His Dog "Salmonne."—Jack Seed is be-mosning the loss of a very handsome, valuable and favorite English setter, which died a day or two since, after be-ing five days under the care of a veteriing five days under the care of a veelnary surgeon, leaving a litter of pupples a few weeks old. He says he would not have taken 2500 for the animal. He has no definite knowledge of what caused her death, but thinks she was "salmoned."
For the information of those who may For the information of those who may not understand what this means, it may be said that a meal of salmon or, as some claim, a meal off the head or some particular part of a salmon, will cause the death of a dog. It is a risky matter to keep such valuable breeding dogs in the city. Whenever they are allowed to go at large the party will disband. It promises to be a very enjoyable and novel outing. large they run all about the neighborhood exploring the premises of neighbors, atracted by the smell of a bone or anything that they can eat and nothing escapes their keen delicate olfactories. So they are likely to find a chunk of salmon in a garbage barrel or a salt codfish hanging in a cellar. No matter how well fed they may be at home their keen noses lead them to go smelling about. Mr. Seed has a valuable dog of fine breed left besides the litter of pupples; so he is not left dog-less; but this cannot console him for the less of his valuable pet. Many people think that people in a city should dispense with dogs, or not keep more than one at most and keep that one at home, but others think they have a right to keep as many as they please, if they pay the license.

IDAHO'S COURTEST TO SHERIFF STORET .-Sheriff W. A. Storey, who went to Mon-Sheriff W. A. Storey, who went to Mon-tana with a requisition from Governor Chamberlain on Governor John Morri-son of that state to secure the arrest and return here of Oscar C. Stone, who bun-coed so many people of Portland and vi-cinity, is much pleased with the successful-outcome of this trip and the courtesy he received from Idaho officials. On present-ing his requisition to Governor Morrison, a warrant was at once issued for the arrest one and Governor Morrison allowed no charge to be made for it saying that if they had a bad man from Oregon there the Oregon authorities were welcome to him and he would not increase the cost of getting him. The warrant was placed the hands of Sheriff Whitney, of Ada County, who arrested Stone in the pres-ence of Sheriff Storey and turned the prisover to him. Governor Morrison also called a carriage and took Sheriff Storey for a drive through Boise and its environs, including a visit to the great natatorium there. Mr. Storey says that he considers there. Mr. Storey says that he considers Boise the most beautiful city in the Northwest, outside Portland, of course. As Sheriff Storey had taken Deputy F. Mathews along to assist him in guarding the prisoner, the journey home was made in comparative comfort, and Stone safely landed in jail/here.

COULDN'T SEE THE POINT .- It is very disgusting to most wits or jokers to get off a pun, joke, wittleism or anything in-tended to provoke mirth and to have it fail flat, on account of the inability of the person on whom it is sprung to compre-hend it. A complaint on such a score was lodged with an Oregonian reporter yesterday by a man who had read the paragraph published a day or two ago about the baldheaded man who had the whole top of his head ripped off in the disaster to the Elks' excursion train. He said he had friend whose head was bald from his eyebrows clear back down to his shirt collar. He had told this friend that he had an infallible recipe, by the use of which be could have hair on his head all the time. When asked what this recipe was, he was told to have a rabbit painted all er the bald spot. He stared wildly, and d not appear to understand, so he was "Paint a rabbit all over the bald spot and you will always have 'hare' there. Don't you see?" "And yet," sald the complainant, "he could not see the

THE HOUSEWIFE'S LAMENT.-Housewives the high price of fruits of all kinds, and vegetables, and generally, of the cost of everything used in housekeeping. Many have given up the idea of "putting up" the usual supply of fruit for Winter, as peaches of any decent quality are very scarce, and unreasonably high in price. Tomatoes are dear, and so is everything clse. As one disgusted woman said yesterday: "What is the use of living in Ore-gon where one hears so much about abundant crops of fine fruits of all kinds and yet cannot obtain any kind at any reasonable price and good fruit can hardly be procured even at unreasonable prices. One can hardly get an apple that is not wormy, nor a plum, pear or peach that is not scabby, and yet the talk about magnificent fruits and bountiful crops goes on Gearhart Park and Return on Saturday, if possible, from the host of loyal friends in Portland. The A. & C. R. R. will sell Saturday special excursion tickets from Portland to Gearhart and Secondary Secondar for $4, good for return passage until Oc-tober 15. Train leaves Union Depot 8 A. M. daily and runs through direct without transfer, arriving at Gearhart 12:20 P. M. and Seaside 12:30 P. M. Portland Seaside Saturday afternoon flyer leaves Union Depot every Saturday at 2:30 P. M., reaching Gearhart 6:40 P. M. and Seaside 6:50

The regular sale will open Wednesday, September 16, giving the season subscribers two days to reserve ahead of the daily P. M., returning Sunday leaves Seaside 5 P. M., Gearhart 5:10 P. M. and arrives Portland 9:40 P. M. Tickets on sale 248 Alder street and Union Depot.

DUCK SHOOTING POOR .- Persons who duck hunting on the first of the month, report ducks quick numerous on the preserves, both young ones bred here and full-grown ones come down from the north. No very large bags were made, however, owing to the fine sunshiny day which is not favorable for shooting ducks and also to the fact that people were having along the shores of some of the iakes. It is thought that there will be bet-ter shooting on Sunday and that the shooting will continue pretty good, but of course will not be up to the standard until the equinoctial or some other heavy gale lrives the main flight now loading around the Coast, inland to the lakes where they can find supplies of wheat awaiting PRESIDENT ESTES SPEAKS TONIGHT .- Robert Brooke, of Seattle, organizer for the State of Washington for the United Brotherhood of Railway Employes, ad-dressed a meeting of railroad men held in the A. O. U. W. Hall last evening. Mr. Brooke made a short argument in favor of establishing branches of his organization in Portland. George Estes, president of the Brotherhood, was to have addressed the meeting but was unable to attend, owing to a severe cold that made it impos-sible for him to speak. Mr. Estes will be able to speak tonight and a second meeting has been called.

will have their excursion to Macleay Park. Each person is asked to bring an individual lunch, a coffee cup, and one Chinese lantern. One of the Willamette Heights trolley cars will take you to Whlamette bridge, where the Mamamas will meet for the start at 2:30 o'clock P. M. The journey to Macleay Park will be leisurely taken and the "spread" will take place in a rustic spot at 4:30 o'clock. All the individual lunches will be placed on the common table, and as the committee hopes for considerable diversity in the line of refreshments, it is asked that Maramas will not all bring chickens. After this "spreal," literary and musical exercises will follow. A few remarks will be given as to the recent outing of the Sierra Club at Mount Whitney, and the other outlings at Crater Lake and and the other outings at Crater Lake and the Three Sisters. A stroll will be leisure-ly taken over the trail until the hill back of St. Vincent's Hospital is reached. Here the Chinese lanterns will be lighted and the Mazamas will form a circle around large and appreciative audiences during all the week. Commencing Sunday night the Mordant-Humphrey Company will produce 'The Legion of Honor,' a play adapted from the French and one that has been highly successful in New York and other Eastern cities.

Great German Comedy Team. When Raymond and Caverly appear at the Empire Theater next week, beginning on Monday, September 7, this fashionable theater should be packed to the doors Raymond and Caverly are not only the highest salaried German comedy team on the road today, but their act is without a doubt the greatest turn of its kind out-side the City of New York. This duo of dialect artists has just closed a starring tour in Rogers Bros.' plays and in order to fill their vaudeville engagements have en obliged to cancel European time.

Empire Crowds Applaud, The melodious tinkling of the three Kuhns on the mandolin at the Empire Theater this week causes the audiences to rise up and demand encore after encore. There are many other clever acts on the varied programme at this popular play-house, but the spectacular work of the Tetsuwari Japanese troupe is the crowning feature of them all. JOHN KENDRICK BANGS' BEST HUMOR

A New "Genial Idiot" Series Will Begin Publication in The Sunday Oregonian.

Commencing with the next issue, September 6, The Sunday Oregonian will publish a series of talks by John Kendrick Bangs on live

Every one who knows the best product of American humor in the last generation knows "Coffee and Repartee." Probably in no other of his works has Mr. Bangs quite equaled the individualizing raciness of that jeu d'esprit. Now it must be within the memory of every reader of "Coffee and Repartee" that the hinge-the delightful interlocutor of that scintillating collection of dialogues-is a certain "genial idiot" upon whose monumental and impenetrable impudence and inexhaustible wit the whole airy but potent mechanism of laugh.

Fortunately for the public who seek solace for their cares in light reading, Mr. Bangs has been persuaded that this "genial idiot" is too good to perish-that the world wants to hear more of him. The author has not been brought to take this view merely as good commercial policy; he has heartly realized that half the idiot's funny things have not been printed. In this persuasion he has prepared a new series of papers which the "genial idiot" will illuminate with perhaps even more than the brilliancy of his former boarding-house

Mr. Bangs' first paper of the new series WILL BE PUBLISHED NEXT SUNDAY.

Tuesday evening. He was severely beat-en. Harr says a couple of highwaymen funny farce-comedy "Where Is Cobb?" did the act. The police say a couple of Harr's rivals for the affections of a young lady were the sole source of the physical to which the lineman was subected. That was what the detectives re-ported after investigating the matter. The officers failed to report who is now high man in the estimation of the fair blect of the encounter.

COMING ATTRACTIONS.

Opening of the Baker Theater. ater will open on Sunday afternoon, September 13, with the Neill-Morosco Com pany, in a sumptuous production of "In the Palace of the King." The engagement of the Nelli-Morosco Company covers a period of eight weeks, during which time some of the most elaborate creations of all the latest successful plays will be given, with a completeness of staging and detail that has never been compassed in the Northweet. The Neill-Morosco Company will be followed by the Baker Theater Company, which played an unprecedented engagement at this house last season of 39 weeks. The company has been strengthened and improved in every way possible and comes home after a long run at Morosco Burbank Theater, Los Angeles,

At Cordray's Next Week,

The play at Cordray's next week will suggest those of Ibsen and Sudermann, in that it deals with the sorrows of the human heart. "The Legion of Honor" tells a strong story of love and sacri-Comedy relieves its somber nee. Comedy relieves its somber moments. One of its strong situations is the scene between a father and his son, neither knowing the existence of the other. A challenge follows, and is prevented in time to keep the son from becoming his father's slayer. The Mordant-Humphrey Company, which will present this play is an Eastern stock organization. sent this play, is an Eastern stock organ-ization, and Edwin Mordant and Ola Humphrey form a strong attraction in themselves. The supporting company is a well-balanced one, and is composed of Mortimer Martini, Paul Pilkington, C, Norman Hammond, Julia Wolcott, Jane Templeman, Edna Kecley, H. Owen Evrysole, William E. Haynie at Shields' Next Week. There is a certain lady in Portland who has never attended Shields' Park, although her son has asked her a score of times, but when she heard that Grace Walton Haynie was to appear she even went so far as to ask the son to take her Sunday night. Her interest is aroused partly through curiosity, but like many others, she would like a photograph of a wife who will not desert her husband in the hour of trouble as first people thought. Mrs. Haynie was trying to gain notoriety, but public opinion has changed since it is positively learned that she is to appear only one week in vaudeville with the sole purpose of raising money to secure her husband's release. In that one week she will receive a salary equal to several month's recompense as a sten-ographer. From all accounts, Mr. Haynie or no one else, would care to live in the Seattle jall for three months if a release could be affected in a week's time.

"The Hills of California."
