SACRAMENTO, Cal., Aug. 26.—(Special)—Today's game between the Senators and the Portland Browns was another terrific singging match, in which both teams flugs science to the wind and smashed the Sull our regardless. Butler was the slab artist for the first four innings and presented a fine class of twirling, but after Graham and McLoughlin had lined out three-baggers and Hogan and Egan had doubles to their credits, to say nothing of the singles that went afield, he retired in disgust and was relieved by Loucks, who also had his lieved by Loucks, who also had his Fluggraid sent them down the alley for the Senators during the four innings, and the Browns did things to him. In the first making they bunched four hits on his delivery, and repeated the dose in the fourth inning, but when they made five bits more in the fifth, Manager Fisher threw up the sponge and sent Brown in to compete with Loucks.

At the end of the second inning a desiston of O'Conneil did not meet with the superoval of Nadeau and he walked out to O'Conneil and kicked so vigorously that he wis ordered out of the game, and then out of the field. This brought Sammy Vigneux to the front, and he got like treatment. Theilman went out in left field and did great work, so that Nadeau's services were not missed. Hess dean's services were not missed. Hers made a fine running catch of a foul ball. Blake lined out two singles and a three-banger in his four times at bal. Twirlor Cutter has a slight attack of pneumonia and it looks series should be ple for the Browns SACRAMENTO.
