and south into Skagit County.

WORKING UNDER A TRUCE

SPOKANE PRINTERS RETURN TO REVIEW OFFICE.

Typographical Executive Committee and Publishers' Association Will Pass on Case at Chicago.

SPOKANE, July 28.—The striking printers returned to work in the Spokesman-Review composing-room tonight. This action was taken under instructions from the executive council of the International Typographical Union, now in session at Chicago, where the executive committee of the American Newspaper Publishers' Association is also in session. President James M. Lynch, of the International Typographical Union, and Frederick Driscoll, commissioner of the American Newspaper Publishers' Association, composing the National Board of Arbitration, are also on the ground, as is also W. H. Cowles, proprietor of the Spokesman-Review.

The return of the printers is in the nature of a truce and has the approval of all parties in interest. They are to be paid the new scale, pending efforts to bring about a satisfactory settlement of the differences by the higher authorities at Chicago. There was no contract. It was stipulated before the men returned to work that neither side waived any of its rights or claims.

ENDS LIFE WITH GAS.

Franklyn Heywood Is Believed to Have Been Insane.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 28.—Franklyn Heywood, capitalist, lumber merchant, prominent Mason, and one of the best-known men in the city, committed suicide today at his residence, by inhaling gas. His lifeless body was found with a rubber tube extending from the chandelier above and one end clenched between his teeth.

The suicide is attributed to temporary insanity. For several days Heywood showed signs of failing intellect. He forgot his home address one night last week, and was found wandering aimlessly in the street. On another occasion he forgot the number of the offices of the Gualala Mill Company, of which corporation he was president.

Yet he appeared to be in excellent health and spirits and last evening spent several hours at the home of his sister, Mrs. C. M. Hunt.

He was a man of large means, and the company with which he was identified is one of the largest lumber corporations on the Pacific Coast. He was 66 years of age, and a native of Maine.

SHIPPING PRIME CATTLE.

Eastern Oregon Beef Is Sent to the Sound.

PENDLETON, Or., July 28.—J. C. Lonergan, buyer for the Frye-Bruhan Meat Company, of Seattle, will ship from this point today and tomorrow over 400 head of cattle. He has just arrived in the city with his band, coming from the John Day section. He paid $3.60 per 100 pounds for the steers, and $3 per 100 pounds for the cows. About $3.75 per 100 pounds is an average price. Owing to the drying of the range, the lack of feed and the ranges being overstocked with cattle beyond the point where there is a sufficient supply of feed, the buyers believe prices will fall lower than the price that is being paid at the present time. There are about 400,000 cattle owned in the state, and about 300,000 of them are now in Eastern Oregon.

The cattle going to Seattle in this shipment are the pick of the great numbers of herds throughout the interior, and it is becoming hard to pick good beef cattle from the ranges even at this season of the year, when they should be in the best of condition.

COULD NOT SEE THE JOKE.

Seattle Woman Will Have Brother-in-Law Arrested for Taking Silver.

SEATTLE, Wash., July 28.—A practical joke was played on Mrs. Henry Schneider by her brother-in-law, C. A. Schneider, and now Schneider may have to face a charge of burglary. Mrs. Schneider went away from home and left her doors unlocked. Schneider thought to give his sister-in-law a valuable lesson. He went to the house and carried away all the silverware. When Mrs. Schneider returned home she found her goods all gone. She reported it to the police. After working all night on the case they learned that Schneider had taken it.

He said that it was all a joke, and that it would be returned in good time. Mrs. Schneider did not take the joke, and told the police that she would turn the tables on her brother-in-law by swearing out a warrant charging him with burglary.

BAKER MAILING CLERK OUT.

Second Dismissal on Account of the Loss of Registered Packages.

BAKER CITY, Or., July 28.—Postmaster Moomaw has received an order from the Postmaster-General directing him to dismiss Arthur Lowell, chief mailing clerk, on August 1. This makes the second order for dismissal as the result of the loss of two registered money packages, which occurred last March.

No trace of the missing packages could be found by the inspectors. There is no evidence tending to show that Lowell took the packages, but they were lost while he was acting as chief mailing clerk.

OLD SURETIES ARE HELD.

General O'Brien Required to Make Settlement of Scott Estate.

OLYMPIA, Wash., July 28.—(Special.)—An order was entered today in the Superior Court here requiring General R. G. O'Brien, as administrator of the estate of Samuel Scott, to pay into the registry of the court within the next ten days the $1109 outstanding to the interest of Moses Scott, the only heir whose interest still remains in the hands of the administrator.

Judge Linn holds that the withdrawal of the money belonging to the estate from the bank by General O'Brien was not unlawful, but to settle any doubts as to the security of the funds he orders the estate closed. An additional bond was presented by General O'Brien, but the court declined to release the old sureties at this time.

Accident Cures a Cripple.

PASADENA, Cal., July 28.—Miss Alice Dane, apparently a hopeless cripple and deprived of perfect speech for many years, has suddenly had the use of her limbs and vocal powers restored as the result of an accident. Miss Dane suffered from spinal trouble, and had to hobble about on crutches and could scarcely speak above a whisper. Last Thursday, while descending the stairs at her home, she fell, and the last step struck against her chest. Immediately the pains from which she had suffered for many years left, and after being taken to a couch and lying there for a while, she got up, and, to the surprise of every one, walked without the aid of crutches. Many physicians had treated the case unsuccessfully for years.

Coos County Convict Pardoned.

SALEM, Or., July 28.—Governor Chamberlain yesterday afternoon, upon the recommendation of Dr. J. D. Shaw, the prison physician, granted a full pardon to one Carl Newhall, a convict at the penitentiary, who was serving a one-year sentence from Coos County for larceny, on account of approaching blindness. Newhall was committed to the prison in March of this year. The recommendation of the prison physician was made after a consultation with Dr. A. B. Gillis, a prominent eye specialist of this city. Newhall was pardoned in order that he may receive the proper medical treatment before he loses his eyesight.

Salary Not to His Liking.

ASTORIA, Or., July 28.—(Special.)—Professor Rounds, of Warrenton, who was recently elected a principal of one of the schools in this city, has notified the board that he will not accept the position unless the salary is increased to an amount that would equal an advance of about 30 per cent on the present figures. The board will be unable to make the advance requested and will elect a new principal in the near future.

Coal Find on the Peace River.

VANCOUVER, B. C., July 28.—A large area of coal, estimated to contain 250,000,000 tons, has been located in the Peace River country. Some of the seams are said to be nine feet thick. The coal is reported to be of good quality. The scene of the discovery is near Hudson Hope, not far from the entrance to the Peace River Pass.

SEATTLE HOTEL INVADED BY TWO MASKED MEN.

Guest Compelled to Take Roll of Bills From Under His Pillow and Give to Robbers.

SEATTLE, Wash., July 28.—Masked highwaymen robbed the Boulevard Hotel at Inter-Bay, getting $700, early this morning. J. T. Clark was forced to get that amount, which he had in his possession, and deliver it at the point of a revolver.

The robbers appeared at the door of the room occupied by Clark and J. D. Hoolihan. They evidently knew of the existence of the money. Clark was just going to bed. "Give us that money," they demanded. Both leveled their guns at the victim. Clark went to the bed and took the money from under the pillow and gave it to them.

The men ran down the hallway. From his room window Clark fired several shots after them as he saw them running toward Queen Anne Hill.

SEATTLE SAFE CRACKED.

Watchman Shoots, but Robbers Take the Booty.

SEATTLE, July 28.—Safeblowers got $700 worth of valuables from the Independent Brewery Company's office, at South Seattle, after a battle with the night watchman, early this morning. Nitroglycerin tore the doors from the safe and wrecked the office. The robbers escaped, leaving their tools and paraphernalia behind.

Medical Lake Tablets

Twelve Life Remedies

When the water of Medical Lake, Washington, is evaporated, a residue of pure white crystalline powder remains in the retort. Careful chemical analysis of this powder shows that it is composed of the twelve most important medical agents known to science. Nature, the great chemist, mingled the life-giving, disease-curing ingredients for the healing of the nations. They are twelve Life Remedies—one for every month in the year, therefore for every day and all time!

JAN FEB MAR APR MAY JUN JUL AUG SEP OCT NOV DEC

Medical Lake Tablets are made from this white powder and every tablet contains its due proportion of the twelve life remedies. Dissolve one tablet in a glass of water and drink a sparkling beverage which cools the blood and stimulates the kidneys and liver to healthy action.
