

CHRYSTAL BALLS

Turkey Must Punish Slayer of Consul.

PROMPT ACTION DEMANDED

Officials Responsible for Deed Must Also Suffer.

EXPLANATIONS NOT SUFFICIENT

Great Britain Fears the Order Will Be Followed by Others Which Will Affect the Whole Balkan Situation.

TURKEY TAKES ACTION.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 10.—The Vail of Monastir has been dismissed and Hussein Hilmi Pasha, ex-Governor of Yemen, Arabia, has been appointed his successor. An imperial order orders a court-martial to assemble at Monastir to try the assassins of the Russian Consul at Monastir, who was killed last week by a Turkish gendarme, but of all the military and civil officials in any way responsible for the crime.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 10.—The czar has demanded the exemplary punishment not only of the murderer of the Russian Consul at Monastir, but of all the military and civil officials in any way responsible for the crime.

POWERS AGREE ON A POLICY.

ROME, Aug. 10.—It is stated here that there has been an exchange of views between the powers, regarding the situation in Macedonia. The British and French Ambassadors at Constantinople, telegraphed August 9 as follows: "The Russian Consul at Monastir has fallen the victim of a atrocious crime. The Grand Vizier and the Turkish Foreign Minister have come to me with expressions of regret in the name of the Sultan. He has expressed his indignation and informed me that the assassin was a gendarme named Halim, and that he will be subjected to the severest punishment, and the Vail of Monastir will be removed from his post."

INSURGENTS ALL WELL ARMED.

SOFIA, Bulgaria, Aug. 10.—The representative of the Macedonian revolutionary committee have published a statement saying that the number of insurgents in the district of Krushevo and by taking advantage of the Turkish gendarmes, they have secured with rifles purchased in Greece. It also states that on August 2, 600 insurgents destroyed three detachments of Turkish troops numbering altogether 100 and attacked the town of Kitebevo, but failed to occupy it. The insurgents, however, destroyed the Turkish village of Drougova, whose inhabitants fled to the assistance of the garrison of Kitebevo.

In hand, and instructions would be given to that effect. Unfortunately, Europe had not the same opportunity of bringing pressure to bear on the rebel bands. The latter's deliberate and avowed object was to make the condition of Macedonia so unsafe that, at whatever cost to the peace of the world, there must be some intervention on the part of Russia or Austria or both.

VIENNA View of the Situation.

VIENNA, Aug. 10.—Officials here realize the gravity of the situation arising from the murder of M. Rostokovski, but believe that Russia, in spite of the provocation, will maintain a peaceful attitude as long as the Balkan situation remains calm.

TURKEY IS MUCH ALARMED.

ALREADY SERIOUS SITUATION IN MACEDONIA WILL BE AGGRAVATED. CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 10.—The murder of the Russian Consul, Rostokovski, has caused intense excitement here, and is the sole topic of conversation in the streets, cafes and public buildings. The general belief is that the incident is bound to aggravate considerably the already serious situation in Macedonia, and it is felt that it will undoubtedly encourage the Bulgarians to support the insurrectionary movement, which is spreading rapidly, notably to the southward of Monastir.
