

SPEECH TAKES STIR

Bishop O'Reilly on Education of the Youth.

PROCLAIMS RIGHTS OF CHURCH

What Catholic Children Are Taught in Schools by Nuns and Priests— Part Taken in Upholding of the United States.

BAKER CITY, Or., Sept. 8.—(Special.)—Bishop O'Reilly has caused a sensation...

"Doublets to the mind of the infidel, the rationalist, the worldling, whose God is Mammon, this work seems unwisdom and foolishness."

"Why," they say, "burden the people already heavily taxed with an expensive compulsory education..."

"We answer because of a law which neither the state nor parents should dare violate; because of a law which all are bound to obey..."

"Referring to the public or state schools he said: 'Two educators present themselves before the parent—Give me your boy, says the state...'"

"What is this state which makes this demand? A corporation without heart or soul. How and why does it teach? Does it teach the boy to be honest, upright, truthful, chaste, obedient to his parents..."

"And as to the right of the Catholic Church on American soil, he said: 'The church teaches that Catholics first proclaimed civil and religious liberty in America...'"

"The position of the press and the Republican party in Idaho in regard to the appointment of Bishop Wooley as Assayer at Boise makes plain the situation in Idaho in regard to Mormonism..."

"It must be evident that the time has now come when the determination must be made whether we are to have politics in Idaho among ourselves or whether we are to accept our politics from Mormonism..."

"I myself am satisfied that Mormon influence from Utah in Idaho politics is binding on Idaho Mormons. The Idaho Mormons are not free agents..."

"The position of the press and the Republican party in Idaho in regard to the appointment of Bishop Wooley as Assayer at Boise makes plain the situation in Idaho in regard to Mormonism..."

"It must be evident that the time has now come when the determination must be made whether we are to have politics in Idaho among ourselves or whether we are to accept our politics from Mormonism..."

"I myself am satisfied that Mormon influence from Utah in Idaho politics is binding on Idaho Mormons. The Idaho Mormons are not free agents..."

"The position of the press and the Republican party in Idaho in regard to the appointment of Bishop Wooley as Assayer at Boise makes plain the situation in Idaho in regard to Mormonism..."

"It must be evident that the time has now come when the determination must be made whether we are to have politics in Idaho among ourselves or whether we are to accept our politics from Mormonism..."

"I myself am satisfied that Mormon influence from Utah in Idaho politics is binding on Idaho Mormons. The Idaho Mormons are not free agents..."

"The position of the press and the Republican party in Idaho in regard to the appointment of Bishop Wooley as Assayer at Boise makes plain the situation in Idaho in regard to Mormonism..."

"It must be evident that the time has now come when the determination must be made whether we are to have politics in Idaho among ourselves or whether we are to accept our politics from Mormonism..."

"I myself am satisfied that Mormon influence from Utah in Idaho politics is binding on Idaho Mormons. The Idaho Mormons are not free agents..."

"The position of the press and the Republican party in Idaho in regard to the appointment of Bishop Wooley as Assayer at Boise makes plain the situation in Idaho in regard to Mormonism..."

"It must be evident that the time has now come when the determination must be made whether we are to have politics in Idaho among ourselves or whether we are to accept our politics from Mormonism..."

"I myself am satisfied that Mormon influence from Utah in Idaho politics is binding on Idaho Mormons. The Idaho Mormons are not free agents..."

"The position of the press and the Republican party in Idaho in regard to the appointment of Bishop Wooley as Assayer at Boise makes plain the situation in Idaho in regard to Mormonism..."

"It must be evident that the time has now come when the determination must be made whether we are to have politics in Idaho among ourselves or whether we are to accept our politics from Mormonism..."

CANCER KILLING PHILLIPS.

Will Not Be Taken Back to Ontario Penitentiary.

SEATTLE, Sept. 8.—Joe Phillips will not be taken back to the Kingston, Ontario, penitentiary, where he escaped 25 years ago, as he is dying at the Wayside Mission Hospital of cancer of the stomach.

Phillips was serving a life sentence for murder. He made a sensational escape 25 years ago, crossed into Minnesota, married a woman who knew he was an escaped convict and raised a family while living in Minneapolis.

After coming to Seattle Mrs. Phillips began a suit for divorce and made it known that her husband was a murderer and an escaped convict.

TRAMPS MURDER FARMHAND. Wound His Companion and Escape From Freight Train.

COLONEL GRIFFITH IS ARRAIGNED.

Hearing Set for October 2, on Charge of Murderous Assault on Wife.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 8.—Colonel Griffith J. Griffith, member of the City Board of Park Commissioners, was today arraigned before Justice Chambers for the charge of assault to murder his wife, Christina Griffith, at the Hotel Arcadia, at Santa Monica, last Thursday evening.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 8.—Colonel Griffith J. Griffith, member of the City Board of Park Commissioners, was today arraigned before Justice Chambers for the charge of assault to murder his wife, Christina Griffith, at the Hotel Arcadia, at Santa Monica, last Thursday evening.

SISTERS ARE ARRAIGNED. Mrs. Bowers and Mrs. Sutton's Hearing Is Set for Monday.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 8.—Charles J. Jerrard, the murderer, Martin Luther Bowers, the husband of the one and the brother-in-law of the other, Martha E. Bowers and Zylphia Sutton were instructed and arraigned in the Police Court this morning.

Children Turn by Barbed Wire. TULARE, Cal., Sept. 8.—At Goshen, this county, two daughters of Peter Mallock were thrown upon a barbed-wire fence by a runaway horse and torn with jagged cuts, some of which are over two feet long.

Fatal Injury of Stockman. OREGONIAN, Or., Sept. 8.—S. F. Bush, one of the most prominent farmers and stockmen of Medford county, was fatally injured yesterday by being thrown from a horse.

Claims on Steep Horse. OREGONIAN, Or., Sept. 8.—(Special.)—Dr. H. R. Jones, of Medford, has notified Sheriff Shaver that one of the horses that were recovered from a horsethief in this county...

GRANTED MEDICAL SCHOLARSHIP AT YALE UNIVERSITY. EUGENE, Or., Sept. 8.—(Special.)—Marvin M. Scarborough, who for the past year has held the position of assistant in biology in the University of Oregon, has resigned that position to accept a scholarship in the medical department of Yale University.

NEVER AN UNFRIENDLY ACT. OFFER OF GOOD OFFICES SO REGARDED BY INTER-PARLIAMENTARY UNION. VIENNA, Sept. 8.—The conference of the Inter-Parliamentary Union for international arbitration today adopted the resolutions presented yesterday by Herr Piquet, representing the Austrian group.

VIENNA, Sept. 8.—The conference of the Inter-Parliamentary Union for international arbitration today adopted the resolutions presented yesterday by Herr Piquet, representing the Austrian group.

VIENNA, Sept. 8.—The conference of the Inter-Parliamentary Union for international arbitration today adopted the resolutions presented yesterday by Herr Piquet, representing the Austrian group.

VIENNA, Sept. 8.—The conference of the Inter-Parliamentary Union for international arbitration today adopted the resolutions presented yesterday by Herr Piquet, representing the Austrian group.

VIENNA, Sept. 8.—The conference of the Inter-Parliamentary Union for international arbitration today adopted the resolutions presented yesterday by Herr Piquet, representing the Austrian group.

VIENNA, Sept. 8.—The conference of the Inter-Parliamentary Union for international arbitration today adopted the resolutions presented yesterday by Herr Piquet, representing the Austrian group.

VIENNA, Sept. 8.—The conference of the Inter-Parliamentary Union for international arbitration today adopted the resolutions presented yesterday by Herr Piquet, representing the Austrian group.

VIENNA, Sept. 8.—The conference of the Inter-Parliamentary Union for international arbitration today adopted the resolutions presented yesterday by Herr Piquet, representing the Austrian group.

VIENNA, Sept. 8.—The conference of the Inter-Parliamentary Union for international arbitration today adopted the resolutions presented yesterday by Herr Piquet, representing the Austrian group.

VIENNA, Sept. 8.—The conference of the Inter-Parliamentary Union for international arbitration today adopted the resolutions presented yesterday by Herr Piquet, representing the Austrian group.

VIENNA, Sept. 8.—The conference of the Inter-Parliamentary Union for international arbitration today adopted the resolutions presented yesterday by Herr Piquet, representing the Austrian group.

VIENNA, Sept. 8.—The conference of the Inter-Parliamentary Union for international arbitration today adopted the resolutions presented yesterday by Herr Piquet, representing the Austrian group.

VIENNA, Sept. 8.—The conference of the Inter-Parliamentary Union for international arbitration today adopted the resolutions presented yesterday by Herr Piquet, representing the Austrian group.

VIENNA, Sept. 8.—The conference of the Inter-Parliamentary Union for international arbitration today adopted the resolutions presented yesterday by Herr Piquet, representing the Austrian group.

VIENNA, Sept. 8.—The conference of the Inter-Parliamentary Union for international arbitration today adopted the resolutions presented yesterday by Herr Piquet, representing the Austrian group.

VIENNA, Sept. 8.—The conference of the Inter-Parliamentary Union for international arbitration today adopted the resolutions presented yesterday by Herr Piquet, representing the Austrian group.

KILLED BY A LUNATIC

ESCAPE TAKES INSANE REVENGE ON AN OREGON EX-SHERIFF.

A. Jerrard Had Been Taken to the Salem Asylum by A. J. McKinnon Years Ago.

GUERNEVILLE, Cal., Sept. 8.—A. J. McKinnon, aged 40 years, and married, was shot and instantly killed at 8 o'clock this morning by A. Jerrard, a lunatic, who escaped a few days ago from the asylum at Ukiah.

McKinnon came here several years ago after having resigned his office in Oregon and purchased a ranch not far from town. It seems that while Sheriff he was once compelled to take Jerrard to an asylum in Oregon, and for that the latter cherished resentment.

As McKinnon and Jacob Joss were sitting on Joss' porch, Jerrard came along pulled a pistol and fired without warning. His aim was perfect and McKinnon toppled over dead.

It transpires that Jerrard escaped from the asylum three weeks ago, and that since that time he has been hidden in his mother's home in this place. He had not been seen by any one in all that time, but today his mother becoming alarmed at his absence, made inquiry, and this revealed the fact of his having been here since his escape from the institution.

Jerrard's mother is censured by every one for harboring the insane man in her home and for not notifying the officers. There is much indignation over the affair, and even though he is insane there is a belief that Jerrard will be roughly punished when apprehended. He was committed to the asylum last April.

Children Turn by Barbed Wire. TULARE, Cal., Sept. 8.—At Goshen, this county, two daughters of Peter Mallock were thrown upon a barbed-wire fence by a runaway horse and torn with jagged cuts, some of which are over two feet long.

Fatal Injury of Stockman. OREGONIAN, Or., Sept. 8.—S. F. Bush, one of the most prominent farmers and stockmen of Medford county, was fatally injured yesterday by being thrown from a horse.

Claims on Steep Horse. OREGONIAN, Or., Sept. 8.—(Special.)—Dr. H. R. Jones, of Medford, has notified Sheriff Shaver that one of the horses that were recovered from a horsethief in this county...

GRANTED MEDICAL SCHOLARSHIP AT YALE UNIVERSITY. EUGENE, Or., Sept. 8.—(Special.)—Marvin M. Scarborough, who for the past year has held the position of assistant in biology in the University of Oregon, has resigned that position to accept a scholarship in the medical department of Yale University.

NEVER AN UNFRIENDLY ACT. OFFER OF GOOD OFFICES SO REGARDED BY INTER-PARLIAMENTARY UNION. VIENNA, Sept. 8.—The conference of the Inter-Parliamentary Union for international arbitration today adopted the resolutions presented yesterday by Herr Piquet, representing the Austrian group.

VIENNA, Sept. 8.—The conference of the Inter-Parliamentary Union for international arbitration today adopted the resolutions presented yesterday by Herr Piquet, representing the Austrian group.

VIENNA, Sept. 8.—The conference of the Inter-Parliamentary Union for international arbitration today adopted the resolutions presented yesterday by Herr Piquet, representing the Austrian group.

VIENNA, Sept. 8.—The conference of the Inter-Parliamentary Union for international arbitration today adopted the resolutions presented yesterday by Herr Piquet, representing the Austrian group.

VIENNA, Sept. 8.—The conference of the Inter-Parliamentary Union for international arbitration today adopted the resolutions presented yesterday by Herr Piquet, representing the Austrian group.

VIENNA, Sept. 8.—The conference of the Inter-Parliamentary Union for international arbitration today adopted the resolutions presented yesterday by Herr Piquet, representing the Austrian group.

VIENNA, Sept. 8.—The conference of the Inter-Parliamentary Union for international arbitration today adopted the resolutions presented yesterday by Herr Piquet, representing the Austrian group.

VIENNA, Sept. 8.—The conference of the Inter-Parliamentary Union for international arbitration today adopted the resolutions presented yesterday by Herr Piquet, representing the Austrian group.

VIENNA, Sept. 8.—The conference of the Inter-Parliamentary Union for international arbitration today adopted the resolutions presented yesterday by Herr Piquet, representing the Austrian group.

VIENNA, Sept. 8.—The conference of the Inter-Parliamentary Union for international arbitration today adopted the resolutions presented yesterday by Herr Piquet, representing the Austrian group.

VIENNA, Sept. 8.—The conference of the Inter-Parliamentary Union for international arbitration today adopted the resolutions presented yesterday by Herr Piquet, representing the Austrian group.

VIENNA, Sept. 8.—The conference of the Inter-Parliamentary Union for international arbitration today adopted the resolutions presented yesterday by Herr Piquet, representing the Austrian group.

VIENNA, Sept. 8.—The conference of the Inter-Parliamentary Union for international arbitration today adopted the resolutions presented yesterday by Herr Piquet, representing the Austrian group.

VIENNA, Sept. 8.—The conference of the Inter-Parliamentary Union for international arbitration today adopted the resolutions presented yesterday by Herr Piquet, representing the Austrian group.

VIENNA, Sept. 8.—The conference of the Inter-Parliamentary Union for international arbitration today adopted the resolutions presented yesterday by Herr Piquet, representing the Austrian group.

VIENNA, Sept. 8.—The conference of the Inter-Parliamentary Union for international arbitration today adopted the resolutions presented yesterday by Herr Piquet, representing the Austrian group.

VIENNA, Sept. 8.—The conference of the Inter-Parliamentary Union for international arbitration today adopted the resolutions presented yesterday by Herr Piquet, representing the Austrian group.

VIENNA, Sept. 8.—The conference of the Inter-Parliamentary Union for international arbitration today adopted the resolutions presented yesterday by Herr Piquet, representing the Austrian group.

VIENNA, Sept. 8.—The conference of the Inter-Parliamentary Union for international arbitration today adopted the resolutions presented yesterday by Herr Piquet, representing the Austrian group.

VIENNA, Sept. 8.—The conference of the Inter-Parliamentary Union for international arbitration today adopted the resolutions presented yesterday by Herr Piquet, representing the Austrian group.

CZAR LOSES LITTLE

Evacuation of Niu Chwang Nearly at Own Terms.

CHINA WILL READILY ACCEDE

She Will Resume Administrative Rights in Russia Manchuria Provinces—Russia Hopes New Deal Will Pacify Japan.

LONDON, Sept. 8.—The Pekin correspondent of the Times telegraphs that M. Lohr, the Russian Minister, in his note to the Wai-Wu-Li, agreed that Niu Chwang and Moukden Provinces should be evacuated by the Russians on October 5.

LONDON, Sept. 8.—The Pekin correspondent of the Times telegraphs that M. Lohr, the Russian Minister, in his note to the Wai-Wu-Li, agreed that Niu Chwang and Moukden Provinces should be evacuated by the Russians on October 5.

LONDON, Sept. 8.—The Pekin correspondent of the Times telegraphs that M. Lohr, the Russian Minister, in his note to the Wai-Wu-Li, agreed that Niu Chwang and Moukden Provinces should be evacuated by the Russians on October 5.

LONDON, Sept. 8.—The Pekin correspondent of the Times telegraphs that M. Lohr, the Russian Minister, in his note to the Wai-Wu-Li, agreed that Niu Chwang and Moukden Provinces should be evacuated by the Russians on October 5.

LONDON, Sept. 8.—The Pekin correspondent of the Times telegraphs that M. Lohr, the Russian Minister, in his note to the Wai-Wu-Li, agreed that Niu Chwang and Moukden Provinces should be evacuated by the Russians on October 5.

LONDON, Sept. 8.—The Pekin correspondent of the Times telegraphs that M. Lohr, the Russian Minister, in his note to the Wai-Wu-Li, agreed that Niu Chwang and Moukden Provinces should be evacuated by the Russians on October 5.

LONDON, Sept. 8.—The Pekin correspondent of the Times telegraphs that M. Lohr, the Russian Minister, in his note to the Wai-Wu-Li, agreed that Niu Chwang and Moukden Provinces should be evacuated by the Russians on October 5.

LONDON, Sept. 8.—The Pekin correspondent of the Times telegraphs that M. Lohr, the Russian Minister, in his note to the Wai-Wu-Li, agreed that Niu Chwang and Moukden Provinces should be evacuated by the Russians on October 5.

LONDON, Sept. 8.—The Pekin correspondent of the Times telegraphs that M. Lohr, the Russian Minister, in his note to the Wai-Wu-Li, agreed that Niu Chwang and Moukden Provinces should be evacuated by the Russians on October 5.

LONDON, Sept. 8.—The Pekin correspondent of the Times telegraphs that M. Lohr, the Russian Minister, in his note to the Wai-Wu-Li, agreed that Niu Chwang and Moukden Provinces should be evacuated by the Russians on October 5.

LONDON, Sept. 8.—The Pekin correspondent of the Times telegraphs that M. Lohr, the Russian Minister, in his note to the Wai-Wu-Li, agreed that Niu Chwang and Moukden Provinces should be evacuated by the Russians on October 5.

LONDON, Sept. 8.—The Pekin correspondent of the Times telegraphs that M. Lohr, the Russian Minister, in his note to the Wai-Wu-Li, agreed that Niu Chwang and Moukden Provinces should be evacuated by the Russians on October 5.

LONDON, Sept. 8.—The Pekin correspondent of the Times telegraphs that M. Lohr, the Russian Minister, in his note to the Wai-Wu-Li, agreed that Niu Chwang and Moukden Provinces should be evacuated by the Russians on October 5.

LONDON, Sept. 8.—The Pekin correspondent of the Times telegraphs that M. Lohr, the Russian Minister, in his note to the Wai-Wu-Li, agreed that Niu Chwang and Moukden Provinces should be evacuated by the Russians on October 5.

LONDON, Sept. 8.—The Pekin correspondent of the Times telegraphs that M. Lohr, the Russian Minister, in his note to the Wai-Wu-Li, agreed that Niu Chwang and Moukden Provinces should be evacuated by the Russians on October 5.

LONDON, Sept. 8.—The Pekin correspondent of the Times telegraphs that M. Lohr, the Russian Minister, in his note to the Wai-Wu-Li, agreed that Niu Chwang and Moukden Provinces should be evacuated by the Russians on October 5.

LONDON, Sept. 8.—The Pekin correspondent of the Times telegraphs that M. Lohr, the Russian Minister, in his note to the Wai-Wu-Li, agreed that Niu Chwang and Moukden Provinces should be evacuated by the Russians on October 5.

LONDON, Sept. 8.—The Pekin correspondent of the Times telegraphs that M. Lohr, the Russian Minister, in his note to the Wai-Wu-Li, agreed that Niu Chwang and Moukden Provinces should be evacuated by the Russians on October 5.

LONDON, Sept. 8.—The Pekin correspondent of the Times telegraphs that M. Lohr, the Russian Minister, in his note to the Wai-Wu-Li, agreed that Niu Chwang and Moukden Provinces should be evacuated by the Russians on October 5.

LONDON, Sept. 8.—The Pekin correspondent of the Times telegraphs that M. Lohr, the Russian Minister, in his note to the Wai-Wu-Li, agreed that Niu Chwang and Moukden Provinces should be evacuated by the Russians on October 5.

LONDON, Sept. 8.—The Pekin correspondent of the Times telegraphs that M. Lohr, the Russian Minister, in his note to the Wai-Wu-Li, agreed that Niu Chwang and Moukden Provinces should be evacuated by the Russians on October 5.

LONDON, Sept. 8.—The Pekin correspondent of the Times telegraphs that M. Lohr, the Russian Minister, in his note to the Wai-Wu-Li, agreed that Niu Chwang and Moukden Provinces should be evacuated by the Russians on October 5.

LONDON, Sept. 8.—The Pekin correspondent of the Times telegraphs that M. Lohr, the Russian Minister, in his note to the Wai-Wu-Li, agreed that Niu Chwang and Moukden Provinces should be evacuated by the Russians on October 5.

LONDON, Sept. 8.—The Pekin correspondent of the Times telegraphs that M. Lohr, the Russian Minister, in his note to the Wai-Wu-Li, agreed that Niu Chwang and Moukden Provinces should be evacuated by the Russians on October 5.

LONDON, Sept. 8.—The Pekin correspondent of the Times telegraphs that M. Lohr, the Russian Minister, in his note to the Wai-Wu-Li, agreed that Niu Chwang and Moukden Provinces should be evacuated by the Russians on October 5.

LONDON, Sept. 8.—The Pekin correspondent of the Times telegraphs that M. Lohr, the Russian Minister, in his note to the Wai-Wu-Li, agreed that Niu Chwang and Moukden Provinces should be evacuated by the Russians on October 5.

LONDON, Sept. 8.—The Pekin correspondent of the Times telegraphs that M. Lohr, the Russian Minister, in his note to the Wai-Wu-Li, agreed that Niu Chwang and Moukden Provinces should be evacuated by the Russians on October 5.

LONDON, Sept. 8.—The Pekin correspondent of the Times telegraphs that M. Lohr, the Russian Minister, in his note to the Wai-Wu-Li, agreed that Niu Chwang and Moukden Provinces should be evacuated by the Russians on October 5.

LONDON, Sept. 8.—The Pekin correspondent of the Times telegraphs that M. Lohr, the Russian Minister, in his note to the Wai-Wu-Li, agreed that Niu Chwang and Moukden Provinces should be evacuated by the Russians on October 5.

HEAD OF ENGINEERING DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE

PULLMAN, Wash., Sept. 8.—(Special.)—H. V. Carpenter, professor of electrical and mechanical engineering in the Washington Agricultural College, is a graduate of the University of Illinois, and held the position of instructor in physics in that school for three years after his graduation.

PULLMAN, Wash., Sept. 8.—(Special.)—H. V. Carpenter, professor of electrical and mechanical engineering in the Washington Agricultural College, is a graduate of the University of Illinois, and held the position of instructor in physics in that school for three years after his graduation.

PULLMAN, Wash., Sept. 8.—(Special.)—H. V. Carpenter, professor of electrical and mechanical engineering in the Washington Agricultural College, is a graduate of the University of Illinois, and held the position of instructor in physics in that school for three years after his graduation.

PULLMAN, Wash., Sept. 8.—(Special.)—H. V. Carpenter, professor of electrical and mechanical engineering in the Washington Agricultural College, is a graduate of the University of Illinois, and held the position of instructor in physics in that school for three years after his graduation.

PULLMAN, Wash., Sept. 8.—(Special.)—H. V. Carpenter, professor of electrical and mechanical engineering in the Washington Agricultural College, is a graduate of the University of Illinois, and held the position of instructor in physics in that school for three years after his graduation.

PULLMAN, Wash., Sept. 8.—(Special.)—H. V. Carpenter, professor of electrical and mechanical engineering in the Washington Agricultural College, is a graduate of the University of Illinois, and held the position of instructor in physics in that school for three years after his graduation.

PULLMAN, Wash., Sept. 8.—(Special.)—H. V. Carpenter, professor of electrical and mechanical engineering in the Washington Agricultural College, is a graduate of the University of Illinois, and held the position of instructor in physics in that school for three years after his graduation.

PULLMAN, Wash., Sept. 8.—(Special.)—H. V. Carpenter, professor of electrical and mechanical engineering in the Washington Agricultural College, is a graduate of the University of Illinois, and held the position of instructor in physics in that school for three years after his graduation.

PULLMAN, Wash., Sept. 8.—(Special.)—H. V. Carpenter, professor of electrical and mechanical engineering in the Washington Agricultural College, is a graduate of the University of Illinois, and held the position of instructor in physics in that school for three years after his graduation.

PULLMAN, Wash., Sept. 8.—(Special.)—H. V. Carpenter, professor of electrical and mechanical engineering in the Washington Agricultural College, is a graduate of the University of Illinois, and held the position of instructor in physics in that school for three years after his graduation.

PULLMAN, Wash., Sept. 8.—(Special.)—H. V. Carpenter, professor of electrical and mechanical engineering in the Washington Agricultural College, is a graduate of the University of Illinois, and held the position of instructor in physics in that school for three years after his graduation.

PULLMAN, Wash., Sept. 8.—(Special.)—H. V. Carpenter, professor of electrical and mechanical engineering in the Washington Agricultural College, is a graduate of the University of Illinois, and held the position of instructor in physics in that school for three years after his graduation.

PULLMAN, Wash., Sept. 8.—(Special.)—H. V. Carpenter, professor of electrical and mechanical engineering in the Washington Agricultural College, is a graduate of the University of Illinois, and held the position of instructor in physics in that school for three years after his graduation.

PULLMAN, Wash., Sept. 8.—(Special.)—H. V. Carpenter, professor of electrical and mechanical engineering in the Washington Agricultural College, is a graduate of the University of Illinois, and held the position of instructor in physics in that school for three years after his graduation.

PULLMAN, Wash., Sept. 8.—(Special.)—H. V. Carpenter, professor of electrical and mechanical engineering in the Washington Agricultural College, is a graduate of the University of Illinois, and held the position of instructor in physics in that school for three years after his graduation.

PULLMAN, Wash., Sept. 8.—(Special.)—H. V. Carpenter, professor of electrical and mechanical engineering in the Washington Agricultural College, is a graduate of the University of Illinois, and held the position of instructor in physics in that school for three years after his graduation.

PULLMAN, Wash., Sept. 8.—(Special.)—H. V. Carpenter, professor of electrical and mechanical engineering in the Washington Agricultural College, is a graduate of the University of Illinois, and held the position of instructor in physics in that school for three years after his graduation.

PULLMAN, Wash., Sept. 8.—(Special.)—H. V. Carpenter, professor of electrical and mechanical engineering in the Washington Agricultural College, is a graduate of the University of Illinois, and held the position of instructor in physics in that school for three years after his graduation.

PULLMAN, Wash., Sept. 8.—(Special.)—H. V. Carpenter, professor of electrical and mechanical engineering in the Washington Agricultural College, is a graduate of the University of Illinois, and held the position of instructor in physics in that school for three years after his graduation.

PULLMAN, Wash., Sept. 8.—(Special.)—H. V. Carpenter, professor of electrical and mechanical engineering in the Washington Agricultural College, is a graduate of the University of Illinois, and held the position of instructor in physics in that school for three years after his graduation.

PULLMAN, Wash., Sept. 8.—(Special.)—H. V. Carpenter, professor of electrical and mechanical engineering in the Washington Agricultural College, is a graduate of the University of Illinois, and held the position of instructor in physics in that school for three years after his graduation.

PULLMAN, Wash., Sept. 8.—(Special.)—H. V. Carpenter, professor of electrical and mechanical engineering in the Washington Agricultural College, is a graduate of the University of Illinois, and held the position of instructor in physics in that school for three years after his graduation.

PULLMAN, Wash., Sept. 8.—(Special.)—H. V. Carpenter, professor of electrical and mechanical engineering in the Washington Agricultural College, is a graduate of the University of Illinois, and held the position of instructor in physics in that school for three years after his graduation.

PULLMAN, Wash., Sept. 8.—(Special.)—H. V. Carpenter, professor of electrical and mechanical engineering in the Washington Agricultural College, is a graduate of the University of Illinois, and held the position of instructor in physics in that school for three years after his graduation.

PULLMAN, Wash., Sept. 8.—(Special.)—H. V. Carpenter, professor of electrical and mechanical engineering in the Washington Agricultural College, is a graduate of the University of Illinois, and held the position of instructor in physics in that school for three years after his graduation.

PULLMAN, Wash., Sept. 8.—(Special.)—H. V. Carpenter, professor of electrical and mechanical engineering in the Washington Agricultural College, is a graduate of the University of Illinois, and held the position of instructor in physics in that school for three years after his graduation.

PULLMAN, Wash., Sept. 8.—(Special.)—H. V. Carpenter, professor of electrical and mechanical engineering in the Washington Agricultural College, is a graduate of the University of Illinois, and held the position of instructor in physics in that school for three years after his graduation.

PULLMAN, Wash., Sept. 8.—(Special.)—H. V. Carpenter, professor of electrical and mechanical engineering in the Washington Agricultural College, is a graduate of the University of Illinois, and held the position of instructor in physics in that school for three years after his graduation.

PULLMAN, Wash., Sept. 8.—(Special.)—H. V. Carpenter, professor of electrical and mechanical engineering in the Washington Agricultural College, is a graduate of the University of Illinois, and held the position of instructor in physics in that school for three years after his graduation.

PULLMAN, Wash., Sept. 8.—(Special.)—H. V. Carpenter, professor of electrical and mechanical engineering in the Washington Agricultural College, is a graduate of the University of Illinois, and held the position of instructor in physics in that school for three years after his graduation.