SPECTACULAR CAMP FOR ARMY.

Troops at Fort Riley Will Be Stationed in the Shape of a Fan,

JUNCTION CITY, Kan., Sept. 2 .- The plans for the blg camp at Fort Riley during the maneuvers show that the camp will be one of the most spectacular ever planned. The 14,000 troops that are to participate will be encamped on the Re-publican River flats just north of Junction tuty in the shape of a gigantic fan, which will have its apex near the bluffs, a half mile further north of the town. At the apex of the camp will be the headquar-ters of the commanding general and his staff

Streets will divide the of maneuver. Streets will divide the camps, and form, when the tents are pitched, the ribs of the fan. This form of encampment will enable the commanding general to be at all times within easy nunication with all parts of the camp. An extensive line of water pipes will be laid at the camp site before the arrival of the troops.

The space between the headquarters of the commanding general and the camp of the various organizations will be large enough for a review of all the troops that will be assembled on the reservation for the maneuvers.

TRADE IN JAPANESE WOMEN

wailan Society Back of It.

HONOLULU, Sept. 3 .- The Federal auinorities, who have been working for many months to break up the trade in Japanese women being brought here for immoral purposes, have been rewarded by the discovery of an organization of extraordinary scope, which has existed among brothel keepers in these islands for a long time.

The Federal officers, by careful watching, managed to locate the headquarters of the society, and seized, among other things, a complete set of books, showing the status of the association in all its phases. Among the books is one giving a complete list of the members of the soclety. Another book shows that the soclety has a fund of large proportions de-voted to the defense of members arrested for conducting the illicit trade, and giving in some detail the receipts and expanditures of the organization.

MOONEY IS AFTER HIS PLACE Employers Inform National Leader That They Expect Him to Make Men Obey His Orders-Mooney

May Be Suspended.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 1 .- James Mooney, the district leader, who is re-garded as responsible for the Novinger coal strike, is asserted to be holding out against John Mitchell to further his al-leged aspirations for the presidency of the United Mineworkers of America. Mr. Mooney has, it is stated, worked at cross-purposes with President Mitchell ever since before the Pittsburg, Kan., confer-ence, two months ago, when Mitchell went so far as to tell Mooney to sit down and keep still. In any event, the situation in the Novinger district promises to furnish an interesting fight. Now that the miners there have violated the agreement reached by President Mitchell and the miners at Chicago recently, the operators say they will make no effort to conciliate the strikers. The operators, furthermore, have told the National board of the United Mineworkers that they expect the board to control its of the employment of Chinese on the conown men, and if they fail to do so, they will be unable to deal with the officers of the National organization at the Kansas City conference next week, when it was hoped all differences would be wiped out. Thus the situation has developed into a supplies shall be used on the work. uestion of authority. If the men still re-use to work after Vice-President T. J. Investigate Before Sending Troops, DENVER, Sept. 3 .- Governor Peabody has received telegrams from the Mayor of Victoria and others demanding that troops be sent to the Cripple Creek district for the protection of life and property. Governor Peabody decided not to call out the militia until he received a report from General Chase, Attorney-General Miller and Lieutenant McClelland, whom he sent to Cripple Creek to look over the situation. Sheriff Robertson, of Teller County, has refused to ask for troops at present. He says he thinks there will be very few violations of the law resulting from the strike.

Mother of Women Stenographers.

New York Herald. At Fresh Pond, L. I., the body of Mrs. Eliza Boardman Burnz, known as the mother of women stenographers and an advocate of phonotype reform, was cremated last week. She was a member of the Society for Ethical Culture and of the New York Cremation Society, and Dr. Elliott of the Society for Ethical Culture of Manhattan delivered a brief address describing her work.

Mrs. Burnz died at Walter's Park, Pa., June 19. She was born in Rayne, Eng-land, October 31, 1823, and came to this country when 14 years old, going to live with relatives in Pulaski, Tenn. For some time she taught school, and in 1845 learned the Pitman system of shorthand and later became a phonotypic reformer. In 1875, when, it is asserted, there were but ten women shorthand writers in New York, she induced Peter Cooper to allow her to teach shorthand to young women in Cooper Institute. It is said that the thousands of young women shorthand writers of today are indebted to Mrs. Burnz's method of instruction, which is still in vogue. It was while promulgating her latest educational idea of teaching children in kindergartens the way words are made of separate sounds before they knew the letters that she was stricken with an illness, which left her an invalid.

PROTOCOL MADE PUBLIC.

Control of Wireless Telegraphy Favored by International Conference.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 3 .- The final protocol of the international wireless tele-graph conference, held in Berlin last month, was made public today at the State Department. General Greely was chairman of the American Commission. This commission had no authority to make any agreement for the United States, but the protocol embodies in most of the sential features the views expressed by the American commissioners. Another conference will be held, and if all delegates have full powers, the protocol no doubt will be embodied in a treaty for the government of international wireless telegraph communication. Following is the text of the protocol: Article 1 The exchange of correspondance between vessels at sea and wireless coast stations, open to the general tele-graphic service, is subject to the following conditions: 1-Any fixed station whose field of action extends to the sea is styled a coast sta-2-Coast stations are bound to receive and transmit telegrams originating from or intended for vessels at sea, without any distinction of wireless telegraph system used by the latter.

3-The contracting parties shall publish any technical information likely to facili-tate or expedite communication between const stations and ships at sea. However, each one of the contracting governments may authorize the stations established on its territory, under such conditions as it Art. 5. The service of the wireless tele-

The latter is, as the first one, fixed according to the number of words, and such number of words being reckoned in acco with the international telegraphic regula tions mentioned in paragraph (a) heretofore. It includes: First, a tax styled "coast tax," which belongs to the said station; second, a tax called "vessel tax," which belongs to the post established on the ship. A coast station tax is sub-ject to the approval of the state on whose territory the station is established, and a vessel tax to the approval of the state whose flag is borne by the vessel. Each one of these two taxes is to be fixed on the basis of an equitable remuneration for telegraphic work.

Art. 2. Regulations which will be an-nexed to the convention that is to be per-fected will establish the rules applicable to the exchange of communications between the posts and on board the vessels. The provisions of these regulations may be at any time modified by common understanding between the contracting parties. Art. 3 .- The provisions of the telegraphic convention of St. Petersburg are applica-ble to the transmission of wireless telegra-phy, in so far as they do not conflict with those of the future conventions. Art. 4. The wireless stations must, un less there should be absolute impossibil-
