NEW YORK, Sept. 28 -(Special correpondence.)-For the third time since Greater New York came into existence her citizens are engaged in a conflict to lecide who shall be the Mayor, an office carrying with it more power and patronage than is enjoyed by the Governor of any state in the Union, and practically ranking second only to the Presidency, so far as influence is concerned. The fusion forces have made Mayor Seth Low their standard-bearer, and the Democratic party will select Colonel George B. McClellan to oppose him. Mc-Ciellan is now waiting for the formal comination. His friends have already congratulated him, and nothing can keep him from being named except a change of heart on the part of one man. And that man is Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall. The various bodies which form the fusion forces readily agreed to renominate the problem. Jerome a Central Figure.

The spectacular opposition to Mayor Low centers in and around District Attorney William Travers Jerome, one of the most striking figures that has appeared on the New York political horizon for a good many years. Nominated on the same ticket with Mayor Low two years any organization in the world. ly and verbosely opposed to the renomination of Mayor Low. He says so in in-terviews, and repeats it in long letters to personal friends. Generally, it might be added, the District Attorney gives out copies of these letters to the press and they are published before their surprised recipients have had an opportunity to receive their mail.

The burden of Mr. Jerome's song in brief is that Seth Low has made a good Mayor, a nonpartisan Mayor, has permitted no corruption to exist if he could top it, has carried out the pledges made in the campaign of two years ago. But-

He has no personal magnetism and no ense of humor.

His Opinion of Mayor Low. Mr. Jerome declares himself to be thoroughly convinced that the masses of the people have no regard for Mayor Low; they look upon him as a weak character, vaciliating and bending to every political the Congressman. They have been friends wind that blows; a man who is not liberal In matters that come under the head of Demand $50,000 From Northern Pr cific for Immunity From Outrages HELENA, Mont., Sept. 27 .- It has developed that the recent attempts to dynamite bridges and track on the line of the Northern Pacific between Livingston and Missoula are in furtherance of a piot to force the railway company to pay $50,000 for immunity from the outrages. In August last the company received letter demanding $25,000 and it was threatened if the terms proposed were not ngreed to dynamite would be used on the line. No attention was paid to the demand, and shortly after, the railroad bridge at Livingstone was partially wrecked by dynamite, and a few night's later another stick of dynamite was exploded near Bozeman under a passing train.

Other letters followed, and the dynamiters proposed that the company pay $50,000 and if it acceded to the demand it was to carry a white flag on engines hauling trains and September 22° was to run a light engine from Butte to Missoula, and at a point on the road it was to stop on signal, and an agent of the company was again, the dynamiters making the same agreed to the terms to put the flag on the engines. This the railroad company has not done and in the past two weeks there have been four attempts to damage the line by the use of dynamite.

Magazine Robbed of Explosives. One of the attempts to blow up the train took place in the railroad yards in this city last Monday night. This was followed a few night's later by explosions on the track near Elliston and Blossburg. wing ascended from St. Cloud, cidental protection? Is he a Gorman tariff Democrat or a Johnson no-tariff Democrat? If he favors any kind of a tariff, let him debate with Mr. Johnson, who is an absolute free trader, and would repeal every tariff and internal revenue law and sell all the custom-houses.

"Mr. Clarke has all these strings on his bow and more too. What chance does Mr. Hanna, who has only one string to his bow, have in disputation with such a man? Mr. Hanna stands pat. When Mr. Clarke joins a party that stands pat on anything, Mr. Hanna will talk with him.

"Then there is the coinage question. How does Mr. Clarke stand on that? The absolution Mr. Bryan gave him would argue that he is not a stand-patter; indeed, Mr. Bryan says he is not.

"Then, if Mr. Clarke is really on the Kansas City platform and is bound to have a debate with somebody, let him hunt up the Palmer and Buckner platform and debate with that. If, on the other hand, he is still a goldbug, he has no quarrel with Mr. Hanna. On that score ex-Senator Charles A Towne is the mun he is looking for, or the Hon. John J. Lentz might do in a pinch.

Difference on War Amendments, "The Republican state platform declares that every one of the war amendments is binding in honor upon every American citizen. Why did Mr. Clarke say in his Akron speech that that platform 'winds up with the declaration that amounts to a nullification of the 15th amendment'?

"Where does Mr. Clarke stand on the war amendments? Does he believe in them, or will he favor their repeal? Is he in harmony with Senator Tiliman, who has boasted that whenever coloredj voters attempt to exercise the elective franchise in South Carolina he will meet the attempt with a shotgun? If elected to the Senate, will Mr. Clarke join his colleague from Tennessee, Mr. Carmack, and vote for his resolution to repeal the 15th amendment? Is Mr. Clarke willing to explain his position on these vital questions? "Where does Mr. Clarke stand on the Philippine question? Does he stand with Mr. Bryan, when he was lobbying at the Capitol at Washington for the ratification of the treaty that ceded the islands to us? Or, later, when, in the campaign of 1900, he advocated an American protectorate? Or when, still later, he declared for their 'absolute independence'? Does Mr. Clarke stand for any or all three of these Philippine sentiments?

Has Too Many Fronts.

"Does Mr. Clark side with the Eastern Democrats, the 'reorganizers'? Democracy today wears so many colors, appears un-der so many different shapes and forms, assumes so many disguises, that I feel it would be unfair to Senator Hanna to ask him to meet Mr. Clarke in a joint debate until he is advised more fully as to Mr. Clarke's position on the subjects above alluded to, until he learns what particular brand of Democracy Mr. Clarke claims as his; until he knows whether he is expected to debute with Mr. Clarke, the Twenty-round fight arranged between Bob Fitzsimmons and George Gardner, Page 5, candidate for United States Senator."
