Since the departure of the Browns for fresh fields the Jeffries-Corbett fight has almost superseded baseball as the principle topic of conversation on the street corners and in the cigar stores.
"I may have poor eyes," said Pete Grant last night as he settled himself in a defensive sittitude against the counter in a tobacco emporium. "My eyes may need medical attention, but I can't see anything but Jeffries to this fight."
"Then what's the reason the odds are

"Then what's the reason the odds are squoted as short as I to I?" asked the man behind the counter.
"That," explained the oracular Peter, "ge the way the Jeffries people are offering to bet, but I haven't seen any one who was willing to bet I to 2 on Corbett. Have you?"
"And you never will." said Tommy body known it is contained to the strong men who could be depended upon in a pinch.
"I have no complaint to make because I was released," said Andrews last night.
"My only grievance is the unceremonious manner in which I was stabled. #### CORBETT IN GREAT CONDITION. Official Physician Pronounces Him

Better Man Than Ever Before. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. II.—James J. Corbett was to-day examined by Dr. Clarence F. Tillman, the official physician of the Yosemite Athletic Club. After being analyzed, sounded and tapped, he was protourced in perfect health, and, in fact, a better man than ever before. In a better man than ever before. In his report, Doctor Tillman says of Corbett;
"Realizing the benefits of physical power in common with his marvelous speed, he has worked to that end with speed, he has worked to that end with studied care. By a system of exercise, he has developed the muscular force required to sustain him in the strugte for the championship with his giant opponent."

To-day, Corbett took a jaunt on the road and practice with the gloves in the symmesium. He is in perfect condition and knows it, but is not willing to take a change on going back in his take a chance on going back in his preparation by taking an ill-advised rest. Like Jeffries, he has varied his work with pleasure, and has avoided the nervous strain which marked his condition in getting ready for previous contests.

BIG ROWING RACE FOR '04 FAIR, Captain Paul Boynton, the Famous Swimmer, In Planning the Event.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 11,-Captain Paul Boynton, well known in aquatic circles as having swam the English Channel and for various other feats of daring, is at pres-ent in this city. He has just returned from a European trip, and the purpose of his visit here is to interest local athletic and the fair officials in an international rowing race which he expects to ar-range to take place on the Missouri River during the Louisiana Purchase Exposition opening. Boynton has had a conference with Secretary Genslinger, of the Missouri Athletic Club, and has succeeded in obtaining the promised co-operation of that official. All the boat clubs and the Southwestorn Rowing Association will be con-suited in the matter. The plan is to hold races similar to those held at the Paris exposition of 1900, with several crews from various nations competing in different aquatic events.

SHAMROCK GAINS IN BETTING. Indications Are That It Will Be Even

NEW YORK, Aug. II.—Wall street brokers and others who take an interest in the coming races for America's cup between the Shamnock III and the Relianae believe that the betting will be even money, and take your pick, before the first race August 20. At present Reliance rules favorably at odds of 7 to 20.

Much betting has already been done on the result of the races, and many men on the ficor of the Stock Exchange are show-ting an inclination to take the short end. There is plenty of money to back the American boat, however, and to date many thousands have already been put up. One broker who makes the odds on the races says that he has already placed several thousand dollars on the Shamrock. The shortening of the price in the betting is due to the good showing of the new Shamrock against the first one. HURRICANEMOVING NORTH
