ST. LOUIS, Aug. 4.—The selection of a jury for the third trial of the perjury case against former Delegate Harry Faulkner was completed today, and Cir-dress, outlining the charges against Faulkner. Routine witnesses were called and examined, but nothing new was developed from the evidence.

Counties Pay Tax Promptly.
SALEM, Or., Aug. 4.—(Special.)—Although the several counties of this state have until November 1 to pay their state taxes the greater part of the tax has already been paid. Many of the counties have paid in full. Under the present system of allowing rebates, property-owners pay their taxes promptly and the counties find it convenient to remit to the State Treasurer before the time required by law. Douglas County today made a payment of $9000 to settle its taxes in full.

SOUGHT NO TIARA

New Pope Did Not Covet
the Honor.

BREAKING DOWN SAYS "NO"

Cardinals Spend Hours in Urging Him to Accept.

THE ELECTION WAS UNANIMOUS

He Now Reigns at the Vatican, and All Rome Is Doing Him Honor —Coronation Is Likely to Occur Sunday.

POPE'S CAREER IN BRIEF.
Born at Venico, June 2, 1855.
Consecrated a priest in 1880, and became coadjutor to priest at Tomboso, Padua.
Promoted to parish priest at Salzano in 1897.
Elected chancellor of the bishopric of Treviso in 1875, and later vicar-general.
Appointed bishop of Mantua in 1884.
Made a cardinal in 1893, and appointed patriarch of Venice.
Elected pope in 1903.

ROME, Aug. 4.—Cardinal Sarto, patriararch of Venice, who was elected pope to succeed Leo XIII, now reigns at the Vatican and over the Catholic world, as Pius X. Tonight all Rome is illuminated in his honor.

His election and the assumption of his holy office were marked by a striking demonstration and impressive ceremonies at the Vatican, which ended only this evening. Tomorrow the new pope, clad in his new pontifical robes, and with all the ritualistic ceremony, will receive the members of the diplomatic corps, the cardinals and the bishops, who will then offer their official homage, this notwithstanding the fact that twice today the cardinal and many high officials of the Vatican went through a similar ceremony.

The date on which the coronation of Pius X will take place has not yet been decided, but the impression prevails that it will take place on August 5.

Cardinals Leave Their Cells.
Although the election was over at 11 o'clock this morning, and was announced to the world 45 minutes later by the appearance of the new pope at the window of St. Peter's, the cardinals were not formally dissolved until 5:30 o'clock this afternoon. The cardinals then returned to their various apartments in Rome, with the exception of Cardinals Rampolla and Oreglia, who temporarily retain their official suites in the Vatican, and Cardinal Herrero y Espinosa, who is too ill to be moved for several days. It was to the sick cardinal that the new pope paid his first visit after being formally proclaimed pontiff.

The cardinals will remain in Rome for tomorrow's ceremony, and, should the coronation be fixed for next Sunday, they are not likely to return to their homes until after the ceremony. With the exception of the Spanish cardinal, Herrero, all the prelates are in fairly good health.
Election Was Unanimous.
The election of the patriarch of Venice this morning was unanimous. After Monday's ballots, it was a foregone conclusion that he was the only candidate sufficiently acceptable to all to secure the necessary two-thirds that the laws of the church require. One of the cardinals said to a representative of the Associated Press tonight that he believed Pius X would follow the broad lines of Leo's policy, although he probably would not accentuate it. This voices the general feeling here, which is one of satisfaction.

The new pontiff is a man of simple origin, and, although not a prominent candidate, he had been mentioned frequently as one of the many cardinals who might be taken up as a compromise candidate.

Resembles His Predecessor.
In several respects he resembles his predecessor, notably in his reputation for culture and piety. Having been associated with no factions, this fact alone won him much favor from foreign cardinals who were without a special candidate. Pius X was humorously described as a "country mouse who could not possibly find his way about Rome."

Venetians, who know the new pope well, say that he will soon be as much beloved as pontiff as he was yesterday as the patriarch of the poor of the Adriatic.
In appearance, Pius X is a handsome man. He has a fine, erect figure, despite his 68 years, his face greatly resembling that of the late Phillips Brooks, of Boston. When he pronounced his first benediction today at St. Peter's, his voice rang out with splendid resonance.
In every way today, he showed beyond a doubt that he had dignity and personality in keeping with the best traditions associated with the famous pontiffs who for centuries have ruled the Vatican.

All the members of the Sacred College declare they are well satisfied with the election of Cardinal Sarto, but the cardinals opposed to Rampolla believe that it is their special victory. When the first ballot was taken, it showed that the Sacred College was divided into two groups, the stronger one for Rampolla, and the lesser one for Vannutelli. The other votes were scattered, but included four for Sarto. On the subsequent ballots, while Immediately after the election of his successor, Mr. Schwab met the press representatives to whom he made this informal statement:

"I want to say that I have been treated

NEW HEAD OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH.

PIUS X.

SCHWAB GOES OUT

Head of Steel Trust Succeeded by W. E. Corry.

HEALTH DEMANDS HE RETIRE

New President Has Been Performing the Actual Duties of the Office for Some Time—Corporation Will Change Its Policy.

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—The resignation of Charles M. Schwab, as president of the United States Steel Corporation, was tendered and accepted at a meeting of the directors today. William E. Corry was unanimously elected as his successor.

Mr. Schwab's resignation caused no surprise in financial circles, where it had for some time been foreshadowed.
The new president was for years one of Andrew Carnegie's ablest lieutenants, and is now president of the Carnegie Steel Company, one of the subsidiary concerns of the United States Steel Corporation. It is scarcely more than a month ago that Mr. Corry was made assistant to the president, because of Schwab's continued ill health.

Mr. Schwab attended today's meeting of the directors, coming to town, it was said, for that special purpose. He appeared to be in good health and spirits and seemed rather glad to be relieved of the duties imposed on the chief executive of the "billion dollar" corporation. Before and after today's meeting Mr. Schwab conferred with J. F. Morgan. Mr. Schwab will continue as director of the Steel Corporation and a member of its finance committee.

Official Version of Matter.
Formal announcement of Mr. Schwab's resignation was made in the appended form:

"At the regular meeting of the directors of the United States Steel Corporation today, Mr. Schwab, in consequence of continued ill health, tendered his resignation as president, and it was accepted. W. E.
Corry, who has been for some time performing the active duties of the president, was elected to the vacancy. The office of chairman of the board of directors was created, and E. H. Gary was elected to that position and will continue to devote his entire time to the business of the corporation. An advisory committee, to consist of three directors, besides the president, to consider and make recommendations concerning questions of manufacturing, transportation and operation, was created and E. C. Converse, William Eisenborn and D. G. Reid were elected as members of this committee. Mr. Schwab will continue to be a member of the board of directors and the finance committee."

unfairly by the newspapers in regard to the reasons for my retirement. A number of reasons, including this American shipbuilding matter, have been given for it, but none of them is true. As a matter of fact, the shipbuilding question has never been a subject of discussion between myself and the directors.
"On my return from Europe six months ago I tried to get Mr. Morgan and the directors to accept my resignation, but was unable to do so. That does not look as though I had been forced out. Later

BIG STRIKE IS VOTED

Rock Island Trainmen Solid for Increase of Wages.

DEMAND WILL BE MADE TODAY

Refusal Means That the 2000 Employees of the Road Will Be Ordered Out in a Short Time.

CHICAGO, Aug. 4.—Trainmen and conductors employed by the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railroad have voted to strike unless the road pays the increase in wages they have demanded. Their determination will be made known to the officers of the railroad company tomorrow, when committees representing the Order of Railway Conductors and the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen will wait on them.

These committees will tell the officers of the company the result of the referendum vote that has been taken on the question of a strike, and will ask the officers to meet their demands. In a case of a first refusal, the committees will then adjourn to prepare for calling a strike of the 2000 trainmen and conductors employed by the road.

National officers of the two employment organizations are in Chicago tonight, and are doing their best to prevent a strike.
The dispute is over the new agreement presented by the conductors and trainmen early this year. This provided for an increase of 12 1/2 per cent in wages of the men in the passenger service and of 15 per cent for those in the freight service.

Arbitration Board Is Agreed To.
NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—Announcement was made today at the Building Trades Employers' Association rooms that a general arbitration board had been arranged to take care of all difficulties between employees and the unions which have signed the plan of arbitration.

HANNA AND LABOR.
Not in the Civic Federation to Promote Political Ambition.

CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 4.—Senator Hanna, in an address to members of the Cleveland Builders' Exchange, explained the purpose of the Civic Federation, of which he is chairman. He spoke of the prosperity since the organization of the society in settling difficulties between capital and labor, and denied the report that his connection with it was for political purpose.

Hanna and Cleveland on Same Stump CHICAGO, Aug. 4.—Announcement has been made by Ralph M. Easley, secretary of the Civic Federation, that both Mr.
Cleveland and Senator Hanna will discuss the labor question from the same platform early in October. At that time a convention will be held for the purpose of inaugurating a movement in the West to bring capital and labor into closer relationship.

Races Postponed.
BUFFALO, Aug. 4.—The grand circuit races scheduled for today were postponed on account of rain.

SHRIFT IS SHORT

Mob Hangs Hamilton
at Asotin.

CONFESSES TO THE CRIME

Assaulted and Murdered a Child.

LYNCHERS BREAK IN CELL DOOR

Orderly Body of Masked Men Patrols the Streets, Takes the Wretch to a Street Crossing, and Rope Is Thrown Across a Guy Wire.

The body of Mabel Richards, the 13-year-old daughter of Sheriff Richards of Asotin County, Washington, was found in a thicket near Anasone Monday by a party of searchers. The girl had taken a short cut through the brush on her way to Sunday school.
When she did not appear the alarm was given. The girl had been outraged, most of her clothing torn from her body and her skull had been crushed by a club.
William Hamilton, a young rancher, was suspected, arrested and confessed.

ASOTIN, Wash., Aug. 4.—12:45 A. M.— (Special.)—William Hamilton, slayer of little Mabel Richards, is swaying from the end of a rope thrown over a guy wire and his body no longer attracts notice.
The brutish murderer of an innocent child was lynched shortly after midnight.

All night long the feeling that Hamilton should be strangled instantly gained volume. There were those who thought the wretch should be tortured, but it was finally agreed that vengeance would be satisfied by blotting out the life of the beast.

About 12:15, 20 masked men, their faces concealed with handkerchiefs, marched in an orderly manner up the street toward the jail. When they got in sight the guards thrown about the structure called upon them to halt. The answer of the masked men was to throw the guards to the ground. The keys were taken from the guards, the jailward entered and finally entrance was effected into the jail proper.

When the cell containing the guilty man was reached no key could be found to fit it. It was necessary to saw and hack the bars until the door could be opened. What transpired during the operation, what Hamilton said, probably will not be known until some of the lynchers makes public the details, but Hamilton, after about 15 minutes' delay, was dragged out of the cell and down into the yard.

Masked Men Patrol Streets.
Meanwhile another company of masked men about 20 in number had marched up the street and taken positions about the entrance to the jail. All were masked and all were orderly. With these men none attempted to interfere. They kept back the crowd, which had filled the streets all night waiting for the lynching they were certain would occur. As soon as the attack was made upon Hamilton's cell the entire population of the town, their numbers swelled by people from the surrounding country, gathered about the jail.

Soon there came a procession from the jailyard. On either side of the doomed wretch was a masked man, clutching the murderer's arm and hauling him along.
Behind him another masked man pressed closely, with his hand over the murderer's mouth, to prevent possible outcry. Other members of the jail-storming mob came behind. As the sinister group came forward the masked men who had been guarding the entrance to the jail formed a linked chain about the captors and captive, and in this manner they proceeded, keeping the crowd at a respectful distance, about three blocks up the street.
Evidently they had their programme all mapped out.

When the lynchers and Hamilton reached the corner of First and Filmore streets, they halted under a guy wire which crosses the street and joins electric light poles. Here one of the leaders asked Hamilton if he wanted to confess. He did so, repeating substantially the story told in the afternoon. He spoke in an exceedingly low tone, being heard more than ten feet away. Finally he asked that his jewelry, some trifling trinkets he had in his possession and his watch be given to his father and mother, and the promise was made him.

Decide on Hanging.
Then there was another short wait.
The manner of Hamilton's death was under discussion. Some of the mob thought hanging too good for him and wanted to torture the brutish fellow, but the original programme prevailed, and it was decided to hang him. Some one produced a black mask, like that used in a legal hanging, and it was put over the head of Hamilton. It reached down to his shoulders.

The rope was then produced, placed about his neck and the rope was thrown over the guy wire, being hung enough to reach within grasping distance of the lynchers. It was seized by powerful men, the body was lifted off the ground and suspended at a height of about four feet.
The doomed wretch began to gasp for breath and his efforts were plainly discovered.

(Concluded on Second Page.)
