POISONED FROM EATING ICECREAM.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Aug. 18.—Over 50 people, the majority of whom are tourists in this city and Manitou from all parts of the country, have been poisoned from eating icecream sold by local dealers from a consignment of cream received Sunday morning from one of the largest creameries and dairy companies in the state situated near Denver. An analysis by Health Officers reveals the fact that the cream was charged with formaldehyde, better known as embalming fluid, to keep it from souring. No deaths have resulted, although several cases are critical. The name of the company having the cream has not been made public. Health Officers of this city state that arrests will be made at once. The case promises to be sensational.
