

DAVE FOR YOUNGSTERS

Tidal Wave Wins With Remarkable Rigging.

LOVELESS WAITS ON PRICEMARK

Clavico Repeats the Performance of the Previous Day—Best Performers Are Being Held Out for Portland Day at Salem Fair.

SALEM, Or., Sept. 15.—(Special.)—An incredible card in the harness events and a large attendance marked the second day's racing at Lone Oak track. Never in the history of the track were the conditions better for record smashing and the only reason that they were not was because of the classes of youngsters—for it was a day of youngsters in the harness events—were not a standard lot.

The first race was an upset of the bettors. Royal Satin was a much-touted favorite and the plunger, if those who bet their small bits of coin on the daily events here, can be called so, got off badly on the Bonner N. B. colt, for he never showed better than second at any stage of the two heats. Lovely Dell, the sweet-tempered brown filly owned by H. H. Helman, stepped the first mile in 2:47 1/2 and the second in 2:27 without much effort.

The second race, the Inland Empire stakes for racing 2-year-olds, brought out a nice-looking field of eight starters. King Alexis was a bad actor and delayed the start. He took the flag after they had been sent away because he finished nowhere. The race went to a daughter of McKinney, Tidal Wave, in two straight heats and in a race in which she never saw the colors of any of the other horses in the race. Lovely Dell, the sweet-tempered brown mare was driven by I. C. Mosher, who, for a couple of years was one of the Lone Oak officials.

Tidal Wave Sweeps In.

Mosher entered Tidal Wave for her California owner and brought the filly all the way from Los Angeles to race here before the Salem public. Her nearest contender was Hallie Hinges, and would, with a bit of urging, have captured the second heat, for she made a magnificent start, but she was pulled up at the sixteenth pole. Tidal Wave's victory was rather a remarkable one considering the way in which she was rigged out. In the heat the mare would have been sent back to the stable for she wore great heavy spreaders attached to her front feet and when she extended herself she could have straddled a house.

Loveless, a 2-year-old pacer owned by E. B. Tongue, won an unsatisfactory race in the third event. Five were to have started, but only two faced Starter R. L. Morrison. Pricemark, a vicious-looking bay gelding, was her contender and he should be put under a saddle and not harnessed to a bike sulky. The first heat was a farce of the worst kind, and Mr. Tongue, who wished better things for his youngster, tried to have the judges agree to sending Loveless out and in the next heat to show what the daughter of Lovelace could do, but the judges would not consent to not having the flag drop on Pricemark.

Loveless Waited on Pricemark.

The first heat Lovelace gave the lie to her name, for she was certainly loyal to Pricemark, for she waited for him as long as at least half a dozen times. The mile was done in the ridiculous time of 3:05 1/2. The second mile in 2:54.

With the three harness races cleared away the big grandstand crowd began to sit up and take notice as the gallopers were brought out and warmed up. Clavico, with Buxton up, again raced through the harness races for the second time in two days. Classes, a splendid-looking bay gelding, was second and was the only horse in the field of four starters that gave the winner a race. John Boggs was third and one, who had made a game struggle for a position, quit dead in the stretch. Clavico, because he won so handily on Monday was naturally his favorite and he was held out for the second day of the fair. The horses were sent away in a bunch and moved the first turn was reached Clavico moved out in front with classes at his tail and one was sent away with John Boggs in the lead.

Easy for Misty's Pride.

There was nothing to the last race, a handicap for six furlongs for 2-year-olds. Misty's Pride, favorite, won all the way. Easy for Misty's Pride was a good second and was crawling up on Misty's when they passed the judges' stand. Adair, on Burdock, rode a pretty race and was third. Salky, good winner, seemed to be the only horse among the lot, however, that had a chance with the winner if their performance of today was their best. Ohio Girl and Bob Crawford were badly beaten.

The Summary.

Trotting, 2-year-olds, two in three, purse $100.—Lovely Dell, b. f., Lovelace-Alfabel (Helman) 1; Royal Satin, ch. c., Bonner, b. b. Milne 2; Dr. Jones, blk. c., Capt. Jones-Temper (Sanford) 3.

ATTACKS MANAGER VIGNEUX. "Speck" Hurlbert Starts to Settle Grudge by Blows. A personal encounter occurred last night between Sam Vigneux, manager of the Portland Browns, and "Speck" Hurlbert, who, until a short time ago played center field on the team. It is said that Hurlbert has held a grudge against Vigneux since his recent release and he chose last evening in which to settle it. Vigneux and a party of friends were standing in front of Schiller's cigar store at Fourth and Washington streets, when, according to Vigneux's story, Hurlbert came up behind him and struck him. The men clinched and were separated by the bystanders before they got fairly into action. The fight occurred about 8:30 and created a big sensation. There were no arrests.

OAKLAND TAKES THE FIRST. Los Angeles Makes Costly Error and is Weak in Running Bases. LOS ANGELES, Cal., Sept. 15.—Costly errors and weak base running by the leaders gave Oakland the first game of the series. Gray was hit less than Cooper, but his support was not so good. Wheeler, at second, had a bad day in fielding. Cooper was effective when men were on bases. He also got a home run and a two-bagger. Score: R H E Los Angeles 0 0 2 0 0 1 0 1 0 5. Oakland 0 0 0 1 2 2 0 1 0 5.

FRISCO EASILY DEFEATS SACRAMENTO. SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 15.—Keefe's wildness lost the game for the Senators at Oakland today. Hodson was hit freely in the first inning, but afterwards he stood down and allowed but two hits. The locals hit Keefe at opportune times. Score: R H E Sacramento 3 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 4 6 3. San Francisco 5 0 2 1 0 0 0 1 3 8 3.
