Lobbyists in Colombia Called Home.

RAILROADS LOSE HEART

Expense of Defeating Panama Treaty Is Too Great.

RATIFICATION IS NOW SURE

Pacific Lines Will Try to Arrange Some Kind of a Community-Interest Plan While Waterway is Building.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Aug. 5.—The Pacific railroads have come to the conclusion that there is no further use in attempting to prevent the ratification of the Panama Canal treaty by Colombia, and all the lobbyists who have been at work in the South American Republic, with that in view, have ordered home.

From an authoritative source it was learned this morning that the railroads have spent nearly $500,000 in their efforts to defeat the treaty, but, learning finally that it seems to be a foregone conclusion that the United States is to turn over to those in control to defeat the project, the railroads came to the conclusion that it would be better and cheaper to allow the canal to be constructed and arrange some kind of a community-of-interest plan by which the roads would not suffer.

A railroad man familiar with the matter said today: "The railroads do not believe that the canal can be constructed in less than five years, which will give them all the opportunity they desire to prepare for competition. They believe this is cheaper than to pay Colombia's statements and lobbyists, which would be anyway only a temporary victory. I think we can arrange a schedule of rates with the powers which will control the canal."

It is said that the men who have returned from Colombia have asserted that the treaty is to be signed, the only prospect of delay being due to controversy over the amount of money the citizens in control might get.

ALASKA LANDS ARE WITHDRAWN.

They Will Be Examined With the Idea of Creating a Reserve.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Aug. 5.—Under the direction of the President, the Secretary of the Interior has withdrawn temporarily from entry a tract of about 900 square miles on the north shore of Norton Bay and Golovin Sound, Alaska, with a view to determining the propriety of later creating a forest reserve for the protection of the timber supply of that region. The boundaries of the withdrawal as given in the instructions to the Sitka Land Office, are as follows:

"Beginning at the most easterly point on the shore line of Norton Bay, thence due east 25 miles, thence due north 20 miles, thence due east to the point due north of the most western point on the shore of Golovin Sound, thence in a general easterly direction, following the northern shore line of Golovin Sound, Golovin Bay, Norton Sound and Norton Bay to the point of beginning."

This tract is about 15 miles from east to west, and varies from 40 to 60 miles, north and south. The creation of a forest reserve at this point was urged upon the President by J. C. Grier, of Seattle, who found that Government protection is necessary to preserve the timber supply for use in future development of the mining interests of Northern Alaska.

As the Interior Department knows practically nothing about this land beyond the general statements of Mr. Green, it was decided to withdraw the land from entry and have it officially examined before creating a forest reserve. Special Agent W. Leland, now in Alaska, has been directed to visit the territory covered by the withdrawal and report on the timberland and advisability of creating a permanent reserve.

If his report is favorable a reserve will undoubtedly be established to include such lands as are found to be valuable for their timber, but in all probability a large proportion of the present withdrawal will be restored to the public domain. Should a reserve be created, mining and prospecting will be permitted within its limits the same as on unreserved lands adjoining.

GREAT MIMIC WAR WELL ON.

"Enemy" Is Not Yet Able to Make Any New England Port.

PORTLAND, Me., Aug. 5.—At midnight last night that portion of the New England coast from the boundary to Cape Ann had been theoretically covered by a hostile fleet for a period of 12 hours, but so far as known the "enemy" had not taken advantage of the north-easterly wind and thick weather to slip past the defending fleet and establish himself in any harbor. The attacking fleet has been at sea for about three days, and will have left Saturday to win the game planned by the naval experts in Washington by occupying any of the harbors on this portion of the Coast for a period of five hours without being destroyed.

The defending fleet, under the command of Rear-Admiral Parker, sailed from Bar Harbor at 8 A. M. yesterday, and by night the various ships of the squadron were well distributed along the Coast and the work of patrol had begun. Many of the ships are equipped with a wireless system of telegraph, so that a majority of them can be concentrated at any point within a short time. Several vessels of this fleet were sighted during the day at various points along the Coast.

It is expected that the attacking fleet will head for one of the many harbors to the eastward of this port, as those to the westward, especially the New Hampshire and Massachusetts coast, are comparatively few.

With Admiral Barker to act on the defensive are Admiral Coughlin on his flagship, the Oregon, and Admiral Wise on his flagship, the Tankeo. The vessels of the fleet are the battleships Alabama and Illinois, the cruisers Baltimore, Prairie and Panther, the dispatch boat Vista, and a member of a famous English family, the torpedo-boat destroyer De-chaux, the Tormentor, Barry, Dale and Chancey, two Government tugs and the whale ship Hartford. As the hostile fleet, which sailed Monday under Rear-Admiral Sand, is permitted to make an attack or attempt an anchorage at any time during the morning, it was expected that every vessel on the defense would reach its position before daylight. They must protect the Coast from Cape Ann to Eastport.

ROOT VISITS PRESIDENT.

Army Staff Matters and Littauer-Glove Contest Are Taken Up.

OYSTER BAY, Aug. 5.—President Roosevelt has stored up a number of questions for the Secretary of War, which he will discuss with the President today. Several of these questions have been raised since last evening. Dr. John Campbell, of London, Eng., was one of the callers on the President today. He is the afternoon Secretary of War Root arrived to confer with the President concerning some pending matters of importance in his department. A few details concerning the matter of the Litterer glove contract case, one phase of which has been referred to Attorney-General Knox for an opinion as to whether the Government may recover any part of the money paid under the contract. Secretary Root probably will leave for Washington tomorrow morning.

In a driving rain storm this afternoon General Wood, accompanied by several boys from the Jenkins Orphanage at Charleston, S. C., marched from the village to Sagamore Hill, about three miles, to see the President and his family. The band did not play, but the President's presence, being turned back to Oyster Bay by the secret service officer on duty.

YOUNG TO SUCCEED MILES.

Will Be Last Commanding General and First Chief of Staff.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5.—The President has designated Lieutenant-General Miles to command the Army until August 15. The date of the retirement of General Miles, until August 15, when the general staff law goes into effect and the office of the Commanding General is dispensed with. General Young succeeds Miles as the last Commanding General and the first Chief of Staff, although he will hold the positions only a short time.

Lippincott Will Not Be Promoted.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5.—Colonel Henry Lippincott, of the Medical Department, who was among those designated to be appointed a Brigadier-General and placed on the retired list, will not be promoted. Under the direction of the President, those officers to be promoted must have a Civil War service of one year, and it was decided that Colonel Lippincott did not come within that provision.

July Record for Rural Mail Routes.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5.—The Postoffice Department established during the month of July 245 rural free delivery routes. The total number of routes established for the entire year ended June 30, 1903, was 5684. It is announced at the department that there is remaining of the allotment for the fiscal year a sum sufficient to establish about 400 additional routes.

BRYAN HAS A NEW MAN

Bookwalter of Ohio Deemed a Good Candidate for President.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Aug. 5.—William J. Bryan, coming from Urbana, where he is lectured at the Chautauque this afternoon, has selected two hours today at the Arcade Hotel, of John W. Bookwalter. The two political leaders have been the warmest of friends, and their relations have been of a friendly nature since they met in the well-authenticated report is taken into consideration that the Bryan wing of the Democratic party favors Mr. Bookwalter for the Democratic nomination at the national convention, as discussed by Mr. Bryan following the conference he had with Mr. Bookwalter. He said:

"Bookwalter is one of the best and most ardent Democrats in the country. I know whereof I speak. No man in the two campaigns in which I was the standard-bearer was more enthusiastic and more successful in securing the nomination of the Democratic party as laid down by the fathers than Mr. Bookwalter. Unquestioned, he sent large contributions each time to the National Committee. I am sure that he is a 'dove-in-the-wool' Democrat. It is too early yet to talk definitely about a Presidential nominee. We have the Congressional election to take care of first of next year. It seems to me that Mr. Bookwalter would make a most suitable candidate. He is a farmer and a business man. One ought to appeal to the East and the other to the West."

CONVENTION INDORSSES BRYANISM.

Champaign County Democrats Hear Former Leader Speak Cleveland.

URBANA, O., Aug. 5.—Colonel W. J. Bryan was the attraction here at Chautauque assembly today. The convention of Champaign County Democrats to nominate a ticket and select a delegate to the convention at Columbus two weeks hence was also held today and Mr. Bryan's presence was made the occasion for a conference of leaders. It has been announced as the occasion for making the Johnson programme for the state convention, but the invitations of the committee were not limited to any faction. Among those accepting invitations were Mayor Johnson of Cleveland; John L. Zimmerman, of Springfield, and ex-Congressman Lentz, of Columbus.

While the visitors addressed the convention the principal work was done in private conference. Johnson is recognized as a candidate for the next Democratic nomination for President and all the nominated delegates to the national convention at Columbus this year are considered preliminary to the National contest next year.

It is said that ex-Congressman Lentz will present Johnson's name to the convention for Governor, and if Johnson is nominated that Lentz will be endorsed for Senator.

The delegates to the state convention selected by the county convention are for Zimmerman for Governor. The resolutions indorse both the Chicago and Kansas City platforms and express continued confidence in Bryan. Ex-Representative Lentz and others on the platform congratulated Colonel Bryan on the resolutions.

Colonel Bryan in his address to the large audience, including those attending the Chautauque assembly, denied he was a disturber as charged by some who disturbed the party for years. He mentioned the trouble with the Democratic party began in 1892, when a "bumbo steerer" led the party into the net of Wall Street just as a confederate men work individuals. He indicated that the same "bumbo steerer" could not be repeated and that those who had not been loyal could not resume leadership until after they became at least republicans. The money question was not paramount today, but plutocracy was seeking to control the party for all its purposes.

Mayor Johnson entered as Bryan was speaking and the speaker stopped to shake hands with him while the audience cheered. Colonel Bryan resumed then the discussion of issues of the day and spoke for an hour.

BIG BREAK IN STOCKS

Wall Street Has One of the Wildest Days in a Year.

DECLINES ALL ALONG THE LINE

Two Firms Fall and More Are Likely to Go Down—Sharp & Bryan Are the Largest With Liabilities of $5,000,000.

NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—Two more Stock Exchange failures, making a total of six in the last 11 business days, were recorded today, when Sharp & Bryan and Huriburt, Hatch & Co. announced their inability to meet their obligations. Neither failure occasioned the slightest surprise; in fact, both had been discounted for a week or more.

The failure of Sharp & Bryan came ter of general comment in the street for some weeks. No statement regarding their affairs was obtainable tonight.

State Suit to Oust Glass Trust.

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 5.—Suit to oust the so-called "Glass Trust," the National Glass Company of Pennsylvania, embracing 15 companies, 2 manufacturing, 10 distributing, 2 tableware and 2 tumbler in the United States, from operating in Ohio, was filed in the Circuit Court today by Attorney-General Sheets at the instance of the Federal Glass Company of Columbus. The Ciero Glass Company of Cledo, Ind., and the Federal Company are the only independent companies. The suit is under the Valentine anti-trust law, and it is asserted that the National Company was formed to limit production, manipulate prices and stifle competition.

George Deady, formerly of Washington, Pa., against whom the National Company has pending in the Federal Court a suit to enforce a contract, in which he agreed to quit the glass business, is president of the Federal Company.

Merging of Banks Planned.

NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—The plan for the merger of the Western National Bank of the United States and the National Bank of Commerce in New York was ratified today by the shareholders of the National Bank of Commerce for subscription at the price of $140 a share. The Executive Committees of the Trust Company of America and of the North American Trust Company have agreed, subject to approval, to merge the two companies under the name of the Trust Company of America. The plan is to come before the respective boards of directors and is taken to be voted upon by the stockholders of the two banks.

Dead Man's Accounts Are Short.

NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—An officer of Dunlap & Co., manufacturers, has confirmed rumors circulated to the effect that a shortage has been discovered in the accounts of one of the former officers of the company, which fell heir to the estate of Robert Dunlap, but lighted on the company. The estate of Robert Dunlap, who died three years ago, was appraised at $500,000, and rumor had it that the deficit amounted to $200,000. It is said no action will be taken. The heirs of the estate, which is held in trust by Mrs. Dunlap, are her five children.

Three Fires at Ashland.

ASHLAND, Or., Aug. 5, 1 A. M.—(Special.)—Three incendiary fires occurred in Ashland tonight, the last one near midnight, and the townpeople, as soon as it realized that some incendiary fires were trying to burn it out, were placed in a state of nervousness never before experienced.

Day Begins Ominously.

The day began ominously. Opening prices on the exchange were decidedly lower all through the list, but the break was checked by supporting orders. In fact, veteran observers were heard to declare that but for this support a panic could certainly have occurred. Officers of leading local banks and trust companies declined to discuss the situation except to express confidence as to the sound conditions of financial institutions.

Many Stop-Loss Orders Closed.

Today's shrinkage alone aggregated many millions of dollars. Countless stop-loss orders were caught in the selling avalanche, and it is probable that hundreds of weak accounts were closed in utter disregard of the losses sustained by their owners. Slightly over 1,000,000 shares changed hands during the day. The heaviest trading was in Atchison, Baltimore & Ohio, St. Paul, Erie common, Missouri Pacific, Union Pacific, Pennsylvania, Reading common and United States Steel common, the latter leading the list with a total of more than 8,000 shares.

Much Sympathy for Sharp Firm.

The failure of Sharp & Bryan (W. W. Sharp and C. S. Bryan) excited general sympathy. Both men are members of the board and popular in Stock Exchange circles. Mr. Bryan is a governor of the exchange. The firm was organized in 1891. They were specialists in several stocks, more particularly in Virginia, Carolina Chemical, and their failure is regarded as directly attributable to the decline in those shares. During last year's boom Chemical preferred sold as high as 12 1/2 and the common at 25. They closed today at 10 and 25, respectively.

According to the statement of the assignee, Sharp & Bryan's liabilities are about $2,000,000, mostly secured. Assets are said to include several million dollars of Stock Exchange securities, the value of which is almost altogether contingent on market conditions.

The firm of Huriburt, Hatch & Co., John Henry Huriburt, E. Sanford Hatch (the board member, and J. Pringle Smith) was organized in September, 1890. Its financial embarrassment has been a matter of general comment in the street for some weeks. No statement regarding their affairs was obtainable tonight.

STATE OFFICIALS CALLED

Grand Jury Investigating Boodle Case Calls Them to Deny Rumors.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Aug. 5.—Governor Dockery, Secretary of State Cook, Treasurer Williams and Auditor Allen, who comprise the executive department of the state, were today summoned before the Cole County grand jury, which is investigating the charges of legislative boodle. All the officials acknowledged service and proceeded together to the courthouse in the company of the Attorney-General. The Governor was the first to enter the jury room. He remained about five minutes and was followed by Cook, Williams and Allen, who remained only a short while.

Statements have been made in certain quarters declaring that the state officials should be investigated, and it is probable that the judge called on them in order to deny any accusations that may have been made against them. Judge H. P. Fields, of Carthage, is expected to come before the grand jury tomorrow, when, it is thought, he will be questioned in regard to the distribution of passes to members of the State Legislature.

Ex-Lieutenant-Governor John A. Lee was before the grand jury for two hours this afternoon. He arrived from St. Louis at noon, and went directly to the grand jury room. The nature of his testimony is not known.

STRONG EVIDENCE FOR JETT.

More Witnesses for Defense in the Kentucky Assassination Case.

CENTHIANA, Ky., Aug. 5.—In the Jett and White trial today the defense placed Mrs. Lulu Smith, a sister of Judge Hargis, on the stand. She contradicted Miss Emma Clark, who testified for the prosecution, and corroborated other witnesses for the defense, in placing Curtis Jett near the tree in the courthouse yard after the first shot was fired.

John James Hertz was placed on the stand. He said he saw Ewen running and Marcum fall, and saw Curtis Jett on a street corner near a tree after the shooting. He said Sheriff Callahan was the man who put the bullet in Callahan from going out. Afterward witness seat for Ewen to talk about the murder.

Judge Hargis was cross-examined by Mr. Hertz. In reply to a question as to why he stood by Jett, his nephew, when they did not speak to each other, Hargis said Jett was not treated right when he was brought to court by 50 soldiers with a Gatling gun.

On being pressed for another reason, Hargis stated that Jett's mother, who was his elder sister, had cared for him during the war, when his father had been run away by the Federal army, and that he had been in the hands of the Confederates.

Sheriff Ed Callahan followed Judge Hargis on the witness stand. Several times he contradicted the statements of his testimony. He corroborated Judge Hargis as to what Hargis told Ewen when he sent for him, and asked him as to who did the killing, and if he saw any one else do it. He said he did not know who did it, and he (Ewen) was afraid of his life. Hargis recommended to him to assist the authorities in capturing the murderer, and if necessary, he would put the power of the county behind him, and if that was not enough, he would wire Governor Beckham to send 50 soldiers to Jackson, and they would protect him.

On cross-examination, Callahan contradicted himself several times. Several of his statements did not correspond with his testimony before the grand jury which indicted Jett and White.

Police Make Raid on "Bankers."

NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—The police today raided the offices of Daniels & Co. According to the sign on the door of the office the firm's business was that of a banker. The raid was made on warrants issued by a magistrate, and seven prisoners were taken, including Thomas H. Daniels, the alleged head of the firm. All were accused of grand larceny. The warrants were issued on the complaint of Edwin E. Collins, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, that he had lost $150 through the firm. Collins told the police, however, that he had given almost a thousand dollars to the firm, and had never received a penny from them in return.

Missouri Briber Is Sentenced.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 5.—Harry A. Faulkner, former member of the House of Delegates, was today sentenced to three years' imprisonment in the Penitentiary. At the first trial Faulkner was convicted, but the Supreme Court reversed and remanded the case. The jury that tried the case the second time disagreed.

The jury was out 45 minutes. Faulkner's counsel immediately filed a motion for a new trial and bond in the sum of $15,000.

WINCHESTER, Tenn., Aug. 5.—Simon Booker and wife, who lived in a small cabin on the mountain in Franklin County, were murdered last night, and their home burned. ## FISH COMING UP THE RIVER.

Seines at Astoria Are Not Making Phenomenal Hauls.

ASTORIA, Or., Aug. 5.—(Special.)—While the canneries and cold-storage plants are still blocked with fish, it is evident that the present run is rapidly making its way up the river, and even the seines are not making so large hauls as they have been doing during the past few days, but at they are better limited to the amount delivered. By the falling off of the run does not mean that more are being caught than can be handled, as they are still plentiful, and many are being shipped to the up-river canneries. The reported new run has not materialized in any large numbers, although a few of the smaller fish are being caught at the mouth of the river, especially in the north channel.
