Luck Favors Locals.

While McFarlan pitched heady ball, the luck of the game broke for the locals. For the first three innings two singles and For the first three manys two singles and a double were scattered. Graham poked out his double in the third inning, but by a fast play from McFarian to Hollings-worth, the Sacramento captain was caught off the switch at second. Casey and Hildebrand opened the fourth inn-ing with singles, but by a clever bit of bead work McFarian arguin was helped ing with singles, but by a clever oil of head work McFarian again was helped out of trouble by a fast throw of Mc-Laughtin's smash to Francis, killing Cases at third. The tail twirler, cool as that proverbial cucumber, kept pegging away and from that inning until Engan singled in the linth, not a man got to second base or negotiated a safe hit. He was generous with his passes, and he was lucky in that they were not presented for collection. His long two base hit in the second inning sent home Vignuez, helped a little by Graham's error

Browns Begin Scoring in First.

The Browns began their scoring in the The Browns began their acoring in the first inning. Truck Engan's miss made it possible. In the third, fifth and sixth chapters, they came in couplets until the botal stood at 8. Things booked good for a killing in the sixth, but an all-star play hinds in too sixth, but an alternar pay by Carey who by a mout wohderful one-hand stop back of second base, checked the mod flight of a ball that had been savagely klessed by Hollingsworth's bat, murdered the prospect. In addition to the star playing of Francis, there were the star party the or prancing there were on some profits throws to second by Vigneux, by who in short order broke up Sacramento's hopes of working a hit and run game. So There was also a brilliant bit of diamond display by Anderson who took care of Cissix put outs and two assists. Short out field pop-ups were his casy meat. Hol-lingsworth took care of four deaths and assisted in the killing of a fifth. Van Buren and Nadeau each cared for five tigt were a mixture of hard and easy. Van got in the way of a line drive that closed up the Undertakers with a jam. The score:
