The New Goods for Autumn Are Here

The cotton "corner" has resulted in the stoppage of many mills, an increasing scarcity of cotton fabrics, and a disposition to advance prices on nearly everything containing cotton. Prices for our Autumn lines of bedfurnishings are based upon the old costs-most of these goods were contracted for many months ago; and, in view of the present condition of the market and the decided uncertainty as to future prices, we do not hesitate to advise our customers to supply all their probable wants very early in the season. All of these goods are excellent values, and some of them are to be sold at less than it would now cost to duplicate them.—On 4th floor.

Cullom Says He Is Logical Democratic Candidate.

SHREWDER THAN CLEVELAND Linares Partly Deserted-Laborers

Possessed of Executive Ability and a Man Who Has the Welfare of the United States at Heart-No Show for Miles.

CHICAGO, Sept. 20 .- (Special.) - Senator Cullom returned to Chicago yesterday from his trip through the West, and at the Auditorium Annex devoted half an hour in the afternoon to a discussion of National politics. He intimated that he thought Gorman was the logical Democratic candidate for President, Of the situation in Illinois he would say little, being particularly reticent on the question of the merits of the several Gubernatorial candidates.

"But as to the National situation, it's different," sald the Senator. "Although I have been in the West for some time and have not talked with any National figures in politics, I have tried to keep in touch with things. I have met many men prominent in local affairs in California and other parts of the West and I feel that I understand their sentiment.

"Among Republicans only one name is mentioned for the Presidency-that of Theodore Roosevelt. But I think this is true all over the country. Opposition by labor leaders? I do not think that is serious or that it will last. A man in Roosevelt's position cannot satisfy everybody at all times.

"What do I think of Cleveland as Democratic candidate for President? He undoubtedly would be a strong man. He has the confidence of the people, and from the Democratic viewpoint would make a good President. But Gorman is a shrewder politician than Cleveland and possesses many qualities that Cleveland does not.

"Is he as broad gauge? Yes, every bit, I am convinced that Gorman has the real welfare of the Nation deeply at heart. I learned that at the time the Wilson tariff measure was up for passage. It was he who saved our amendments to that bill and prevented it from becoming law, an absolutely free-trade doctrine. This in spite of his own avowed tenets.

"Besides this, Gorman is a powerful man in executive matters. His management of Democratic caucuses has demonstrated this beyond the shadow of a doubt. I recollect one in particular wherein half an hour after he had taken charge he had a stronger organization among the Democrats than had there been a strong candidate and a powerful opponent."

The Senator shrugged his shoulders and smiled when the name of Miles was suggested.

"There isn't the slightest chance in the world that the Democrats will nominate him for President," he said. "Nor for Vice-President either, for that matter. In my opinion, the name of an Army or Navy man on the ticket would not help either the Republicans or Democrats."
