Opinions of Tulloch Charges. WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—By direction of President Roosevelt, a thorough investigation has been made into the charge preferred by Seymour W. James Conrad. special at-torneys of the government in the prosecu-tion of the postoffice fraud cases, and it Is independent of and entirely supplementary to the report made by Fourth Assist-ant Postmaster-General Bristow on the charges preferred by Mr. Tulloch. Mr. Bristow's report, Mr. Contad says tonight, was simply a collection of the facts in the case as reported by Post-office Inspectors, and contained no opin-lons as to the merits of the charges. The investigation made by Messrs. Bonaparte and Conrad will go into the merits of the charges, and will express an opinion as to whether the accused persons are vindi-cated or are guilty of the offenses charged against them.

The conclusions drawn from their inguiry will be embodied in a report which will be submitted to the Attorney-Gen-eral the latter part of this week. Whether this report will be made public Mr. Con-rad could not say today, as that matter rested with the officials of the Administration. No prosecutions will follow from any conclusions the report may draw, as the offenses, if any have been commit-ted, are barred by the statute of limita-

Mr. Conrad said he and Mr. Bonaparte had been engaged for five weeks in the inquiry. They had examined thoroughly the charges themselves, together with all evidence available on the subject, both in the Treasury and the Postoffice Departments. The President, said Mr. Conrad, was very anxious that the whole matter should be gone over very carefully, so that if persons named in the charges by Mr. Tulloch were not guilty, they should be vindicated, and if they were, this fact should go on record. It was not a party naffair with the President, Mr. Conrad de-clared, but an honest desire to get at the facts in the case, both Democrats and Republicans being involved in the charges. The President was anxious to have the matter thoroughly sifted and any criticism, credit or blame arising from the inquiry would be borne by him. Mr. Conrad expressed the opinion that both he and Mr. Bonaparte would agree as to the recommendations to be made to the Attorney-General. affair with the President, Mr. Conrad de the Attorney-General.

Mr. Burton spent II days on the Volga Americans could land 500 men. and then visited the Black Sea harbors. Americans, it is believed, have the Danube and the upper Elbe. Speak-ing of his investigations, which were begun early in June, Mr. Burton said:
"We found illustrations throwing light upon almost every proposition in the river and harbor works of the United States. Everywhere in Europe there is a disposi-tion to make increased use of the inland waterways, whether rivers or canals. The value of these means of transportation is coming to be realized more and more. In France and Germany and portions of Russia the quantity of freight carried by water is increasing more than that car-ried by rail. There is a strong move-ment for the improvement of the inland waterways and there is a growing opinion also, though not as potent or univer sal in favor of tolls on the waterways which are improved.

"It would seem that Europe affords better opportunities than America to study the relations between railroad and waterway transportation, because frequently a state which is improving its rivers and utiding canals also owns the railways, But, for various reasons, the field is not much better. In some countries the poliothers, the railways and waterways are managed by different government depart-ments, each trying to make a good showing, and the competition which arises is almost as keen as in the United States." Mr. Burton will visit the lower Elbe ear Hamburg, and the canals of Northern France before going home.

MOB ATTACKS NEGRO.

Police Have Hard Time in Rescuing Murderer of White Man.

CHICAGO, Sept. 9.-Under a fire of bricks and stones, policemen last night rescued a negro murderer from a mob of would-be lynchers. Ten minutes before, John Brinkley, a colored watchman, had shot and killed Charles McCarthy, a plasterer, almost in the presence of the latter's wife, who stood in the doorway holding her baby. Then the negro, backing into the doorway of his own quarters, the murderer. Mooney opened the door and took his prisoner into the office of the tile factory, in which Brinkley was employed, to await the patrol wagon. But as he did so the crowd surged forward once more with cries of "Lynch him!" The policeman tried in vain to close the door on the crowd and keep it closed. Finally the patrol wagon arrived with three policemen, who, together with Mooney, fought their way through the mob, while bricks and stones rained on them from every side.

At the police station Brinkley fainted from terror, and when revived begged to be put in a cell in which no mob could get at him. The killing grew out of a quarrel, in which McCarthy had accused Brinkley of stealing chickens from his premises.

The German Office approves of Admiral Cotton's intention to land a guard to protect the United States Consulate at Beirut if necessary, and of his holding a landing party in readiness to protect the

They Were Not the Aggressors. CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 9.-Consular counts received here from Beirut totally

The anti-Christian outbreak is serious, but it is not regarded as likely that, through it, American interests or American citizens will suffer. # VICE-CONSUL COOL UNDER FIRE, Magelssen Stopped His Carriage and Tried to Locate Assailants. BERLIN, Sept. 9.-The Egyptian Gazette, published at Alexandria, Egypt, has published details regarding the recent attack upon United States Vice-Consul Magelssen. It says Mr. Magelssen was riding home in a hired carriage in the evening, when on passing a street near the Bas Beirut (a headland about three miles from Beirut, on which stands the buildings of the American mission), he heard sounds of pistol firing. He turned around to see whence the shots came, and a bullet whizzed past his face. The Vice-Consul at once had the carriage stopped and jumped out to discover his assailant, but could see no one.

The following day he went to the government office, where he met the Italian Consul and the Austrian Consul, who had come to complain about burglaries in their houses. The Governor ordered an investigation of the attack on Mr. Mageisen, but the only arrest was that of a young Christian, who attended a marriage on the previous night and in whose possession was found a pistol. The American Vice-Consul indignantly refused to accept the arrest of this man, and decided to visit his brother-in-law, the American Consul-General, who was staying in the mountains to the north of Beirut. The Egyptian Gazette mentions that three months before Mr. Magelssen was attacked by men in Turkish uniforms, but whom by his strength he put to flight. It adds that there is little public safety in Beirut, and it is very dangerous for Europeans to appear on the streets at night. Murder and pillage are daily oces, and many families have moved to Egypt.

FAMOUS REBEL LEADER KILLED. Captain Zoyan Loses His Life in Battle at Lake Aniatovo.

SALONICA, European Turkey, Sept. 9,-The famous revolutionary leader, Captain Zoyan, was killed in the fight at Lake Aniatovo, in the vilayet of Constantino ple. Three other Bulgarians were killed and many were wounded. A quantity of war munitions and a number of rebe proclamations were captured by the Turks on that occasion. One Turk was killed. The large insurgent band, which was re-ported on September 7 as being sur-rounded near Ostrovo, 30 miles from Monastir, by 12 battalions of Turkish troops, escaped to the Kalmakchalan mountains, where they are now again surrounded by the 12 battalions and six guns.

Reports of the recent fighting at Demir Kahu, 62 miles from Salonica, agree in saying that the Bulgarians lost heavily.

New York Greeks Will Aid Rebels. NEW YORK, Sept, 9.—The Greeks of New York City are organizing to give financial aid to the opponents of the Turkish army in Macedonia. A committee which has the matter in charge is said to have already raised more than $5000 Agents are also visiting other large Eastern cities and circulars are being sent to Greek societies throughout the country. One of the leaders declares that if the powers do not interfere within 20 days, a regiment of no fewer than 800 Greeks will be ready to sail from New York to fight the Turks. Several hundred additional applicants have been enrolled.
