MOB SEEKS TO ATTACK HIM

Monument at Treguier.

AUTHORITIES ARE POWERLESS

Troops Are Called Out and Drive Back Pensants. Who Are Shouting Denunciations Outside the Barrier.

The attitude of Premier Combes toward Catholic schools and his determined stand against the rule of clerics have made him very unpopular in certain French provinces. This is especially so in Brittanny, where the military was recently called on, as in other parts of the country, to close the Sisters' schools.

His visit to the birthplace of Renan, author, to attend the unveiling of a monument of the famous author, has been made the occasion of a hostile demonstration. The feeling against the Premier has been intensified by the infidelistic inscriptions on the bases of the memorial disclosed to the public with so much ceremony.

PARIS, Sept. 13 .- On the occasion of the unveiling of a memorial to Ernest Rehan, the historian, at his native town of Treguir, Brittany, today, some demonstrations were made against Premier Combein the villages through which his carringe passed on the way to Treguler from Portreaux. Shouts of "A bas Combes!" and "Vive in liberte!" were raised by the peasants.

At the ceremony, at which speeches were delivered by Anatole France and others. Premier Combes, in expressing his thanks for the excellent reception given him at the function, said: "I heard a few hisses. Let me compare them to the melodies played on the flute behind the conqueror's charlot in older times to remind them that, raised by the people, they must govern by the people." During the delivery of the speeches the antagonists of Premier Combes became so threatening, trying to force the barriers and shouting denunciations of the Mayor of Treguler, that the police and authorities ng unable to restore order, a detachment of troops was ordered out. The soldiers forced the hostile crowd back and restored quiet.

Inscription Caused Trouble

The Premier was accompanied by Senator Chaumie, Minister of Public Instruction, who delivered a culogy, many Republican Deputies for Brittany and other personages. The memorial took the form of a bronze statue representing Renau seated in a characteristic attitude, while behind stands a gilded figure of Minerva holding up a sprig of laurel. Among the decorations around the statue were orna-mental mottoes inscribed, "Vive Renan," "Long live free thought," etc., which particularly incensed the Catholics. The latter arranged for an explatory service in Treguier Cathedral, to take place at the same hour as the unveiling of the statue, with the participation of Abbe Gayraud and other clerical Deputies.

The cierical party had thoroughly organized its demonstration, and the peasants from the surrounding villages assembled at Treguler, armed with cudgels, accompanied by their women folk, clad in the picturesque costume of Brittany. Some of the bands were headed by the parish priests. The Republican villagers also gathered at Treguler and along the route taken by the Premier, and the two hostile parties raised cries and counter-cries.

Partisans' Cries Mingle.

During the ceremony of the unveiling the Ciericals did their best to drown the voices of the speakers with shouts of Down with Renan," "Down with Combes," etc., to which the Republicans replied with equally noisy vociferations. The presence of a strong force of troops prevented a free fight between the rival factions. Another demonstration and counter-demonstration took place when remier Combes visited the house in which Renan was born, and during the disorder Baroness Kerpodson was hustled by the crowd. An anti-Clerical who drew his revolver was arrested, and the husband of the Baroness was roughly han-A banquet of 2000 "Blues," as the Republicans are called in Brittany, followed the unveiling exercises, at which Premier Combes, in the course of a long speech, predicted that the time was not distant when the peasants of Brittany would shake off the yoke of the clergy. He defended the policy of the government, saying he had only to repeat the history of the last few months in order to demonstrate that the clergy had persistently violated the law, supported the unauthorized congregations in their rebellion against the civil authorities, and stirred up the population to a religious war.

Emperor William's Son May Rule Hungary.

LONDON, Sept. 14.-The Vienna correpondent of the Daily Mail declares that the Hungarian political crisis has become so acute that the abdication of Emperor Francis Joseph, as King of Hungary, is freely discussed in that country, and, although no party leader is openly willing to discuss the probability, there is a strong feeling in favor of Hungary's right to choose her own King, the candidate favored being the German Emperor's second son, Prince Eitel.

BELGRADE, Sept. 13.—The report that King Peter had sent a message to the Czar to beg him to reconsider his attitude toward the Servian officers, which the King regarded as partly the cause of the new revolt in the army, is officially denied. It is pointed out that there is no motive for such an appeal, as the powers have all recognized the revolution to be Servia's private affair, and the Skuptchina has pardoned the conspirators. The King, as a constitutional mon-arch, is bound to respect the decision of

INDIFFERENCE DENOUNCED Bulgaria's Patient Attitude Under Torture Pointed Out.

LONDON, Sept. 13.-Rumor from Vienna and elsewhere is very busy this morning regarding the Balkan crisis, and while it is impossible to confirm the more sensational statements, there is accumulation of evidence that some violent solution cannot long be delayed.

The Sofia correspondent of the Daily Telegraph sends under Sunday's date an-other dispatch warmly defending Bulgarla's patient and quixotic attitude of loyalty toward the Porte and the powers and denouncing Europe's indifference to the wiping out of a large Christian community. Her last urgent request to the powers was that they should compel Turkey to suppress the rising by legiti-mate methods of warfare, but to spare women and children from indignities and

But even this Christian Europe has refused, and now Prince Ferdinand's government having carefully considered the question and aware of the disastrous attitude with which the powers threaten Bulgaria if she intervenes has decided that she can no longer neglect its sacred duty to prevent the Christian people being done to death. In a couple of days more the die will be cast and Bulgaria will do her duty. "An official communication will be made to the powers in the above indicated sense, and forthwith the necessary measures will be taken and only counter-manded if the powers immediately inter-vene. This is Bulgaria's last word. The moral responsibility will fall upon Chris-tian Europe, even if the material consequences have to be endured by Bul-

Turkey Profits by German Advice. A dispatch from Constantinople to the Standard says large forces are being collected to the north and northwest of Constantinople, where, in the event of war, the first fighting is expected to oc-cur, and although allusions to any plan of campaign is strictly censured, it may be assumed that German advice during recent years has not left Turkey unprepared. From Vienna comes the official statement that Austria has aghin proposed to the powers to admonish Bulgaria, but that so far nothing has come of the propositions.

The Neuse Pester Journal, often well informed, accuses Russia of openly assisting the Macedonian revolutionists even sending them arms, her object being gradually to exclude Austria from influence in Balkan affairs. The paper even alleges that the Austrian government has asked Count Lamsdorf, the Russian Foreign Minister, to explain this ambiguous The morning Post correspondent, who Pasha, in which the latter asserted that the rising was absolutely suppressed. He admitted the truth of the burnings and atrocities, but accused the Bulgarian in-surgents of committing them. A dispatch from Salonica, dated Saturday, reports a fresh supply of explosives discovered at the offices of a Bulgarian who was arrested but afterward released.

It is rumored from Constantinople that no foreign military attaches have gone to Monastir, but that another American warship, presumably the gunboat Ma-chias, has arrived at Beirut. The cor-respondent of the Times at Sofia says: "It would be very inadvisable for the powers to address admonitions to Bulgaria at the present moment because it would strengthen on the eye of the elec-tions, the hands of the opposition party which is trying to foment a bellicose agitation in order to overthrow the present government. The infliction of a need less humiliation upon the governmen which is endeavoring to convince the Nation of the folly of an adventurous policy would be merely playing into the hands of ### the war party. Servia May Join Bulgaria.

The Daily Mail's correspondent at Sofia in a dispatch, dated September 9, sends an interview he had with Tartarsheff, the chief of the revolutionary committee, in which the latter presented that there will be a strong probability of Servia throwing in her lot with Bulgaria agains Turkey, and that the question of war or no war depended mainly on Servia. Tartarscheff declined to commit himself to details, but admitted that negotiation were proceeding between his committee and Servia and also that the Servian Pre-mier lately sent scouts to join the revolutionists in Bulgaria in order to report the latter's progress.

Captain Samfoff, brother of the revolutionary chief, who was also present at the interview, went further than Tartarscheff and alleged that it was weeks ago, agreed that at the slightest provocation the Servian forces should invade old Servia and occupy Uskub. It was hinted that Mentenegro weuld also be heard from in Albania and that Turkey would thus be compelled to divide her forces thereby much reducing her chances of

Killing Off the Christians.

The Times publishes a long dispatch from Monastir, dated September 5, in which, as the result of his own observations and those of reliable witnesses, the correspondent confirms the descriptions of the Turkish extermination of the Christian population in the vilayet of Monastir, which he avers is being carried out whole-heartedly and indiscriminately by regulars and Bashi-Bazouks, between whom there is little to choose, and whose doings, it is evident, are di-rectly sanctioned by the Sultan. The bishops of Durham, Worcester,

Hereford and Gibraltar all publish let-ters in the Times protesting against the Turkish atrocities in Macedonia and urging the government to intervene to pre-vent an indelible stain resting on a Christian country for permitting such cruel-

Carmack's Solution of Vexing Question.

REPEAL 15TH AMENDMENT

Tennessee Senator Will Introduce Bill in Congress.

SOUTHERNERS WILL SUPPORT IT

Deportation of the Colored Citizens Is the Ultimate Aim of the Measure-Beginning of a Long Struggle.

FIFTEENTH AMENDMENT.

1. The right of the citizens of the United States to vote shall not be de-nied or abridged by the United States or by any state on account of race, color or previous condition of fervitude. 2. The Congress shall have power to enforce the provisions of this article by appropriate legislation.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Sept. 13.-From the standpoint of Southern interest the forthcoming session of Congress probably will be the most memorable since the Louislana returning board discussion for determining the Tilden-Hayes election contest, or since the vividly remembered tilt in the Senate between the tactful and resourceful Lamar, of Mississippi, and the eloquent Conkling, of New York.

Edward W. Carmack, the junior representative of Tennessee in the upper branch of the National Congress, is to be the creator and forceful leader of this new-born interest in Congressional proceedings. In the next Congress this young exponent of sound Democracy will introduce a bill in the Senate for the repeal of the 15th amendment of the Federal Constitution, the intent of which is that there shall be no discrimination against a citizen of the United States because of color, religion or a previous condition of servitude In a word, Senator Carmack would contribute toward the permanent solution of sented to the Southern States by eliminatlitical factor. This bill of Senator Carmack will be supported by every Southern Representative in Congress, and not a few members from those sections of the Union where the colored man is treated more as an incident than a problem to be dealt with as legislative thought would deal with a serious and menacing complication.

Senator Carmack will not introduce his bill in the hope of getting it enacted into the Federal statutes any time soon, for he suspects that defeat will meet such efforts for years to come, but for the purpose of precipitating discussion, Senator Carmack favors the separation of the races and the ultimate deportation of the negro from this country. Whither shall they be sent, he is not
