Reduced rates on all railroads running into Portland next week—Our Grand Openings last three days with change of showings each day—Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

DON'T you like to see the children celebrate their birthdays? DON'T you like to join with them in their merry games and sports and DON'T it make you feel young again? It does us—it makes us feel so good on this, the 21st anniversary of one of our healthiest, huskiest offspring—the FRIDAY ECONOMY SALE, that we've decided to issue an extra this morning inviting the public to share in today's BARGAIN FEAST occasioned by the

21st GRAND FRIDAY ECONOMY SALE

And in addition to the 10 bargain plums, ripe for today's picking in this great merchandise garden mentioned in yesterday's Telegram, we have added to the crop nine more, making in all 19 SPLENDID, UNMATCHABLE BARGAIN VALUES FOR TODAY'S PATRONS OF THIS DOWN-TO-DATE "DIFFERENT STORE!" Three printed yesterday we reproduce today—for obvious reasons, making a round dozen—

12 Grand Surprising Bargain Values

The "Economy Sale" today attains its "majority"—its 21st anniversary. The little tot of 21 weeks ago has become a giant in strength, a powerful factor for good to the buying public. It has set a pace that rivals cannot follow but—as Shakespeare aptly puts it—"LIMP AFTER IN BASE IMITATION." You will find each column today of our store announcement filled with plain business talk concerning reasonable merchandise at bargain prices. But many of the best bargains must remain unmentioned, because the lots are small and if advertised would melt away so quickly that some people would be disappointed. When goods are advertised we know there's enough for the day's selling or else we make it plain in the announcement that the quantity is limited. You're assured satisfaction whatever selection you make from this advertisement. Read it all. Come expecting to find everything exactly as stated.

NO SWEEPING BILL

Beveridge Gives His Idea of Financial Reforms.

ADDRESSES INDIANA BANKERS

Fowler, on Telling of Three Important Changes He Will Propose, Has a Lively Talk With a Chicago Man.

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Sept. 10.—The seventh annual convention of the Indiana Bankers' Association was addressed today by United States Senator Beveridge. Senator Beveridge has but recently returned from a visit to the President at Oyster Bay, and his positive assertions with regard to the action of the coming session of Congress were given all the more weight. Senator Beveridge said in part: "The coming session of Congress will not enact any radical or sweeping financial legislation. Except in great emergencies moderation is the word in all financial legislation. The stability of financial legislation, even though imperfect, is more desirable than sudden and comprehensive changes, even though those changes are toward greater perfection."

Some moderate financial legislation, which will relieve the periodically recurring money stringency in the money centers, is probably desired and may be enacted. But such legislation, if enacted, will be simple in its nature and will not disturb or alarm the business interests of the country. No legislation is possible at the coming session of Congress which will radically affect our entire currency system and cause the business world to pause in our present prosperity until it is seen how such legislation is going to work.

The maintenance of credit is the only great financial question and always must be. And credit is only another name for confidence. Confidence is preserved by only a sure and permanent adjustment of business to any given lines of financial and commercial policy more than by all other things put together. "I do not mean that there should not be gradual changes in all of our laws, as those laws here and there become out of date. But I do mean that it better for business to steadily adhere to some settled line of policy than to suddenly and radically change it. Our whole financial and industrial legislation should be steady and not spasmodic.

"Within banking circles themselves all contention should cease. There is no natural antagonism between Eastern and Western bankers. Naturally their interests are the same. Bankers East and West are the financial servants of a single people under a single flag. There should be mutual consideration, each section taking care of the financial necessities of its own people as long as it has the money to do so, and relieving the necessities of another section only whenever they are not able to take care of themselves.

"There never was a period when the tide of prosperity has risen so high as now; and its highest point is not yet reached. But upon the shoulders of the bankers of the country more than upon any set of business men depends the continuance of this fortunate condition. If without reason the bankers indulge in vague apprehensions they will themselves bring about the very thing which they fear.

"If the bankers begin to exercise cowardice instead of patience; if without any reason they begin to contract their loans and reduce credits, that confidence upon which all business rests and of which the bankers themselves are the beneficiaries will be impaired. But this will not occur. The bankers of the republic are too intelligent, too brave, too patriotic."

Congressman Fowler, of New Jersey, spoke after Senator Beveridge. He gave a good deal of attention in his speech to the maintenance of credit in the United States Treasury, which, with 2 per cent in Government deposits and 1 per cent tax on notes, would constitute a fund which, when over $100,000,000, the surplus could be devoted to the purchase of gold bullion for converting greenbacks into gold certificates. Mr. Fowler was questioned at the close of the speech by the members of the association.

Before closing his address Mr. Fowler took to task President S. W. Flynn, of the Livestock National Bank, of Chicago, for his utterances concerning the radical and conservative in financing. Mr. Flynn rose and said he did not care to make the letter or his remarks personal. He had a high esteem for Mr. Fowler, but not for his bill; that, he said, was a public necessity.

Mr. Fowler challenged Mr. Flynn to point out anything he had said in the past that warranted Mr. Flynn in making the assertions. Mr. Flynn challenged Mr. Fowler to point anything he had said that could be construed personally.

Mr. Fowler said that the portion objected to was the statement Mr. Flynn made that he (Fowler) would not vote for some features of his own bill. Mr. Flynn suggested that Mr. Fowler go on and tell what his plans really were. It would serve the convention's purpose better, he said. This closed the incident. There was much suppressed excitement.

Bankers Asked to Thank Shaw. SARATOGA, N. Y., Sept. 10.—At the state bankers' convention today Leo Schlesinger, president of the Mechanics and Traders' Bank of New York City, offered the following resolution, but action on it will not be taken until it comes up in the regular order:

"Resolved, That the thanks of this convention be tendered Secretary Shaw and that his wisdom in depositing the revenues, amounting to $40,000,000, in the banks be approved."

Ironworkers Reduce Scale. YOUNGSTOWN, O., Sept. 10.—The bi-monthly Amalgamated scale conference of iron and steelworkers was held here today. The scale for September and October will reduce puddling from $2.25 to $2 a ton, and a reduction in heading and rolling to 15 cents, with 2 per cent off on guide mills. This is the first reduction in the scale since the opening of the new year.

Violent Attack of Diarrhoea Cured by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and Perhaps a Life Saved. A short time ago I was taken with a violent attack of diarrhoea and believe I would have died if I had not gotten relief," says John J. Patton, a leading citizen of Patton, Ala. "A doctor recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and after taking three doses it was entirely cured. I consider it the best remedy in the world for bowel complaints. For sale by all druggists."

BOLD AID TO STRIKERS

UNION OFFICIAL SHUTS OFF WATER SUPPLY TO MINERS.

Cripple Creek Light Plant Closes, and People Are Afraid to Remain in Their Homes.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Colo., Sept. 10.—Tonight practically the whole district was thrown into darkness. The LaBelle Company, which furnishes light to the camp, was unable to secure water for its boilers. This morning the company commenced to furnish compressed air to the Golden Cycle mine, and every man in the employ of that mine, as well as the power and light company immediately installed a new complement of men, and wheels turned very smoothly the entire day.

Miner Wanted as Witness. VICTOR, Colo., Sept. 10.—Michael Rogers, a miner living at Cameron, disappeared and his cabin has been burned. The fire is generally supposed to have been of an incendiary origin. Rogers is known by the authorities to have been the only man who saw the assault on James M. Stewart, the carpenter, ten days ago.

Authorities May Clash. Militia Wants Sheriff to Give Up Labor Leader Arrested for Assault. COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Sept. 10.—It is announced from Cripple Creek that a clash between the civil and military authorities in the camp is looked for. President Kennison, of one of the district unions, had trouble with a nonunion miner this morning and was struck. He drew a revolver but was disarmed before he could use it. Later, he was arrested by the civil authorities and the military has now surrounded the jail with the reported intention of taking charge of the prisoner. Kennison said this afternoon: "I am guilty of the offense charged. I carried a weapon for the sole purpose of defending myself. The guards at the Puro mine said they would stretch me up to an electric light pole. I was brutally assaulted this morning and I drew a revolver in defense of my life."

Peabody Denies There Will Be Clash. DENVER, Sept. 10.—Governor Peabody this evening declared unwarranted all suggestions of a conflict between the commander of the state troops in Cripple Creek and the Sheriff of Teller County over the possession of a prisoner. He declared that martial law has not been established in Cripple Creek and will not be. General Bell and his troops, said he, are in the district to aid the civil authorities in maintaining order, not to supersede them.

GREAT COMPRESSOR IS STARTED. Cripple Creek Crew Is Made Up Entirely of New Men.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Colo., Sept. 10.—The great compressor of the LaBelle Power Company, at Goldfield, furnishing light to several towns of the district, and compressed air to several mines, started in motion this morning for the first time since the strike was declared, forcing air into the Golden Circle, Vindicator, Findley, Theresa and Christmas mines and several of the smaller leases that recently started operations.

ORDERS MINERS BACK TO WORK. President Mitchell Issues Ultimatum to Missouri Men.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 10.—John Mitchell, president of the United Mine-workers of America, arrived in this city today to confer with the miners and mine-workers of District No. 25 in an effort to settle their differences which caused the strike of 800 miners at November. Mr. Mitchell held informal conferences with the operators and representatives of the striking miners, and tonight gave an ultimatum to the striking
