STATE FAIR RACES

Large Entry List of High-Class Horses.

MANY IN BIG PACING EVENT

Greater Salem Stake of $2000 At tracts Numerous Starters-Lewis & Clark Stake for Trotters.

That racing at the Oregon State Fair will be the best ever held on Lone Oak track is well assured by the large entry list of high-class horses that have beer received in each of the harness events. It is a well-known fact that the Oregon State Fair is the Mecca of harness racing on the Pacific Coast. It has been built up from a local affair to the largest racing event in the whole Northwest. That horsemen have confidence in the meeting is shown by the large number of entries, coming from very section of the Pacific Coast. The Greater Salem stake of $3000 for 2:17 pacers will be one of the big events of the fair. A very large number of entries have been made in this event and new horses will meet in this race that never have met before. This race will be on Salem day, Wednesday, Sep-

The Lewis and Clark stake of $3000 for 2:30 trotters will be another event full of uncertainties. This race is also well filled with the best trotters on both the Cali-fornia and Northern circuits. Sweet Marie, who has not lost a heat this year, will be in this race, and Dr. Hammond owned by W. H. Goodali, of San Fran cisco, is coming up to measure speed with e unbeaten daughter of McKinney. W. Clark, Jr., of Montana, son of the millionaire Senator from that state, has this race that will likely seen in the front row. Besides these there are some good entries from Idaho, Colo-rado, Washington and Oregon. The one thing about the harness eevnts at the fair is the fact that the horses entered there are owned and controlled by a wealthy class who are out for the sport and each horse will be seen trying his best for the goal. The Lewis and Clark stake will be on Portland day, Thursday, September 17. The Southern Pacific Company will run an excursion on that day from Portland and return, placing the fair, including admission to the fair and races at $1.40. There will be other featof special interest at the fair on Following are the entries and the days each race will be raced, which shows that every day will be a big one.

PROVIDENCE, R. L. Sept. 2.—The Roger Williams $10,000 stake for 2:14 trot-ters was the feature of the third day's racing in the Grand Circuit meeting at Narragansett Park today. Billy Buck, a bay gelding, owned by E. E. Smathers, carried off the big purse, winning in three straight heats.

TO END RACE TROUBLES. Prominent Georgian Would Put Negroes on Some Island,

CHICAGO, Sept. 3. - John Temple Graves, of Georgia, delivered an address "The Problem of the Races" this orning before the 48th convention of the University of Chicago. He said in part: "The prejudice of a race is a pointing of Providence, and the antago peoples is the fixed policy by which God peoples the different portions of the uni-verse and establishes the individuality of the nations. The act that brought these peoples together on this continent was a sin of the fathers, a sin of greed, an iniquity of trade, and the sorrow and suffering of the present is for the sin of the past-a sin against nature and a sin against God. The curse can be lifted only when nature is vindicated and God is obeyed. The problem will be solved only when the negro is restored to the 'bounds of his habitation.

"It is neither impossible nor impracticable. The elements are willing and the way is in reach. This is not a day of impossibilities. The hand of the Almighty is steadily opening the way.

"It may be that the islands of the sea were placed by Providence in our keeping the time.

"The negro is an accident; an accident, an unwilling, a blameless, but an unwholesome, unwelcome, helpless, unassimilable element in our civilization. He is not made for our times. He is not made to share in the duty and the destiny which he perplexes and beclouds. Let us put him kindly and humanely out of the way Let us give him a better chance than he has ever had in history and let us have done with him. Let us solve his problem frankly, fearlessly, nobly and speedily. Let us put it behind us. Let us purity our politics of the perplexity. Let us lib-erate the South to vote and to think like freemen upon the mighty issues of the PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 1.-Something ew in the wedding ceremony formula has been evolved at the marriage of Katherine Fisher, of this city, and E. S. Ross, of Brooklyn. The word "obey" was omitted by the magistrate, and after the certificate had been properly filled out and signed Mrs. Ross produced a document which proved to be a sort of bill of rights, in which Ross clearly defined what he concedes to be the personal and inalienable rights of his wife and in which the latter sets forth the admitted prerogatives and privileges claimed by her husband. > SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 1 - (Special.)-Although Pete Lehman's hospital corps men slugged Dan McFarian for 16 safe hits in today's game, the Recruits didn't even come close to winning out, the final score standing II for Portland against 7 for Oakland. It was a peculiar game in many ways. Not a man was struck out by either McFarlan or Graham, only one error was made during the entire play, and that one by the winning team whom and that one by the winning team, whose base hits were two less than the disor canized crew from across the bay, while the losing team batted out four two-base hits-all that were registered.

For the first three innings it looked as though McFarlan was there to shut out the Recruits. But in the fourth Pete's cripples fell on the young man from the rainy country, and he was easy after that. Graham was in poor form when he opened the game, and in the first two innings he was touched up for eight runs and nine hits. After that he warmed to his work, and only five more hits were secured by Portland in the ensuing six innings. Oakiand's batting raily in the ourth was the surprise of the day.

Portland retaliated in its half by send ing two men across the rubber. Van Buren reached first on Franck's juggle of a hot liner, Nadeau was walked and An-derson sacrificed. Francis scored Van by driving a hot bounder to Moskiman. Hollingsworth pushed a long one out into the left garden, sending Nadeau to the ome station Again in the sixth Oakland hit up a patting streak and netted two more runs. Oakland had scored seven runs, having made six safe hits in this inning. It was its last run-getting performance, however, and, although the Recruits found McFarlan's offering for two more hits dur ing the game, not another score was put on Lohman's tally sheet.

Portland was also "all in," and the finish shows the following official story:

ATTELL DEFEATS REAGAN

Californian Gets Decision in Battle for Featherweight Championship. ST. LOUIS, Sept. 2.-Abe Attell of Sar Francisco, tonight received the decision over Johnny Reagan, of New York, in a 20-round contest for the world's feather-weight championship, weight 122 pounds at the ringside. The contest was one of the cleverest and fastest ever seen here. Reagan showed remarkable cleverness in blocking and in-lighting, and so perfect was his guard it seemed almost impossible for Attelf to get through. His inside work troubled Attell considerably.

Abe seemed unable to land an effective blow, while on the other hand Reagan re-peatedly sent lefts and right to head and stomach, causing Attell to wince and frequently appeal to the referee. Attell seemed clearly beaten for the first, 15 rounds. In the sixteenth round, Abe sent in a left and a right which shook Johnny up considerably, and the tide changed to the Californian's favor. From then on Abe had but slightly the better of it. In the nineteenth, Abe rushed Reagan to the ropes and sent in several stiff punches. Reagan came back strong, but his punches on stomach and cheek landed lightly. He, however, falled to even matters. The twentieth was give and take, with honors about even.

The decision was received with some signs of disapproval. James J. Corbett was present at the ringside.

Berg Won From McMillan. WHATCOM, Wash., Sept 3.-D. A. Mc-Millan, of Buffalo, N. Y., tonight failed to throw John Berg, of this city, the Pacific Coast champion, two falls in an our. He gained the first fall in 24 utes. Berg won the second in 29 minutes, thus winning the match, M'CLELLAND GAINS FAVOR. Sporting Opinion Not All One Way on Fight With Herrers.

Rarely has a fighter been somewhat neg lected by the sports and then made the rapid strides to popularity that Jack Mc-Clelland, the young Pittsburger booked to fight Herrera, has made in the last few days. The reputation of the Mexican, enhanced by Biddy Bishop's clever press work, had the local sports "faded." The fighter from the far South, who cut down Young Mo-watt and Toby Irwin and Kid Broad, was to be the only person in the ring, if one might judge from the sidewalk conversa-tion. Neither would any of the wise ones bet money on McClelland at any odds.

"What's the use of odds if he's sure going to lose?" said the talent.
Today the sentiment is about evenly divided. The reputation of Aurelio may still overshadow that of the lad from the smoke-laden town in Pennsylvania, but those who have seen or heard of McClelland's work in the East are betting no money on Herrerra.

McClelland is said to have developed a punch that would jar an ox and of his ring generalship there has never been a question. He certainly made the hit of his life when he beat Willie Fitzgerald and his friends claim that he is now 100 per cent better. He is young, does not grink a drop and has never smoked. Many of the Eastern fight followers are playing McClelland to win. They point out that a fighter who can box has the Mexican at a disadvantage. If the fight goes the limit, they can see nothing in it but a victory for McClelland on points This is Herrerra's great drawback, which no amount of training can overcome. A quick-footed fighter worries the Mexican into many unwise openings, of which a man with a bruising punch like McClelland can take advantage

The weight called for in the articles—
128 pounds—is said to suit McClelland to a dot. The general opinion is that, if McClelland gets the decision, he will attain it on points, but a Chicago sporting writ-R.H.E. he said that it was not unlikely that Mc-This prediction, by the way, is in line with McClelland's own announcement. He has written to friends in Portland that he will sail into the Mexican and mix things from the gong tap. McClelland is certainly fast enough to do this, but it would seem like throwing away all the advantage that his cleverness and science give him. The Pittsburger is expected to arrive today.

Fog Stops Rifle Match. SEAGIRT, N. J., Sept. 3.-A heavy fog completely enveloped the rifle range here this afternoon, and ended all work be-fore the targets, preventing the finish of he interstate regimental match and the New Jersey National Guard match. The Columbia trophy match was the only one concluded. Twenty of the 27 teams c peting for the interstate trophy finished, but the only work done in the New Jersey National Guard match was the firing at the 200-yard stage.
