KILLS GIRL HE LOVES

Bay City Clerk Then Puts Bullet in His Own Head.

SHE HAD TIRED OF ATTENTIONS

Murderer Writes Letter Showing That the Fatal Act Was Committed With Premeditation-He Will Probably Die.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 29,-Marie Jordan, a handsome brunette, was shot dead on the street today by Edward de la Brousse, who then fired a shot into his own head, inflicting a wound which will probably prove fetal.

The tragedy was the result of jealousy. Miss Jordan, who was employed as sales-lady in the cloak and suit house of Armand Callieau, on Kearney street, had long been admired by De la Brousse. He is a salesman in the haberdashery establishment of Wolf & Frank, also on Kearney street, and he daily saw Miss Jordan passing to and from her work. Recentin walt for her at the noon hour, on a corner he knew she would pass as she went home to lunch. It was near her residence, close to the intersection of Hyde and Sacramento streets. He walted until his intended victim was by his side. shot struck the target at the base and knocked it into hundreds of pieces. Then, touching her on the arm to attract her attention, he deliberately fired two shots from a revolver into her head. She fell dead on the spot, without uttering a

The murderer then placed the pistol against his own head and pulled the trig-ger, but the weapon falled to go off. He owered it and it was discharged, the builet striking the sidewalk. Almost in-stantly he again aimed at his head, and this time the shot went to its mark.

He fell beside his victim, writhing in pain. The wound is a serious one, and it is not thought he can survive. The affair has caused considerable excitement, as each had a wide circle of friends and acquaintances. They were both under 30 years of age.

Statements regarding the details of the statements regarding the details of the tragedy were somewhat varied. The sto-ries told by eye witnesses, however, gen-erally agree that De la Brousse, who had left his place of employment about ten days ago, waited for Miss Jordan at the corner of Leavenworth and Sacramento streets. They walked down the street to-gether. They reached the entrance which eads into 1459 Sacramento street, a house well in the rear, with a large garden in front. De la Brousse, according to the statement made by Harvey Long, a carpenter, then at work on a house opposite, opened the gateway for the giri, and the two started up the broad walk together. When a few steps from the wicket De la Brousse placed his hand upon the girl's shoulder, then, arresting her prog-ress, pulled out a pistol and, placing the weapon to her head, fired two shots into She sank to the ground at his feet, and before Long could reach the spot, her murderer lay by her side with a bullet in De la Brousse left a letter addressed to his sister, telling of his love for Miss Jordan, and saying he could not suffer any longer as he had since she had discarded him. He asked forgiveness for the act he intended to commit.

Another document also found on the person of the murderer and would-be suicide, is addressed to the public. After saying: "I have suffered eight months of How I have stood it only the Lord knows," De La Brousse goes on to charge Miss Jordan's sister with separating him from his "beloved Marie" because he was not making financial headway, and in a rambling way tells of his troubles. Its "I not only curse you now but will wish you a curse on your head to the last hour

FINE EXHIBIT OF CATTLE. District Fair at Eugene Opens Today

With Much Promise. EUGENE, Sept. 25.-(Special.)—The exhibition of the District Agricultural Assoclation opened this morning and promises to be the best ever held by the association, and better than the officers had hoped, even yesterday. The weather is ideal and the grounds in fine condition, and early in the day evidences began to appear to indicate the success of the fair.

In the pavilion things are beginning to assume attractive shape with displays, This building is by far too small to ac-commodate the exhibits, and sheds have been built on three sides. The display of grains, grasses, fruits and vegetables is the subject of much favorable comment and is gotten up with great taste.

The woman's art and needlework deget his witnesses here earlier. The hear-ing will be held in the Circuit Court room partment, which is always an attractive feature of any fair, is assuming shape, and some excellent entries in these lines are shown. The women are at work and have their part of the pavilion fitted up in good taste, so that it is the object of much

More fine stock has arrived than was expected, and the show is certainly one which the management may be congratulated. Among the cattle there are some of the finest ever seen in this part of the state, including Jerseys, white Shorthorns, red Shorthorns, red Polled, Polled Angus, Herefords and Galloways, all showing highest of breeding.

There are also some excellent sheep, goats and swine, but cattle take the lead

Tomorrow will be the first real day of the fair, today having been taken up with organization. People are beginning to flock in, and the gatekeepers will have their turn for the following days.

SMASHES MOVING TARGET.

Eight-Inch Rifle Practice at Mouth of the Columbia. ASTORIA, Sept. 25 .- (Special.)-During the past two days target practice has been in progress at Fort Columbia, full service ammunition with solid steel projectiles being used under conditions that were as difficult and exacting as possible. The target was a triangular wooden structure with a base of six feet fastened on two logs. The plan was to fire five shots at it from eight-inch coast defense rifles at a distance of 8800 yards, the target to be moving out to sea with the tide. After the tide started to run out yesterday afternoon the target was towed by the steamer Major Guy Howard to a point near the Republic spit and turned his persistent attentions, and plainly in-formed him of that fact. Today he lay adrift. Lieutenant Spurr, who is in command of the battery at Fort Columbia, command of the battery at Fort Columbia, fired the first shot and made a remark-able hit. In fact, it was so good that operations had to be suspended until today, when a new target was secured. The

This morning another similar target was released at the same place and four shots fired at it, but none of them struck the mark. Each of the shots was good, however, and in three instances the spray from the shot striking the water splashed on the target and the fourth went so close that the vibration of the air caused it to shake. Any one of these shots was sufficiently accurate to have hit a vessel of moderate size. This completes the practice at Fort Columbia, but the forces at Fort Stevens will engage in a forces at Fort Stevens similar one next month,

BIG CROWD AT THE DALLES FAIR. Three Ruces Are Witnessed by Many Spectators.

THE DALLES, Or., Sept. 29.—(Special.)
—Superb weather and a large crowd of visitors greeted the opening of the fair and street carnival here today, which promises to be the largest and best yet seen in The Dalles. The parade this morn ing was witnessed by a large crowd of spectators. The races this afternoon opened the real features of the meeting and attracted a large attendance. As is usual, the pavilion and exhibits of fruit, etc., are not yet complete, although all presented a brilliant spectacle tonight. The livestock exhibited, as well as the grains and grasses, are said to be the finest ever displayed here. The Nine-teenth Regiment band, from Vancouver Barracks, is adding considerably to the enjoyment of the visitors. Both steam-boat lines brought a large number of excursionists tonight.

ARGUMENTS FOR OBSERVANCE OF FIRST DAY OF WEEK.

Rev. S. W. Gamble Also Declares That Thousands Die Prematurely, Forced to Ferego Day of Rest.

SALEM, Sept. 29.—(Special.)—"The Civil Sabbath and the Laboring Man" was the subject of the lecture delivered this evening by Rev. S. W. Gamble at the first meeting of the members of the Methodist conference for this year. Dr. Gamble has spent 25 years in the study of the Sunday question and his historical discoveries on that sub-ject are declared by Bishop Fowler to be the most important theological discoveries of the century. He is now traveling with Bishop J. W. Hamilton and lecturing be-maturely every year-at least eight years before God intended them to die. Not less than 250,000 a year thus go into premature graves in this Christian Nation. This means that 5000 men a week go down under the strain of laboring seven days in the week, and 5000 families a week are robbed of the one who earns their livingare robbed of their earnings for eight

Third—There is no ordinance in the New Pestament changing it.
Fourth-It was not changed until the cope of Rome changed it from Saturday to Sunday: and as the pope is "the beast" of the revelation, Sunday-keeping is the "mark of the beast," and "whosever worships the beast or has his mark (keeps Sinday as Sabbath) shall be cast out and the wrath of God shall be poured out upon Seventh-That modern Saturdarianism originated in the second century, A. D., and is no Bible Sabbath. Upon these assertions, made in his open-ing lecture, Dr. Gamble will speak at length through the week.

The one great need of the American laboring man is to have a rest day guaranteed to him by National law," declared Dr. Gamble. "It is estimated that over 4,060,000 American laboring men are compelled to labor every day alike, or risk being thrown out of employment if they to say that he will accept a position with refuse to labor on the Sabbath. ROAD TO THE SEVEN DEVILS.

Eastern Capital Will Soon Have Representative on the Ground. BAKER CITY, Or., Sept. 29.—(Special.)-There is considerable talk here this evening about a railroad to the Seven Devils ntry, via Eagle and Pine Valley, from city. Many wild rumors are affoat here this evening in regard to the project. What gave rise to the rumors was the receipt of a telegram here today announcing the early arrival of the representative of an Eastern capitalist to investigate and report on the possibilities of a road from this city to the Seven Devils.

The recipient of the message refused to night to give out anything for publica-tion further than to say that the capitalist in question was on his way to Baker City as reported. A general outline of this proposed road and the plan of procedure was published in The Oregonian under a as reported. Baker City date about three weeks ago,

The negotiations for the capital for the construction of the road and the right of way have been in progress for several months, until now everything is ready for submission to the capitalist or his representative, who is prepared to build the road, provided the facts and conditions prove to be as represented. One of the local premoters said tonight that there was no doubt but what the road would be built. The announcement at this time that the Eastern backer is on the road here was premature so far as the local promoters are concerned, and they all refuse to talk tonight or allow their names

Department of Agriculture at Washington, will be in the West in October, and it is desired to hold the convention about

Light Contract for State Buildings

SALEM, Sept. 29.—(Special.)—In accordance with an award made several months ago, the Board of Capitol Building Commissioners today signed a contract with the Citizens' Light & Traction Company for lighting the state institutions at Sa-iem for the ensuing five years. The con-tract price is $6 per month for each are light and 39 cents per month for each in-andescent light.

These rates are a reduction of about 30 per cent on the old rates, but the growth of the institutions in the last ten years has been so great that the total lighting

bill will be about the same as in the past

Increased Attendance at Centralia,

CENTRALIA, Wash., Sept. 29.—(Special.)—School commenced here yesterday with the largest attendance in the his-tory of the schools. The attendance was 779, which is about 50 higher than it was last year for the first day. Taking the first day and the averages for the past few years, and this would indicate the enrollment this year would be considerably in excess of 1000. The schoolhouses have

Is the joy of the household, for without it no happiness can be complete. How sweet the picture of mother and babe, angels smile at and commend the thoughts and aspirations of the mother which the expectant mother must pass, however, is so full of danger and suffering that she looks forward to the hour when she shall feel the exquisite thrill of motherhood with indescribable dread and fear. Every woman should know that the danger, pain and horror of child-birth can be entirely avoided by the use of Mother's Friend, a scientific liniment for external use only, which toughens and renders pliable all the parts, and assists nature in its sublime work. By its aid thousands of women have passed this great crisis in perfect safety and without pain. Sold at $1.00 per bottle by druggists. Our book of priceless value to all women sent free. Address, BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., Atlanta, Ga.
